Paris Volume 2 1929:

The Rise and Propagation of Historical Professionalism Rolf Torstendahl, 2014-08-13 This book examines the evolution of historical professionalism with the development of an international community that shares a set of values regarding both methodological minimum demands and what constitutes new results Historical professionalism is not a fixed set of skills but a concept with varying import and meaning at different times depending on changing norms Torstendahl covers the propagation of these different ideals and of new educational forms from the late 18th century to the present from Ranke's state centrism to a historiography borne by social theories Provability, Computability and Reflection Lev D. Beklemishev, 2000-04-01 Provability Computability and Reflection

The Book of John Mandeville, 2011-03-15 A fictive traveler's guide to the East both Near and Far The Book of John Mandeville was a late medieval best seller more popular in its day than Marco Polo's Travels In addition to a fresh vibrant translation the first from the Middle French original since the fifteenth century this edition of The Book of John Mandeville offers a succinct broad ranging Introduction to the work that touches on the question of authorship the sources on which the text drew and the transformation and reception of the work down to the present day The President's Report Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.), 1928 The Beehive Metaphor

Juan Antonio Ramírez, 2000 Juan Antonio Ramírez examines the complex ideological artistic political and architectural repercussions of apian metaphors and their influence on architecture and ecological thinking for those in the Modern Movement of architecture Information Circular United States. Bureau of Mines, 1932 Contact Point, 1927 Recent Geographical Literature, Maps, and Photographs Added to the Society's Collection, 1928 Recent Geographical Literature, Maps and Photographs Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain), 1928 Report of the Assistant Director and of the Curators of the U.S. National Museum United States National Museum, 1928 Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber, 2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Geneviève Halvy Bizet Straus Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adhème de Cheygné and Elisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de siècle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women's daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women's lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past

Architecture and Movement Peter Blundell Jones, Mark Meagher, 2014-12-17 The experience of movement of moving through buildings cities landscapes and in everyday life is the only involvement most individuals have with the built environment on a daily basis User experience is so often neglected in architectural study and practice Architecture and Movement tackles this complex subject for the first time providing the wide range of perspectives needed to tackle this multi disciplinary topic Organised in four parts it documents the architect s planner s or designer s approach looking at how they have sought to deploy buildings as a promenade and how they have thought or written about it concentrates on the individual s experience and particularly on the primacy of walking which engages other senses besides the visual engages with society and social rituals and how mutually we define the spaces through which we move both by laying out routes and boundaries and by celebrating thresholds analyses how we deal with promenades which are not experienced directly but via other mediums such as computer models drawings film and television The wide selection of contributors include academics and practitioners and discuss cases from across the US UK Europe and Asia By mingling such disparate voices in a carefully curated selection of chapters the book enlarges the understanding of architects architectural students designers and planners alerting them to the many and complex issues involved in the experience of movement

Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures

Le Corbusier Nicholas Fox Weber, 2008-11-11 From acclaimed biographer and cultural historian author of Balthus and Patron Saints the first full scale life of le Corbusier one of the most influential admired and maligned architects of the twentieth century heralded is a prophet in his lifetime revered as a god after his death He was a leader of the modernist movement that sought to create better living conditions and a better society through housing concepts He predicted the city of the future with its large white apartment buildings in parklike settings a move away from the turn of the century industrial city which he saw as too fussy and suffocating and believed should be torn down including most of Paris Irascible and caustic tender and enthusiastic more than a mercurial innovator Le Corbusier was considered to be the very conscience of modern architecture In this first biography of the man Nicholas Fox Weber writes about Le Corbusier the precise mathematical practical minded artist whose idealism vibrant poetic imaginative discipline and sensualism were reflected in his iconic designs and pioneering theories of architecture and urban planning Weber writes about Le Corbusier s training his coming to live and work in Paris the ties he formed with Nehru Brassai Malraux he championed Le Corbusier s work and commissioned a major new museum for art to be built on the outskirts of Paris Einstein Matisse the Steins Picasso Walter Gropius and others We see how Le Corbusier who appreciated governments only for the possibility of obtaining architectural commissions was drawn to the new Soviet Union and extolled the merits of communism he never joined the party and in 1928 as the possible architect of a major new building went to Moscow where he was hailed by Trotsky and was received at the Kremlin Le Corbusier praised the ideas of Mussolini and worked for two years under the Vichy government hoping to oversee new construction and urbanism throughout France Le Corbusier believed that Hitler and Vichy rule would bring about a marvelous transformation of society then renounced the doomed regime and went to work for Charles de Gaulle and his provisional government Weber writes about Le Corbusier's fraught relationships with women he remained celibate until the age of twenty four and then often went to prostitutes about his twenty seven year long marriage to a woman who had no interest in architecture and forbade it being discussed at the dinner table about his numerous love affairs during his marriage including his shipboard romance with the twenty three year old Josephine Baker already a legend in Paris whom he saw as a pure and guileless soul She saw him as irresistibly funny What a shame you're an architect she wrote You'd have made such a good partner A brilliant revelation of this single minded elusive genius of his extraordinary achievements and the age in which he lived Information Circular, 1933

Manganese United States. Bureau of Mines, 1934 Teffi Edythe Haber, 2018-10-18 Teffi was one of twentieth century Russia's most celebrated authors Born Nadezhda Lokhvitskaya in 1872 she came to be admired by an impressive range of people from Tsar Nicholas II to Lenin and her popularity was such that sweets and perfume were named after her She visited Tolstoy when she was 13 to haggle with him about the ending of War and Peace and Rasputin tried and utterly failed to seduce her After the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917 she was exiled and lived out her days in the lively Russian migr community of Paris where she continued writing and enjoying comparable fame until her death in 1952 Teffi's best stories effortlessly shift from light humour and satire to pathos and even tragedy ever more so when depicting the daunting hardships she and her fellow migr's suffered in exile While best known for her stories and feuilletons she also moved over to other genres from serious poetry to theatrical miniatures and even music and inhabited an extraordinary range of spheres connected to both high and popular culture In the first biography of her in any language Edythe Haber here brings Teffi who has recently been rediscovered in the West to resounding acclaim to life Teffi's life and works afford a unique panoramic view of the cultural world of early twentieth century Russia from the debauchery of the Silver Age to the terror and euphoria of revolution and of interwar Russian emigration But they also offer fresh insights into the seismic events from the 1905 Russian Revolution and World War II to life as a refugee that she experienced first hand and recreated in her vivid penetrating moving and witty writing Ten-year Report on the Zoological Survey of India Zoological Survey of India, 1917 Annual Report Zoological Survey of India, 1926 Annual Report on the Zoological Survey of India for the Year ... Zoological Survey of India, 1917
