Paris/Magnum, Photographs 1935-1981 ,1981 Paris/Magnum, Photographs 1935-1981 Irwin Shaw,1981-01-01

Magnum Russell Miller,2010-08-03 This book is a biography of Magnum told largely in the words of its photographers It offers a unique perspective on half a century of world history from an extraordinary group of men and women who were front line witnesses at virtually every major event in the last fifty years Wars famines natural disasters social political and environmental crises Magnum photographers were there They have been acute observers of the human condition photographing the richest people in the world the poorest the least known and the most celebrated from Marilyn Monroe to Che Guevara JFK to Nelson Mandela Picasso to Krushchev This is a multi layered story At one level it tells how a small group of photographers among them Robert Capa Henri Cartier Bresson and George Rodger came together established and nurtured a co operative photographic agency that has survived against all the odds to become the most famous in the world At a secondary level it is the richly anecdotal story of the photographers themselves their adventures around the world and their feelings about and reactions to their assignments Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set

Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Magnum's Paris, photographs 1935 - 1981 ,1982 The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Kershaw,2003-07-25 Friend of Hemingway John Huston and lover of beautiful women Capa lived a life that was equal parts glamour and danger He was the best of combat photographers yet no one knew that Capa was not his real name and that his greatest artistic achievement may well have been himself Two 8 page photo inserts George Rodger Carole Naggar,2003-10-01 He was a trailblazing twentieth century British photojournalist but George Rodger lived in the adventurous tradition of nineteenth century explorers Cofounding Magnum Photos in 1947 with Henri Cartier Bresson and Robert Capa the modest Rodger was eclipsed by his partners until now Rodger s Indiana Jones style escapades are legendary and worth the telling He once covered over 75 000 miles of old Africa in a Land Rover He even survived a white rhino charge He went on to become a key photographer of African tribal life During World War II he covered sixty one countries for Life magazine He was chased through three hundred miles of Burmese jungles by both the Japanese army and a tribe of headhunters And he was the first to record the liberation of the Bergen Belsen concentration camp He quit photography when he realized he was arranging thousands of Jewish corpses in nice photographic compositions In fascinating detail Carol Naggar not only recalls Roger s singular life and artistic contribution but she also provides an in depth look at the complex dynamics of ethics violence and photojournalism As such it places the legacy of George Rodger within a broader sociohistorical context Encyclopedia of Twentieth-century Photography Lynne Warren,2006 Publisher description
