Parish Of The Next Millennium:

The Parish of the Next Millennium William J. Bausch, 1997 As the new millennium approaches here is a great resource for Catholics to discern the current movements in their parish and to begin planning the kind of spiritual and operational posture their parish should take in the future Catholicism in the Third Millennium Thomas P. Rausch, 2016-03-24 What is Catholicism And where is the Catholic Church headed in the third millennium These two questions provide the structure for Thomas Rausch's Catholicism in the Third Millennium Here Rausch combines a faithful presentation of the tradition with a critical theological reflection and interpretation of where the Church is today and where it might be moving Catholicism in the Third Millennium offers an appreciation of the forces and movements that have shaped and continue to influence the ongoing change and development of Roman Catholicism Chief among these is the influence of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 in reshaping Catholicism This revised edition includes updated text from Rausch's Catholicism at the Dawn of the Third Millennium particularly the final chapter on The Unfinished Agenda of Vatican II Each chapter concludes with focus questions developed by Catherine E Clifford of St Paul's University Ottawa This experience of guided reading provides readers with a broad survey of Roman Catholic faith and practice in its contemporary context For readers who wish to compare particular passages of this volume with the Catechism of the Catholic Church an outline is provided in an appendix with references to the appropriate sections of the Catechism A second appendix offers a glossary of terms used in the book while a third appendix lists a number of basic works for further investigation of Catholic faith and life Chapters are The Church and the Council Faith and the Believing Community A Visible Church A Living Tradition Sacraments and Christian Initiation Christian Life and Discipleship Sin Forgiveness and Healing Sexual Morality and Social Justice Prayer and Spirituality The Fullness of Christian Hope and The Unfinished Agenda Includes Appendix I Outlook of Book with References to the Catechism of the Catholic Church Appendix II Glossary of Terms and Appendix III Basic Reference Works on Catholicism An Index of Names and an Index of Subjects are also included Thomas P Rausch SJ PhD is professor of theology at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles He is the author of Catholicism at the Dawn of the Third Millennium Reconciling Faith and Reason and editor of the bestselling The College Student's Introduction to Theology published by Liturgical Press Catherine E Clifford PhD is a professor of theology at St Paul's University in Ottawa Ontario Priests for the Third Millennium Timothy M. Dolan, 2009-09 Priesthood begins with God's invitation but it develops out of man's response What does it take to respond enthusiastically wholeheartedly and faithfully to the call to serve In this attempt to answer these questions the author clearly sets forth what it takes to be a Catholic priest in the third millennium Whether he is stressing the necessity of regular Confession the need to celebrate daily Mass say the Liturgy of the Hours or discussing priestly celibacy in frank realistic terms he emphasizes true priestly identity by presenting a life worth living a life worth sharing a life worth offering up to the Father through Christ and in the Holy Spirit Because it is pastoral practical and thoroughly Catholic this book will renew the joy of being Catholic in the hearts of seminarians priests and the people they serve

Parish of the Next Millennium Fr William C. Bausch, Melannie Svoboda, 1997-05-31 This volume summarizes the social and cultural forces that shape people's lives and the Church by pulling together current research and issues that indicate where people are and where they are going

Tilling the Church Richard Lennan, 2022-05-14 Tilling the Church is a theology for the pilgrim church In this book Richard Lennan shows how the ecclesial community looks toward the fullness of God's reign but lives within the flux of history the site of its relationship to the trinitarian God In this way God's grace tills the church constantly refreshing the tradition of faith and prompting the discipleship that embodies the gospel Tilling the Church explores the possibilities for a more faithful just and creative church one responsive to the movement of grace Fruitful engagement with grace requires the church's conversion the ongoing formation of a community whose words and actions reflect the hope that grace engenders

New Faces, New Possibilities Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA), 2022-05-14 Religious sisters have created educational and healthcare systems over the past two hundred years that have transformed the Catholic community in the United States Through their ministry sisters have served waves of immigrants and those pushed to the margins The growing cultural diversity of newer sisters and the diminishing number of older sisters therefore is both a challenge and a creative moment to be critically examined This book examines these changes in culture and ethnicity among sisters the structural impact of diminishing numbers and the creative response to this new reality for religious life in the United States In it sisters from a variety of generations cultures and institutes join with the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate CARA researchers to examine and reflect on CARA's recent research findings and their impact on the life and ministry of sisters today

Gathering the NeXt Generation Nathan Humphrey, 2000-06-26 This collection of essays was written by a group of priests that are relatively rare in the Episcopal Church priests under 35 years of age In 1997 only 296 Episcopal clergy were from the group commonly known as Generation X they comprise only 3.5% of the ordained people in full time ministry in the Church Inspired by that statistic some GenX priests and seminarians organized a conference called Gathering the NeXt Generation which was held at Virginia Theological Seminary in June 1997 These essays while not the actual papers given at the conference are the result of that conversation and the ones that continue among GenX priests in the Episcopal Church The range of issues for GenX priests and for their ministry into the new millennium are important ones for the whole church As we approach a clergy shortage due to retirements in the Episcopal Church will we continue to discourage young men and women from entering the ordination process asking them to come back when they have some life experience Some contributors also consider new models of ministry the return of the concept of curacy the possibilities for bivocational ministry and the renewal of campus ministry Others help us look through the eyes of GenX priests and parishioners including those who are Black or pregnant and see the Church through a very different lens For all who care about the future of the Episcopal Church this volume written in the voices of those who will be our future is a must read Contributors include J Scott Barker Jennifer Lynn Baskerville Daniel Emerson Hall N J A Humphrey Richard Kew Jamie L Enfant Christopher Martin Beth Maynard Kate Moorehead Benjamin Shambaugh Rock H Schuler Margaret K Schwarzer and Nancy Voegelé Transforming the Parish Thomas P. Robert J. Hater,2013-03-25 Finally a practical step by step guide to the new evangelization Father Robert J Hater takes the New Evangelization from concept and theory to practical application and shows pastoral leaders and ministers exactly how to implement it parish wide In A Parish Guide to the New Evangelization you will learn How to overcome challenges to the new evangelization How to motivate parishioners to evangelize How to coordinate efforts at the parish level How to effectively reach inactive Catholics How to use the web and other media to promote your evangelization efforts What sets Catholic evangelization apart from Protestant evangelization How to jump start parish evangelization And much more Father Robert J Hater encourages all pastoral leaders to renew their commitment to the new evangelization and subsequently take pride in developing an evangelizing parish Mere Catholicism Daniel Agatino,2018-12-08 From the Author C S Lewis Mere Christianity is the obvious inspiration for the title of this book In that book Lewis uses the example of a person standing in a hall that is lined on both sides by rooms Each room represents a different Christian tradition He wanted to get readers into the hallway and let them choose for themselves whether to enter Christianity by the door of Anglicanism Catholicism and so forth Mere Christianity brilliantly focuses on what essentially all Christians agree upon namely the Creed the canon of the New Testament etc However many of the great controversies between Protestants and Catholics are purposely not discussed There were ecumenical reasons for avoiding topics like papal primacy purgatory Marian devotions and so forth But by avoiding these sorts of topics Mere Christianity can be read as Mere Protestantism I wrote Mere Catholicism to address some of those missing topics Even though I am both intellectually and emotionally convinced of the truth of Catholic Christianity I am indebted to C S Lewis an Anglican for helping me better understand how Christianity offers the most compelling raison d'être His work and I hope my own is an exploration of faith seeking understanding to quote St Anselm of Canterbury Contents Preface Introduction Christianity in the Third Millennium 1 Faith and Reason 2 Freedom and Responsibility 3 Work and Prayer 4 Sin and Salvation Hamartiology and Soteriology 5 Suffering and Love 6 God Theology 7 Jesus Christology 8 Mary Mariology 9 Saints and Angels Hagiology and Angelology 10 The Church Ecclesiology 11 The Bible Bibliology 12 Humankind Creation and Last Things Anthropology and Eschatology Notes About the Author
