Paris Manhattan Writings On Art:

Paris/Manhattan Peter Wollen, 2004 Peter Wollen is a master in the art of making unexpected connections and this new book suggests many different ways of writing and thinking about art Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 In this new collection of essays on film all written over the last ten years Peter Wollen explores an extraordinarily wide range of topics stretching from an analysis of Time in Film and Video Art to a study of Riff Raff Realism in British films There are provocative discussions of the works of established auteur directors such as Howard Hawks and Alfred Hitchcock and of the film making careers of such experimental movie makers as William Burroughs and Viking Eggeling the dadaist pioneer of abstract film The collection also includes fascinating studies of a number of film classics such as John Huston's Freud Jean Renoir s Rules of the Game and Ridley Scott s Blade Runner Other essays deal with the relationship of film to the other arts such as dance and architecture and explore the interaction between film and anthropology This is not a theoretical book but it is one that suggests many new approaches to thinking about film and many unexpected connections between film studies and the history of such strangely related activities as espionage psychoanalysis Stalinism love of speed and digital technology Full of fascinating new insights Peter Wollen's new book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film but rather a plethora of paths leading in very different directions each contributing to a new understanding of the Art in the City, the City in Art Elisha Masemann,2024-03-31 This Book examines an twentieth century s major art form interplay between discourses on the city that stress the need for rational functional order and art s imaginative deviations from the topdown structures of urban life Moving between theory and praxis the book situates the city as both a concept and physical construct through which lives and possibilities are shaped or defined In response certain modalities of art create spontaneous non rational and playful interludes that risk escape from the urban apparatus and a hyper valorisation of rational order A three part framework is used to discuss this push pull dynamic and to assess the strategies of shock performative embodiment and intervention that emerged in post war art movements and in contemporary performance and participatory art practices The book examines how the disturbances introduced by artists throw the city construct into sharp relief making it visible and activating momentary encounters where new modes of expression can emerge This Book offers a new approach to interdisciplinary studies of art and urbanity The book aims to delineate how the city as concept and construct is made visible through artistic practice and in turn challenged or interrogated Students researchers and professionals with an interest in the interaction between art and urban studies will discover a new perspective on how urban conditions and issues have been addressed through artistic practice. The book contributes to an evolving discourse in the urban humanities through an exposition of the city s default construct that is made visible or reimagined through visual art in public spaces Photography David Bate, 2020-09-25 Providing a thorough and comprehensive introduction to the study of photography this second edition of Photography The Key Concepts has been expanded and updated to cover more fully contemporary changes to photography Photography is a part of everyday life from news and advertisements to data collection and surveillance to the shaping of personal and social identity we are constantly surrounded by the photographic image Outlining an overview of photographic genres David Bate explores how these varied practices can be coded and interpreted using key theoretical models Building upon the genres included in the first edition documentary portraiture landscape still life art and global photography this second edition includes two new chapters on snapshots and the act of looking The revised and expanded chapters are supported by over three times as many photographs as in the first edition examining contemporary practices in more detail and equipping students with the analytical skills they need both in their academic studies and in their own practical work An indispensable guide to the field Photography The Key Concepts is core reading for all courses that consider the place of photography in society within photographic practice visual culture art media and cultural studies Consuming Surrealism in American Culture Sandra Zalman, 2017-07-05 Consuming Surrealism in American Culture Dissident Modernism argues that Surrealism worked as a powerful agitator to disrupt dominant ideas of modern art in the United States Unlike standard accounts that focus on Surrealism in the U S during the 1940s as a point of departure for the ascendance of the New York School this study contends that Surrealism has been integral to the development of American visual culture over the course of the twentieth century Through analysis of Surrealism in both the museum and the marketplace Sandra Zalman tackles Surrealism s multi faceted circulation as both elite and popular Zalman shows how the American encounter with Surrealism was shaped by Alfred Barr William Rubin and Rosalind Krauss as these influential curators mobilized Surrealism to compose to concretize or to unseat narratives of modern art in the 1930s 1960s and 1980s alongside Surrealism s intersection with advertising Magic Realism Pop and the rise of contemporary photography As a popular avant garde Surrealism openly resisted art historical classification forcing the supposedly distinct spheres of modernism and mass culture into conversation and challenging theories of modern art in which it did not fit in large part because of its continued relevance to contemporary American culture Three Bedrooms in Manhattan Georges Simenon,2003 An actor and a divorcee meet in a deserted New York City bar Diva Angela Dalle Vacche, 2008-03-15 Animated by a luminous goddess at its center the diva film provided a forum for denouncing social evils and exploring new models of behavior among the sexes Dalle Vacche offers the first authoritative study of this important film genre of the cinema that preceded the First World War Contrasting the Italian diva with the Hollywood vamp Theda Bara and the famous Danish star Asta Nielsen Dalle Vacche shows how the diva oscillates between articulating Henri Bergson s vibrant life force and representing the suffering figure of the Catholic mater dolorosa Cover Lust For Life Amy Scholder, Avital Ronell, Carla Harryman, 2020-05-05 Kathy Acker was one of the most original subversive and influential writers of the late 20th century Known variously and notoriously as a consummate postmodernist feminist post punk and plagiarist her oeuvreover a dozen novels and novellashas inspired a generation of writers and artists Lust for Life is the definitive collection of essays on Acker s inimitable work including Peter Wollen s elegiac primer widely considered the best introduction to Acker and Avital Ronell s erudite meditation on friendship and mourning Together these essays by scholars and writers reveal Acker s profound and innovative project and the ways in which fiction can penetrate the heart of political and cultural life

Surface Giuliana Bruno, 2014-06-09 What is the place of materiality the expression or condition of physical substance in our visual age of rapidly changing materials and media How is it fashioned in the arts or manifested in virtual forms In Surface cultural critic and theorist Giuliana Bruno deftly explores these questions seeking to understand materiality in the contemporary world Arguing that materiality is not a question of the materials themselves but rather the substance of material relations Bruno investigates the space of those relations examining how they appear on the surface of different media on film and video screens in gallery installations or on the skins of buildings and people The object of visual studies she contends goes well beyond the image and engages the surface as a place of contact between people and art objects As Bruno threads through these surface encounters she unveils the fabrics of the visual the textural qualities of works of art whether manifested on canvas wall or screen Illuminating the modern surface condition she notes how fa ades are becoming virtual screens and the art of projection is reinvented on gallery walls She traverses the light spaces of artists Robert Irwin James Turrell Tacita Dean and Anthony McCall touches on the textured surfaces of Isaac Julien s and Wong Kar wai s filmic screens and travels across the surface materiality in the architectural practices of Diller Scofidio Renfro and Herzog de Meuron to the art of Doris Salcedo and Rachel Whiteread where the surface tension of media becomes concrete In performing these critical operations on the surface she articulates it as a site in which different forms of mediation memory and transformation can take place Surveying object relations across art architecture fashion design film and new media Surface is a magisterial account of contemporary visual culture Writing Architectures Hélène Frichot, Naomi Stead, 2020-10-29 Architects and fiction writers share the same ambition to imagine new worlds into being Every architectural proposition is a kind of fiction before it becomes a built fact likewise every written fiction relies on the construction of a context in which a story can take place This collection of essays explores what happens when fiction experimental writing and criticism are combined and applied to architectural projects and problems It begins with ficto criticism an experimental and often feminist mode of writing which fuses the forms and genres of essay critique and story and extends it into the domain of architecture challenging assumptions about our contemporary social and political realities and placing architecture in contact with such disciplines as cultural studies literary theory and ethnography These sixteen newly written pieces have been selected for this volume to show how ficto critical writing can be a powerful vehicle for creative architectural practice providing new opportunities to explore modes of writing about architecture both within and beyond the discipline The collection represents a broad range of geographical and cultural positions including indigenous and non Western contexts and includes a foreword and afterword by important thinkers in the domains of architectural
