The Paris Review, 1986     Alice Munro: Writing Her Lives Robert Thacker, 2011-05-03 This is the book about one of the world's great authors Alice Munro which shows how her life and her stories intertwine For almost thirty years Robert Thacker has been researching this book steeping himself in Alice Munro's life and work working with her co-operation to make it complete The result is a feast of information for Alice Munro's admirers everywhere By following the parallel tracks of Alice Munro's life and Alice Munro's texts he gives a thorough and revealing account of both her life and work There is always a starting point in reality she once said of her stories and this book reveals just how often her stories spring from her life The book is chronological starting with her pioneer ancestors but with special attention paid to her parents and to her early days growing up poor in Wingham Then all of her life stages the marriage to Jim Munro the move to Vancouver then to Victoria to start the bookstore the three daughters the divorce the return to Huron County and the new life with Gerry Fremlin leading to the triumphs as story by story book by book she gains fame around the world until rumours of a Nobel Prize circulate     This Life, This World: New Essays on Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping, Gilead, and Home, 2015-09-29 This book explores the author's award-winning novels while also engaging her non-fiction As the first book devoted entirely to Robinson and to her diverse contributions to literature and scholarship This Life This World familiarizes readers with the major currents in her thought and moves scholarly dialogue into new theoretical directions An interdisciplinary group the contributors bring to their subject a diversity of perspectives Romanticism ecocriticism medicine and literature religion and literature theology American Studies critical race theory and feminist and gender studies that reflects the amplitude and fecundity of Robinson's art and thought The book begins with an annotated timeline and concludes with a substantive written interview with Robinson wherein she reflects on her work and its reception A tremendous resource for Robinson enthusiasts and for readers interested in the questions she raises in her fiction and non-fiction     Alice Munro: Paradox and Parallel Walter R. Martin, 1987 Beginning with her earliest uncollected stories W R Martin critically examines Alice Munro's writing career He discusses influences on Munro and presents an overview of the prominent features of her art the typical protagonist the development of her narrative technique and the dialectic that involves paradoxes and parallels     The Silence of Fallout Michael Blouin, Morgan Shipley, Jack Taylor, 2014-09-26 This collection asks how we are to address the nuclear question in a post Cold War world Rather than a temporary fad Nuclear Criticism perpetually re-surfaces in theoretical circles Given the recent events at the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear plant in Japan the ripple of anti-nuclear sentiment the event created as well as the discursive maneuvers that took place in the aftermath we might pause to reflect upon Nuclear Criticism and its place in contemporary scholarship and society at large Scholars who were active in earlier expressions of Nuclear Criticism converse with emergent scholars likewise striving to negotiate the field moving forward This volume revolves around these dialogic moments of agreement and departure refusing the silence of complacency the authors renew this conversation while taking it in exciting new directions As political paradigms shift and awareness of nuclear issues manifests in alternative forms the collected essays establish groundwork for future generations caught in a perpetual struggle with legacies of the nuclear      Fallout Lesley M.M. Carver,2015-05-25 A rich collection of poems from not only one of the great short story writers of our time The Philadelphia Inquirer but one of America s most large hearted and affecting poets Like Raymond Carver s stories the more than 300 poems in All of Us are marked by a keen attention to the physical world an uncanny ability to compress vast feeling into discreet moments a voice of conversational intimacy and an unstinting sympathy This complete edition brings together all the poems of Carver s five previous books from Fires to the posthumously published No Heroics Please It also contains bibliographical and textual notes on individual poems a chronology of Carver s life and work and a moving introduction by Carver s widow the poet Tess Gallagher Poetic Remaking George Bornstein,1990-10-01 This volume offers a coherent view of post romantic poetic development through selective examples both of individual poems and of poetic influence Bornstein focuses most centrally on Browning in the Victorian period and Yeats and Pound in the Modern but also looks more briefly at works by Wordsworth Coleridge Keats Shelley Arnold Tennyson and Eliot The introductory manifesto Four Gaps in Postromantic Influence Study posits four new orientations for such work taking the volume rather than the individual poem as a unit stressing more centrally the Victorian mediation between Romantic and Modern allowing for national differences among English Irish and American traditions and basing influence studies as much on manuscript materials as on finished products Each of the following chapters follows one or more of those orientations The initial four chapters Remaking Poetry focus on readings of specific poetic texts The first treats Browning s first major volume as a unit the second reads his dramatic monologue Pictor Ignotus against Romantic acts of mind the third maps distinctively Victorian variations in the major form known as Greater Romantic Lyric and the fourth explores Yeats s mature revision of that form The second group of four chapters Remaking Poets stresses the dynamics of literary influence by which poets turn their forerunners into figures helpful to their own development The first three examine Yeats s encounter with Dante Spenser Browning and Tennyson respectively the fourth treats Pound s remaking of the poet he called his poetic father Browning in a way that suggests the limits of anxiety models of poetic influence For this volume Professor Bornstein has revised and expanded a select group of his recent essays and added a new one on the Greater Victorian Lyric
