Early Modern Dutch Prints of Africa Elizabeth A. Sutton, 2017-07-05 Using Pieter de Marees Description and Historical Account of the Gold Kingdom of Guinea 1602 as her main source material author Elizabeth Sutton brings to bear approaches from the disciplines of art history and book history to explore the context in which De Marees account was created Since variations of the images and text were repeated in other European travel collections and decorated maps Sutton is able to trace how the framing of text and image shaped the formation of knowledge that continued to be repeated and distilled in later European depictions of Africans She reads the engravings in De Marees account as a demonstration of the intertwining domains of the Dutch pictorial tradition intellectual inquiry and Dutch mercantilism At the same time by analyzing the marketing tactics of the publisher Cornelis Claesz this study illuminates how early modern epistemological processes were influenced by the commodification of knowledge Sutton examines the book's construction and marketing to shed new light on the social milieu that shared interests in ethnography trade and travel Exploring how the images and text function together Sutton suggests that Dutch visual and intellectual traditions informed readers' choices for translating De Marees text visually Through the examination of early modern Dutch print culture Early Modern Dutch Prints of Africa expands the boundaries of our understanding of the European imperial enterprise AB Bookman's Weekly, 1989-05

artists and authors theologians and visionaries struggled to define that perfection Depending on the source heaven's attributes vary from height to depth darkness to light silence to symphony the souls within it from activity to passivity experience to essence participation to distant admiration Questions addressed in this anthology include Are erotic and spiritual love mutually exclusive Does the soul's happiness depend on the resurrection of the body What will be the nature of the transfigured body Will it retain its gender Will it have senses Will it know desire How can desire and fulfillment exist together Can the human soul ever know God Contributors to this volume examine well known and previously unexplored texts and artefacts from historical and art historical theological philosophical and literary perspectives to complement and challenge more general surveys of the history of heaven and above all to illuminate the richness and variety of medieval Christian ideas on heaven

Ghost Ships Robert McNab, 2004-01-01 A moving and spectacular tale of love jealousy and exotic travel centering on three significant figures in the surrealist movement This book describes the secret journey made by an extraordinary ménage à trois the painter Max Ernst Paul Eluard cofounder of surrealism with André Breton and Eluard's wife Gala The author unravels the story of Ernst's love affair with Gala Eluard's disappearance Ernst and Gala's pursuit of him their meeting in Saigon where the love triangle came apart and the resulting departure of the Eluards who left Ernst to explore the jungles of French Indochina alone The impact on the work of both men was profound As for Gala she eventually dropped both her lovers for Salvador Dalí

How to See the World Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2016-04-12 Every two minutes Americans alone take more photographs than were printed in the entire nineteenth century every minute people from around the world upload over 300 hours of video to YouTube and in 2014 we took over one trillion photographs From the funny memes that we send to our friends to the disturbing photographs we see in the news we are consuming and producing images in quantities and ways that could never have been anticipated In the process we are producing a new worldview powered by changing demographics one where the majority of people are young urban and globally connected In How to See the World visual culture expert Nicholas Mirzoeff offers a sweeping look at history's most famous images from Velázquez's Las Meninas to the iconic Blue Marble to contextualize and make sense of today's visual world Drawing on art history sociology semiotics and everyday experience he teaches us how to close read everything from astronaut selfies to Impressionist self portraits from Hitchcock films to videos taken by drones Mirzoeff takes us on a journey through visual revolutions in the arts and sciences from new mapping techniques in the seventeenth century to new painting styles in the eighteenth and the creation of film photography and x rays in the nineteenth century In today's networked world mobile technology and social media enable us to exercise visual activism the practice of producing and circulating images to drive political and social change Whether we are looking at pictures showing the effects of climate change on natural and urban landscapes or an fMRI scan demonstrating neurological addiction Mirzoeff helps us to find meaning in what we see A powerful and accessible introduction to this new visual culture How to See the World reveals how images shape our lives how we can harness their power for good and why they matter to us all

All the World at War James Charles Roy, 2024-05-31 While battles and wars and the clash of civilizations are as old as time itself there is little doubt that the conflagration of 1914 1918 was something unique and terrifyingly new There was not a corner of the globe that did not feel its effects some more than others but the scope of its impact on economies populations food supplies the character of governments in general and the day to day lives of numberless ordinary people were such as the world had never experienced nor expected Little did anyone dream that the assassination of relatively minor figures of the Habsburg royal family Archduke Ferdinand of Austria and his wife carried out by an unknown Serbian teenager on the street corner of an obscure town called Sarajevo that few had ever heard of could possibly provide a spark that would plunge the entire European continent into an industrialized war of catastrophic destruction But it did the two shots that youth fired were surely heard around the world and several million people would perish or be maimed as a result The story of World War I has been told by many different writers historians and participants in many different ways especially so before and during the centennial of its events that just concluded All the World at War stands apart from many of these standard studies It presents a familiar story from points of view that many readers might find surprising unexpected details different perspectives atypical and generally insightful observations from contemporaries often obscure to modern readers who witnessed the events and personalities that pushed the war along from phase to phase The narrative is chronologically arranged beautifully written with something new or intriguing on every page This is a unique and finely paced account of The War to End all Wars that didn't
