Huddleston,1928 Cafes and Bars Christoph Grafe,Franziska Bollerey,2007-09-12 The design of bars and cafes has played an important role in the development of architecture in the twentieth century This influence has been felt particularly strongly over the past thirty years in a time when these social spaces have contributed significantly to the rediscovery and reinvention of cities across Europe and North America This volume presents and examines this significant urban architectural production and discusses it against a background of the design of cafes and bars across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Major themes and developments are discussed and illustrated with case studies from the functionalist pre World War Two architects in Central Europe representing modern society through the design of public spaces right up to the design of sophisticated bars and cafes as part of the recent urban renaissance of Barcelona and Paris in 1980s and London in the 90s

The Making of Americans in Paris Noel Sloboda,2008 While living in Paris at the beginning of the twentieth century expatriate American writers Edith Wharton 1862 1937 and Gertrude Stein 1874 1946 never crossed paths Even so they did rub shoulders in print in autobiographical essays published by The Atlantic Monthly in 1933 Noel Sloboda shows that the authors pursued many of the same professional goals in these essays and in the book length life writings that grew out of them A Backward Glance 1934 and The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas 1933 By analyzing the personal and cultural contexts in which these works were produced as well as subjects common to both of them Sloboda illuminates a previously unrecognized solidarity between Wharton and Stein The relationship between the authors is built upon careful analysis of A Backward Glance and The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas and it is framed by a consideration of the markets into which their life writings were first released The alignment of Wharton and Stein as life writers will be of interest to those studying autobiography modern literature and American women writers James Joyce, 1928-1941 Robert H.

Deming,1997 Writings include Ulysses Finnegans Wake Dubliners 2 volumes cover the period 1906 1964 Extras Appendices include a list of the early editions of Joyce s writings The Forum ,1928 Modernist Fraud Leonard

Diepeveen,2019-02-14 Focusing on literature and visual art in the years 1910 1935 Modernist Fraud begins with the omnipresent accusations that modernism was not art at all but rather an effort to pass off patently absurd works as great art These assertions common in the time s journalism are used to understand the aesthetic and context which spawned them and to look at what followed in their wake Fraud discourse ventured into the aesthetic theory of the time to ideas of artistic sincerity formalism and the intentional fallacy In doing so it profoundly shaped the modern canon and its justifying principles

Modernist Fraud explores a wide range of materials It draws on reviews and newspaper accounts of art scandals such as the 1913 Armory Show the 1910 and 1912 Postimpressionist shows and Tender Buttons to daily syndicated columns to parodies and doggerel to actual hoaxes such as Spectra and Disumbrationism to the literary criticism of Edith Sitwell to the trial of Brancusi's Bird in Space and to the contents of the magazine Blind Man including a defense of Duchamp's Fountain a poem by Bill Brown and the works of and an interview with the bafflingly unstable painter Louis Eilshemius In turning to these materials the book reevaluates how modernism interacted with the public and describes how a new aesthetic begins not as a triumphant explosion that initiates irrevocable changes but as an uncertain muddling and struggle with ideology Theatre Guild Magazine, 1928 Black, Brown, & Beige Franklin Rosemont, Robin D.G. Kelley, 2009-12-07 This collection documents the extensive participation of people of African descent in the international surrealist movement over the past 75 years The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1929 Dance was her Religion Janet Lynn Roseman. Third Series* Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1957 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December Re-Covering Modernism David Earle, 2016-03-03 In the first half of the twentieth century modernist works appeared not only in obscure little magazines and books published by tiny exclusive presses but also in literary reprint magazines of the 1920s tawdry pulp magazines of the 1930s and lurid paperbacks of the 1940s In his nuanced exploration of the publishing and marketing of modernist works David M Earle questions how and why modernist literature came to be viewed as the exclusive purview of a cultural elite given its availability in such popular forums As he examines sensational and popular manifestations of modernism as well as their reception by critics and readers Earle provides a methodology for reconciling formerly separate or contradictory materialist cultural visual and modernist approaches to avant garde literature Central to Earle s innovative approach is his consideration of the physical aspects of the books and magazines covers dust wrappers illustrations cost which become texts in their own right Richly illustrated and accessibly written Earle s study shows that modernism emerged in a publishing ecosystem that was both richer and more complex than has been previously documented
