Parish Renewal At The Grassroots:

Parish Renewal at the Grassroots David Prior, 1987 The Church Between Gospel and Culture George R. Hunsberger, Craig Van Gelder, 1996 This excellent collection of essays written by a diverse group of Christian leaders working on the frontier of mission within the present North American context lays the groundwork for the newly emerging missionary encounter of the gospel with North American culture Demonstrating that the missionary identity of the church is to be found at the intersection of culture gospel church these essays outline the missionary agenda now before the church as it confronts North American assumptions perspectives preferences and practices The Master Plan of Evangelism Robert E. Coleman, 2006-04-01 For more than forty years this classic study has challenged and instructed more than 15 million readers in reaching the world for Christ With a foreword by Billy Graham and now repackaged for a new generation of readers The Master Plan of Evangelism will show every Christian how to minister to the people God brings into their lives Instead of drawing on the latest popular fad or the newest selling technique Robert E Coleman looks to the Bible to find the answer to the question What was Christ's strategy for evangelism Through a thorough examination of the gospel accounts Coleman points out unchanging simple yet profound biblical principles of how to emulate Christ to others Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Biblical Foundations for Small Group Ministry Gareth Weldon Icenogle, 1994-03-01 Drawing on biblical teaching and the ministry of the early church Gareth Weldon Icenogle offers guidance for setting up and running a biblically based small group ministry program Under One Roof: Uniting the Orthodox Church of America George E. Matsoukas, 2021-02-20 This is the second collection of essays compiled from opinion columns written during the period 2012-2020 when George Matsoukas served as executive director of Orthodox Christian Laity OCL The first collection A Church in

Captivity The Greek Orthodox Church of America is also a collection of opinion columns this one written during the period 1990 2007 This series of observational essays can be considered a first cut in putting together the history of Orthodoxy in America during this 30 year period These essays also tell the OCL story and provide an insight into how the organization functions The essays are written from the point of view of how societal events and concerned faithful were energized to advance the mission of Orthodox Christian Laity OCL is a pan Orthodox educational and advocacy ministry formed in 1987 to advocate for the restoration and strengthening of the historic role of the laity in the conciliar governance of the Orthodox Church in the United States support the spiritual renewal and regeneration of the Orthodox Christian Church in the United States in its Apostolic Mission advocate for and promote transparency and accountability in the governance of the Orthodox Church in the United States advocate for and champion the establishment of an administratively and canonically unified self governing autocephalous Orthodox Christian Church in the United States Matsoukas musings in his first volume A Church in Captivity reflect the deep political changes transpiring after the fall of Communism in the captive Orthodox nations and then in what manner those national churches began to respond to their diasporas those still existing multiple jurisdictions in The United States This weighing of the ongoing strain between those who continue to uphold that a unity through a simple Eucharistic oneness is sufficient and those who insist on a canonically unified Church administration is the stuff of volume two Under One Roof Uniting the Orthodox Church of America It is the fruit of the author s essays of the past 13 years Matsoukas objective is to call us to be faithful to the Canonical Tradition of the Church so that it can bring forth the fullest witness of Orthodoxy through uniting all Orthodox in The United States Considering the low percentage of Orthodox believers vis vis others in this nation the call to strength in unity makes practical sense as well There is strength in numbers Matsoukas reminds us that although we seem to be under one Eucharistic roof he calls for a oneness which must not be as a loose federation of jurisdictions dependent on Synods abroad but an authentic unity in itself total canonical autocephalous as other local churches each became The reader is grateful for the wide coverage given us of thirteen years of new Orthodox witness in the six divisions Orthodox Christian Laity Story Promoting Unity Holy and Great Council Assembly of Bishops Greek Orthodox Archdiocese Renewal of this new volume The reader can take each article one by one and enjoy the author s convincing presentations and then sit back and enjoy arguing with him Can an assembly of jurisdictions occasionally gathered at an altar receiving from one cup and one diskos be the fullness of Orthodox witness under one roof The author s answer is an emphatic No The Living Church ,1957 Pentecostal Theology and Ecumenical Theology ,2019-09-16 Pentecostal Theology and Ecumenical Theology Interpretations Intersections and Inspirations brings together globally recognized and newer scholars to address the complex relationship between Pentecostalism and the Ecumenical Movement Historical essays address topics such as early Pentecostal responses to and participation in ecumenism explicit convergences between Pentecostal and ecumenical initiatives and the particular contributions of Pentecostals and ecumenists outside

North America and Europe Constructive theological essays address intersections between ecumenical theology and systematic loci in Pentecostal perspective in the hope that mutual exchange and criticism will lead to ways to improve both Never before have this many scholars of Pentecostalism combined their efforts in order to focus on the relationship between Pentecostal theology and ecumenical theology past present and future The Cumulative Book Index ,1989 Hispanic American Religious Cultures Miguel A. Those in Power Ray Buteau,2015-04-23 Many of us had lived an experience in the Roman Catholic Institution that we couldnt find words to articulate until society created language for the experience of abuse Abuse was seen as doing something that would inspire fear but it is a form of control that can be either aggressive or subtle The church like secular society is in the midst of change Since New Testament times there has been a struggle between Gospel values and those of the world We have to come to terms with a shift from religious authority to spiritual experience We are now living in a culture of experience Many are longing for the recreation of meaningful rituals that would engage more deeply a language of the heart imagination and passion Women and gay priests are uniquely able to contribute to this recreation but both are being kept in their place and will not be able to contribute fully within the structure and limitations of the Roman Catholic Institution Power is the ability to enforce control Empowerment is the ability to do something for oneself Living Lutheran Dave Daubert,2007-01-01 Kelly Fryer s book Reclaiming the L Word introduced one congregation s journey through renewal Now Dave Daubert provides a practical how to guide that will enable church leaders to help individual congregations walk through the process for themselves Creative and informative the book provides a straightforward approach that helps congregations reclaim Lutheran tradition for the 21st century Includes questions for individual or group reflection and an additional resources section Toward a New Catholic Church James Carroll,2002-09-01 The National Book Award winning author seizes the moment of Catholicism s sexual abuse crisis to call for a Vatican III Publishers Weekly Elaborating on A Call for Vatican III from his New York Times bestseller Constantine s Sword The Church and the Jews James Carroll proposes a clear agenda for reform to help committed but concerned Catholics understand the most essential issues facing their Church

Carroll moves beyond current events to suggest new ways for Catholics to approach Scripture Jesus and power and he looks at the daunting challenges facing the Church in a world of diverse beliefs and contentious religious fervor His thought provoking case for democracy within the Church illustrates why lay people have already initiated change Carroll shows that all Catholics parishioners priests bishops men and women have an equal stake in ensuring the Church s future The boisterous collapse of trust in the Catholic hierarchy during the pedophile scandals makes it not only important but imperative to heed this eloquent call for a new Ecumenical this time truly ecumenical Council Garry Wills author of Why I Am a Catholic Unbeaten Paths John Fernandes,2020-03-10 John Fernandes walked on Unbeaten Paths and presents a theologically reflected autobiography on it He studied in Mangaluru Pune Innsbruck and Trier As Pastor and Professor of Theology in India he committed himself to justice and peace Living on the Periphery Crossing Borders Building Bridges aptly summarises the author s life This book includes a lived Liberation Theology examples of ecumenical and interfaith cooperation and commitment to justice peace and ecology Thus it is a contribution to narrative mission theology The Indian artist Jyoti Sahi has illustrated the book The Catholic Ethicist in the Local Church (CTEWC Series) Autiero, Antonio,Magesa, Laurenti,2018-04-24 Talking Treason in Church Joseph P. Marren M.A.,2009-12 Draws from the practices of the first three centuries of the Catholic Church to provide a plan to restore the sacraments and governance of the Church to lay people s hands Marren contends that the present hierarchy of the Catholic Church have disqualified themselves as leaders of the Church by their total lack of communication with the laity their outrages against children their failure to admit guilt or do penance for those crimes and their arrogance in electing themselves to the posts they hold without consulting the laity Their writ has expired Instead of elections which tend to divide people into warring camps this book recommends consensus decision making which draws on ancient Christian tradition to discern the Church s leaders What s in this book Church history and theology from a lay viewpoint the first practical handbook for lay reform of the Church a return to early Church custom before priesthood began mass and the sacraments restored to lay celebrations lay people returned to full membership in the Church the groundwork laid for the popular election of bishops the mass made widely available in the Third World women brought to the table now as mass presiders celibacy eliminated as a requirement for mass presiders Vatican II s promises fulfilled for the people of God for lay people a long sought control over hierarchy and an indispensable toolkit for committed Catholics The Transformation of Anglicanism William L. Sachs,2002-07-04 This much needed book seeks to understand the nature of Anglicanism s adaptation to modern culture The Expectation of the Poor Guillermo Cook,2021-05-04 This is by far the most serious study undertaken by a Protestant missiologist on the Latin American base ecclesial communities It is also one of the few studies that relates this extraordinary ecclesial phenomenon with its counterpart in Protestant history The fact that Cook writes not only as a Protestant but as one identified with the evangelical tradition makes it all the more relevant It should be required reading for everyone interested in the life and mission of the grassroots church in the Americas and in the renewal of local congregations everywhere Orlando E Costas Andover Newton Theological School The book is painstakingly researched extraordinarily well written and in my judgment sets a new benchmark for understanding one of the truly phenomenal things God is doing among grassroots Christians in Latin America Alan Neely Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Guillermo Cook has performed an invaluable service With his encyclopedic grasp of the history ethos and current activities of the comunidades de base grassroots lay communities in the Latin American Catholic Church he has provided a vivid reminder of the sort of parallel stirrings that brought renewal to many Protestant churches and spawned new spiritual movements during the last four hundred years These Catholic ecclesial communities are being used of God to transform static clergy dominated sacramentalist structures into living spontaneous movements of loving service and evangelistic concern All should join Dr Cook in praying that they shall continue to be the Hope of the Church and the Expectation of the Poor throughout Latin America today and tomorrow Arthur F Glasser Fuller Theological Seminary The Expectation of the Poor is the most inclusive study on the subject that I know Cook brings to this task his long years of experience and study as a missiologist who has spent decades working in Latin America His bibliography is probably the most complete on the subject that has been published Mortimer Arias author of The Cry of My People From the Parish for the Life of the Word Stephen P Bouman, 2000-01-01 This is a book about the parish written from the heart of parish life Its heart is an edited collection of Lutheran Forum articles with other published work and new material adding dimension to some of the themes explored in these pages This collection provides diverse soundings of parish life in the Gospel and suggests a Lutheran theology of the parish but one that is accessible and relevant across the ecumenical diversity of the One Body of Christ For pastors and lay readers this book seeks to support the ministry of congregations as well as inspiring and provoking dialogue in local parishes
