Paris Objet Trouve:

Paris Objet Trouvé Herbert J. M. Ypma, 1996      Absence in Cinema Justin Remes, 2020-07-14 Absence has played a crucial role in the history of avant garde aesthetics from the blank canvases of Robert Rauschenberg to Yves Klein's invisible paintings from the silent music of John Cage to Samuel Beckett's minimalist theater Yet little attention has been given to the important role of absence in cinema In the first book to focus on cinematic absence Justin Remes demonstrates how omissions of expected elements can spur viewers to interpret and understand the nature of film in new ways While most film criticism focuses on what is present such as images on the screen and music and dialogue on the soundtrack Remes contends that what is missing is an essential part of the cinematic experience He examines films without images such as Walter Ruttmann's Weekend 1930 a montage of sounds recorded in Berlin and films without sound such as Stan Brakhage's Window Water Baby Moving 1959 which documents the birth of the filmmaker's first child He also examines found footage films that erase elements from preexisting films such as Naomi Uman's removed 1999 which uses nail polish and bleach to blot out all the women from a pornographic film and Martin Arnold's Deanimated 2002 which digitally eliminates images and sounds from a Bela Lugosi B movie Remes maps out the effects and significations of filmic voids while grappling with their implications for film theory Through a careful analysis of a broad array of avant garde works Absence in Cinema reveals that films must be understood not only in terms of what they show but also what they withhold      Encore Tricolore Nouvelle 4 Copymasters and Assessment Heather Mascie-Taylor, Sylvia Honnor, 2001 Encore Tricolore nouvelle edition builds on the success of Encore Tricolore and Tricolore The new edition is exactly the right level for middle to high ability The course now incorporates new features to bring it in line with the revised GCSE and Standard Grade specifications      Paris Pia Jane Bijkerk, 2009 Stylist Pis Bijkerk leads you to more than 50 shops and studios where you'll find the most original and creative items in Paris      Please Touch Janine A. Mileaf, 2010 Exploring the notion of tactility in dada and surrealism      Paris Barbara-Ann Campbell, 1997      Rethinking Art Between the Wars Hans Dam Christensen, Øystein Hjort, Niels Marup Jensen, 2001 In the interwar period art revealed itself as part of the social and ideological order The work of art became a point of intersection for the modern unstable and ambiguous world Works of art produced in these decades reflect a range of discourses on power and subjectivity They contribute to the foundation of the post war development of aesthetic pluralism and point out the socially conditioned framings of the Fine Arts During the last decades research in the field of interwar art has reworked and reconceptualised existing notions on the period This book offers four new approaches which also contribute to reflections on methodological questions regarding the changes in the discipline of Art History since the early 1970s The articles discuss topics such as Le Corbusier's connection with the French fascist movement the position of women in the avant garde movement Giorgio de Chirico's play with kitsch and avant garde practices and the semiotics of the surrealist image      Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art Julia Kelly, 2017-07-05 Taking its departure point from the 1933 surrealist photographs of involuntary sculptures by Brassa and Dal Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art offers fresh perspectives on the sculptural object by relating it to both surrealist concerns with chance and the crucial role of photography in framing the everyday This collection of essays questions the nature of sculptural practice looking to forms of production and reproduction that blur the boundaries between things that are made and things that are found One of the book's central themes is the interplay of presence and absence in sculpture as it is highlighted disrupted or multiplied through photography's indexical nature The essays examine the surrealist three dimensional object its relation to and transformation through photographs as well as the enduring legacies of such concerns for the artwork's materiality and temporality in performance and conceptual practices from the 1960s through the present Found Sculpture and Photography sheds new light on the shifts in status of the art object challenging the specificity of visual practices pursuing a radical interrogation of agency in modern and contemporary practices and exploring the boundaries between art and everyday life From Rodin to Giacometti, 2021-09-06 This book is a collection of papers delivered at an international conference in September 1996 at the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art during a major Giacometti retrospective The contributors are leading curators art historians and literature specialists While the relationship between nineteenth and twentieth century painters and writers has been the subject of intense interest in recent years the parallel relationship between sculptors and writers has been largely neglected These essays seek to redress the balance by looking at a variety of ways in which the conventional barriers between writing and sculpting were broken down by such pioneering figures as Rodin Degas Bourdelle Valéry Apollinaire Reverdy Breton Bataille Arp Picasso and Giacometti Among the topics discussed are the many personal and professional contacts dual artistic talent Ecrits d'artistes ekphrasis sculpture as object the sculptorly representation of the poet the poetic representation of the sculptor sculpture as metaphor proprioception and mental images Fully illustrated throughout this book offers new perspectives on familiar masterpieces like Rodin's Gates of Hell but also opens up less well known subjects like Valéry's sculpture and Breton's Object Poems Above all it makes a provocative and original contribution to Word and Image studies Joan Miró Janis Mink, 2000 Modernism

Notre-Dame de Paris Hugo V., Victor Hugo est un écrivain romantique français mondialement célèbre L'influence de son oeuvre créée au XIXe siècle sur l'évolution de la littérature est indéniable Maintes fois adaptée au cinéma son roman Notre Dame de Paris est une de ses œuvres les plus connues et encensées Le lecteur suit les méandres d'un amour tragique de trois hommes pour une femme Cependant c'est Notre Dame qui est le personnage principal cette cathédrale qui recèle une multitude de secrets qui réunit des personnes les plus opposées et décide de leur sort The Oxford Dictionary of Art and Artists Ian Chilvers, 2009 The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities Covering a vast terrain this work will include entries on

Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies     Sculpture and Psychoanalysis

Brandon Taylor, 2017-07-05 Just what do psychoanalysis and modern sculpture have to do with one another The present collection of essays unique in its field shows how key metaphors of Freudian and Kleinian psychoanalysis splitting projection sublimation identification the schizoid and reparative mechanisms as well as Lacan's concepts of the stade du miroir and the objet petit a can be fruitfully applied to a range of modern three dimensional art from Surrealism to the present day As these essays show figures such as Barbara Hepworth Eva Hesse Jean Jacques Lebel Robert Morris Donald Judd Gilbert and George Rebecca Horn and others have often approached the material of sculpture with something like these mechanisms in mind The need to unlock the levels of psychoanalytic connection between artist object and viewer in recent debate has fuelled the diverse proposals of this original and important book
