Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2002-11-17 Peter Wollen's book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film

Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 In this new collection of essays on film all written over the last ten years Peter Wollen explores an extraordinarily wide range of topics stretching from an analysis of Time in Film and Video Art to a study of Riff Raff Realism in British films There are provocative discussions of the works of established auteur directors such as Howard Hawks and Alfred Hitchcock and of the film making careers of such experimental movie makers as William Burroughs and Viking Eggeling the dadaist pioneer of abstract film The collection also includes fascinating studies of a number of film classics such as John Huston's Freud Jean Renoir's Rules of the Game and Ridley Scott's Blade Runner Other essays deal with the relationship of film to the other arts such as dance and architecture and explore the interaction between film and anthropology This is not a theoretical book but it is one that suggests many new approaches to thinking about film and many unexpected connections between film studies and the history of such strangely related activities as espionage psychoanalysis Stalinism love of speed and digital technology Full of fascinating new insights Peter Wollen's new book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film but rather a plethora of paths leading in very different directions each contributing to a new understanding of the twentieth century's major art form

Paris Manhattan Peter Wollen, 2004-04-17 Peter Wollen is a master in the art of making unexpected connections and this new book suggests many different ways of writing and thinking about art

The Films of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen, 2023-04-20 This collection of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen's film scripts vividly evokes the close connection between their influential work as theorists and their work as filmmakers It includes scripts for all six of Mulvey and Wollen's collaborative films Wollen's solo feature film Friendship's Death 1987 and Mulvey's later collaborations Each text is followed by a new essay by a leading writer offering a critical interpretation of the corresponding film The collection also includes Wollen's short story Friendship's Death 1976 the outlines for two unrealised Mulvey and Wollen collaborations and a selection of scanned working documents The scripts and essays collected in this volume trace the historical significance of a complex cinematic project that brought feminist semiotic and psychoanalytic concerns together with formal devices and strategies The book includes original contributions from Nora M Alter Kodwo Eshun Nicolas Helm Grovas Esther Leslie Laura Mulvey Volker Pantenburg Griselda Pollock B Ruby Rich and Sukhdev Sandhu

Hollywood Exiles in Europe Rebecca Prime, 2014-01-14 Rebecca Prime documents the untold story of the American directors screenwriters and actors who exiled themselves to Europe as a result of the Hollywood blacklist During the 1950s and 1960s these Hollywood migrants directed wrote or starred in almost one hundred European productions their contributions ranging from crime film masterpieces like Du rififi chez les hommes 1955 Jules Dassin director to international blockbusters like The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Carl Foreman and Michael Wilson screenwriters and acclaimed art films like The Servant 1963 Joseph Losey director At once a lively portrait of a lesser known

American lost generation and an examination of an important transitional moment in European cinema the book offers a compelling argument for the significance of the blacklisted migrants to our understanding of postwar American and European cinema and Cold War relations Prime provides detailed accounts of the production and reception of their European films that clarify the ambivalence with which Hollywood was regarded within postwar European culture Drawing upon extensive archival research including previously classified material Hollywood Exiles in Europe suggests the need to rethink our understanding of the Hollywood blacklist as a purely domestic phenomenon By shedding new light on European cinema's changing relationship with Hollywood the book illuminates the postwar shift from national to transnational cinema

International Noir Homer B. Pettey, 2014-11-11 Ranging from Japanese silent films and women's films to French Hong Kong and Nordic New Waves this book explores the influence of noir on international cinematic traditions and challenges prevailing film scholarship It includes extensive bibliography and filmographies for recommended reading and viewing

Paris by Hollywood Antoine de Baecque, 2012 This comprehensive volume examines Tinseltown's fascination with the City of Light from silent movies through to modern blockbusters Romantic elegant and enticing Paris has fascinated American filmmakers for over a century As habile in accommodating a romantic comedy or mystery as it is in hosting an action packed thriller it is by far the foreign city that appears most frequently in Hollywood movies In Paris by Hollywood essays by eminent film experts and commentators uncover Hollywood's role in the cultivation of now timeless Parisian clichés examining seminal films such as An American in Paris The Hunchback of Notre Dame and Sabrina Chapters on Audrey Hepburn's Parisian persona Disney's and Woody Allen's personifications of Paris Hollywood's depictions of the French Revolution and the American fascination with the enigmatic glamorous Parisienne explore a cultural relationship that owes as much to the allure of Paris itself as to Hollywood's desire to paint a picture of European exoticism Interviews with eminent filmmakers and actors including Martin Scorsese Julie Delpy and Leslie Caron bring us behind the scenes and provide intimate insider's perspective Insightful analysis explores the reasons why Hollywood has invested and continues to invest so much in depicting the French capital an often mutually beneficial economic and cultural relationship Covering over 100 years of movie making from silent films to the animated world of Disney via Cancan films and action packed blockbusters Paris by Hollywood is the perfect companion for lovers of American cinema and those captivated by the magic of the French capital Architecture,

Politics, and Identity in Divided Berlin Emily Pugh, 2014-03-21 On August 13 1961 under the cover of darkness East German authorities sealed the border between East and West Berlin using a hastily constructed barbed wire fence Over the next twenty eight years of the Cold War the Berlin Wall grew to become an ever present physical and psychological divider in this capital city and a powerful symbol of Cold War tensions Similarly stark polarities arose in nearly every aspect of public and private life including the built environment In Architecture Politics and Identity in Divided Berlin Emily Pugh provides an original comparative analysis of selected works of architecture and urban planning in both halves of Berlin during the Wall era revealing the importance of these structures to the formation of political cultural and social identities Pugh uncovers the roles played by organizations such as the Foundation for Prussian Cultural Heritage and the Building Academy in conveying the political narrative of their respective states through constructed spaces She also provides an overview of earlier notable architectural works to show the precursors for design aesthetics in Berlin at large and considers projects in the post Wall period to demonstrate the ongoing effects of the Cold War Overall Pugh offers a compelling case study of a divided city poised between powerful contending political and ideological forces and she highlights the effort expended by each side to influence public opinion in Europe and around the World through the manipulation of the built environment

Signs and Meaning in the Cinema Peter Wollen, 1972 Without doubt it is the best study of cinema published in English for years Cinema a major achievement drawing on the results of aesthetic inquiry from Shaftesbury and Lessing to Jakobson and the formalists in order to relate the cinema to wider areas of linguistic theory and theory of art Times Literary Supplement

Hollywood and the Great Depression Iwan Morgan, 2016-10-31 Examines how Hollywood responded to and reflected the political and social changes that America experienced during the 1930s In the popular imagination 1930s Hollywood was a dream factory producing escapist movies to distract the American people from the greatest economic crisis in their nations history But while many films of the period conform to this stereotype there were a significant number that promoted a message either explicitly or implicitly in support of the political social and economic change broadly associated with President Franklin D Roosevelts New Deal programme At the same time Hollywood was in the forefront of challenging traditional gender roles both in terms of movie representations of women and the role of women within the studio system With case studies of actors like Shirley Temple Cary Grant and Fred Astaire as well as a selection of films that reflect politics and society in the Depression decade this fascinating book examines how the challenges of the Great Depression impacted on Hollywood and how it responded to them Topics covered include How Hollywood offered positive representations of working women Congressional investigations of big studio monopolization over movie distribution How three different types of musical genres related in different ways to the Great Depression the Warner Bros Great Depression Musicals of 1933 the Astaire Rogers movies and the MGM akids musicals of the late 1930s The problems of independent production exemplified in King Vidor's Our Daily Bread Cary Grant's success in developing a debonair screen persona amid Depression conditions Contributors Harvey G Cohen King's College London Philip John Davies British Library David Eldridge University of Hull Peter William Evans Queen Mary University of London Mark Glancy Queen Mary University of London Ina Rae Hark University of South Carolina Iwan Morgan University College London Brian Neve University of Bath Ian Scott University of Manchester Anna Siomopoulos Bentley University J E Smyth University of Warwick Melvyn Stokes University College London Mark Wheeler London Metropolitan University

Sight and Sound, 1963

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grnstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs The Writers Directory ,2013

Hitchcock and Twentieth-century Cinema John Orr,2005 John Orr looks at the work influences legacy and style of perhaps cinema s most famous director Alfred Hitchcock The Economist ,2002 New Left Review ,2007 Festival Book ,2004 Robert Lehman Lectures on Contemporary Art ,2004 The Horse who Drank the Sky Murray Pomerance,2008 The author argues in this book that what is most important for cinema is that we are alive with it and that for all its dramatic literary political sociological and philosophical weight film is ultimately an art that provokes touches and riddles the viewer through an image that transcends narrative and theory Man Ray Man Ray,2011 When American born Surrealist Man Ray died in 1976 he left behind thousands of photo negatives mostly portraits taken in his studio after his arrival in Paris in 1921 The Centre Georges Pompidou which has owned them since the mid 1990s has duly catalogued the collection of negatives and is now in a position to bring out what is an encyclopedic publication in the best sense of the term It attests both to Man Ray s ability as a portrait photographer and to the quality of his archive as a monument to cultural history The catalog features 500 portraits each of which is explained in a short commentary Since Man Ray s clientele was made up of members of Dadaist and Surrealist circles of artists and painters of writers and US emigrants of the Lost Generation of aristocrats and paragons of the worlds of fashion and theater the book is at the same time a marvelous Who s Who and an indispensable reference work for a broad range of different historians and scholars of the 20th century
