Paris Hollywood Serge Jacques:

Paris-Hollywood Gilles Néret, 2001 L album d'un photographe de Paris Hollywood les pin up françaises des années 50 et 60 Serge Jacques Gilles Néret, 1998 It is part of Taschen's policy to celebrate the infamous and the notorious rebel artists who have had to constantly struggle against the rigid morality of the censors and the law French photographer Serge Jacques is a case in point His groundbreaking nudes in the 50s were deemed obscene because he revealed his models' pubic hair He faced countless arrests blacklists and regular raids on his studio and darkroom Like other mavericks of the time he continued his mission in the face of adversity and continued to photograph and publish the legendary French pin up magazine Paris Hollywood For Jacques Hollywood was a state of mind an imaginary landscape of the erotic imagination where everybody's sexual preferences were given free rein Painstakingly Jacques recreated the details of these fantasies within the privacy of his studio building papier mache sets posing the girls on beds of pretend snow and dressing them up and undressing them in decorative lingerie Kitsch amusing and still provocative this is an excellent compilation of Serge Jacques' finest and under the circumstances bravest work Book of My Mother Albert Cohen, 2012-04-10 Shortly after Albert Cohen left France for London to escape the Nazis he received news of his mother's death in Marseille Unable to mourn her he expressed his grief in a series of moving pieces for La France libre which later grew into Book of My Mother Achingly honest intimate and moving this love song is a tribute to all mothers Cohen himself expressed I shall not have written in vain if one of you after reading my hymn of death is one evening gentler with his mother because of me and my mother Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 In this new collection of essays on film all written over the last ten years Peter Wollen explores an extraordinarily wide range of topics stretching from an analysis of Time in Film and Video Art to a study of Riff Raff Realism in British films There are provocative discussions of the works of established auteur directors such as Howard Hawks and Alfred Hitchcock and of the film making careers of such experimental movie makers as William Burroughs and Viking Eggeling the dadaist pioneer of abstract film The collection also includes fascinating studies of a number of film classics such as John Huston's Freud Jean Renoir's Rules of the Game and Ridley Scott's Blade Runner Other essays deal with the relationship of film to the other arts such as dance and architecture and explore the interaction between film and anthropology This is not a theoretical book but it is one that suggests many new approaches to thinking about film and many unexpected connections between film studies and the history of such strangely related activities as espionage psychoanalysis Stalinism love of speed and digital technology Full of fascinating new insights Peter Wollen's new book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film but rather a plethora of paths leading in very different directions each contributing to a new understanding of the twentieth century's major art form Vincente Minnelli Joe McElhaney, 2009 This text offers a comprehensive scholarly examination of Vincente Minnelli one of American cinema's central filmmakers The book demonstrates the sustained rigour of Minnelli's vision Clint Eastwood's America Sam B.

Girgus,2013-11-22 The steady rise of Clint Eastwood's career parallels a pressing desire in American society over the past five decades for a figure and story of purpose meaning and redemption Eastwood has not only told and filmed that story he has come to embody it for many in his public image and film persona Eastwood responds to a national yearning for a vision of individual action and initiative personal responsibility and potential for renewal An iconic director and star for his westerns urban thrillers and adventure stories Eastwood has taken film art to new horizons of meaning in a series of masterpieces that engage the ethical and moral consciousness of our times including Unforgiven Million Dollar Baby and Mystic River He revolutionized the war film with the unprecedented achievement of filming the opposing sides of the same historic battle in Flags of Our Fathers and Letters from Iwo Jima using this saga to present a sharply critical representation of the new America that emerged out of the war a society of images and spectacles This timely examination of Clint Eastwood's oeuvre against the backdrop of contemporary America will be fascinating reading for students of film and popular culture as well as readers with interests in Eastwood's work and American film and culture

A Quiet American Andy Marino,2000-11-13 Varian Fry an American war correspondent set up a secret refuge escape system in Marseilles to get leading artists and intellectuals out of occupied France

Édith Piaf David Looseley,2015 The world famous French singer dith Piaf 1915-63 was never just a singer This book suggests new ways of understanding her her myth and her meanings over time at home and abroad by proposing the notion of an imagined Piaf

Climate Change and Society John Urry,2011-06-20 This book explores the significance of human behaviour to understanding the causes and impacts of changing climates and to assessing varied ways of responding to such changes So far the discipline that has represented and modelled such human behaviour is economics By contrast Climate Change and Society tries to place the social at the heart of both the analysis of climates and of the assessment of alternative futures It demonstrates the importance of social practices organised into systems In the fateful twentieth century various interlocking high carbon systems were established This sedimented high carbon social practices engendering huge population growth increasing greenhouse gas emissions and the potentially declining availability of oil that made this world go round Especially important in stabilising this pattern was the carbon military industrial complex around the world The book goes on to examine how in this new century it is systems that have to change to move from growing high carbon systems to those that are low carbon Many suggestions are made as to how to innovate such low carbon systems It is shown that such a transition has to happen fast so as to create positive feedbacks of each low carbon system upon each other Various scenarios are elaborated of differing futures for the middle of this century futures that all contain significant costs for the scale extent and richness of social life Climate Change and Society thus attempts to replace economics with sociology as the dominant discipline in climate change analysis Sociology has spent much time examining the nature of modern societies of modernity but mostly failed to analyse the carbon resource base of such societies This book seeks to remedy that failing It should appeal to teachers and students in sociology economics environmental studies geography planning politics and science studies as well as to the public concerned with the long term future of carbon and society

Paris to Hollywood, 2021 Is Paris Burning Dominique Lapierre, Larry Collins, 1991-03-01 From the bestselling author of The City of Joy comes the dramatic story of the Allied liberation of Paris Is Paris Burning reconstructs the network of fateful events the drama the fervor and the triumph that heralded one of the most dramatic episodes of our time This bestseller about 1944 Paris is timed to meet the demand for Dominique Lapierre books that will be generated by the March release of his compelling new Warner hardcover Beyond Love
