Parislexington Road Communitybased Planning And Context Sensitive Highway Design:

The Paris-Lexington Road Krista Schneider, 2003-09 Located in Kentucky the Paris Pike is a scenic 12 mile corridor running between Lexington and Paris This work focuses on the reconstruction of the Paris Pike renamed the Paris Lexington Road and illustrates its significance to the profession of landscape architecture The Community Planning Handbook Nick Wates, 2014-04-03 Growing numbers of residents are getting involved with professionals in shaping their local environment and there is now a powerful menu of tools available from design workshops to electronic maps The Community Planning Handbook is the essential starting point for all those involved planners and local authorities architects and other practitioners community workers students and local residents It features an accessible how to do it style best practice information on effective methods and international scope and relevance Tips checklists and sample documents help readers to get started quickly learn from others experience and to select the approach best suited to their situation The glossary bibliography and contact details provide quick access to further information and support This fully updated new edition contains extra material on following up after community engagement activities Grant Jones / Jones & Jones Grant R. Jones, 2007-05-31 Grant Jones founding principal of the noted landscape architecture firm Jones Jones has practiced ecological design for more than 30 years and has been a pioneer in river planning scenic highway design zoo design and landscape aesthetics The latest addition to our successful Source Books in Landscape Architecture series Grant Jones Jones ILARIS focuses on Jones s green print plan for Puget Sound in Washington State Working in collaboration with the Trust for Public Lands and using new GIS technology Jones Jones developed the software tool ILARIS This CAD liketool helps to evaluate the aesthetic resources of landscape regions and is used as a basis for future planning The Puget Sound model can be applied to other landscapes at risk Including an interview with Grant Jones critical essays discussing his work as well as numerous diagrams plans and photographs Grant Jones Jones Jones ILARIS is a thorough study of an important project

Urban Open Space Mark Francis, 2003-09 Sustainable Site Design Claudia Dinep, Kristin Schwab, 2010-05-18 Sustainable Site Design introduces the core concepts of sustainability as applied to landscape architecture Focusing on site scale design this book provides a regional framework for integrating sustainable practices throughout the design process From landscape analysis to program and design development each design phase is illustrated with detailed case studies covering a broad range of innovative built landscape architectural projects Kentucky's Frontier Highway Karl Raitz, Nancy O'Malley, 2012-11-30 A remarkable historical and geographical study of a road linking Lexington and Maysville Kentucky and its influence on America West Virginia History Eighteenth century Kentucky beckoned to hunters surveyors and settlers from the mid Atlantic coast colonies as a source of game land and new trade opportunities Unfortunately the Appalachian Mountains formed a daunting barrier that left only two primary roads to this fertile Eden The steep grades and dense forests of the Cumberland Gap rendered the Wilderness Road impassable to wagons and the northern route extending from southeastern Pennsylvania became the first main thoroughfare to the rugged West winding along the Ohio River and linking Maysville to Lexington in the heart of the Bluegrass Kentucky s Frontier Highway reveals the astounding history of the Maysville Road a route that served as a theater of local settlement an engine of economic development a symbol of the national political process and an essential part of the Underground Railroad Authors Karl Raitz and Nancy O Malley chart its transformation from an ancient footpath used by Native Americans and early settlers to a central highway examining the effect that its development had on the evolution of transportation technology as well as the usage and abandonment of other thoroughfares and illustrating how this historic road shaped the wider American landscape The authors demonstrate quite convincingly that rich local history lies along our roads They unearthed an abundance of behind the scenes information that is invisible to us as we barrel down the highway It should give all readers pause to consider how much more they could know about the places they travel through Craig E Colten author of Perilous Place Powerful Storms Hurricane Protection in Coastal Louisiana A very well researched and well written book that makes a significant contribution to the study of American roads U S settlement history and Kentucky history in particular The authors approach is broad and multifaceted well organized and keenly focused on the myriad aspects of an important path the land and time it transits This is a fine holistic study of an important and complex road and its many geographical and historical components Drake Hokanson author of Lincoln Highway Main Street across America This notable and ably illustrated volume captures the rigors of frontier Appalachian geography and the utter ingenuity of diverse peoples bent on moving west The road is perhaps the greatest of American themes it encapsulates freedom mobility possibility escape commerce crime and calumny adventure and romance Thank goodness we have these two able storytellers to give us the narrative of the Maysville Road Paul F Starrs Regents Foundation Professor of Geography University of Nevada and recipient J B Jackson Prize Association of American Geographers

Lasting Value Rick Pruetz, 2017-11-20 Americans are committing country cide says Rick Pruetz FAICP converting farms into suburban yards and channeling streams that once provided flood control water purification habitats and recreational opportunities But rather than rail against overdevelopment this book celebrates communities succeeding in preservation For ten years Pruetz explored communities that excel in saving their natural environment In twenty four illustrated vignettes he captures the character of places from the volcanic range near downtown Albuquerque New Mexico to Minneapolis s Grand Rounds park system to farmland improbably preserved on Long Island As the longtime city planner of Burbank California Pruetz offers more than an appreciation of these communities He brings a planner s eye view of the practices behind their achievements His detailed reports of creative preservation solutions mark the trail for planners commissioners and citizens who seek to preserve the green legacy in their own backyards

Village Homes Mark Francis, 2003-09 The Village Homes neighborhood in Davis California is one of the few long standing examples of sustainable community design Mark Francis has been studying Village Homes for more than two decades and brings together existing research and writing on the community

studies about the children of Village Homes he conducted throughout the 1980s and interviews with many parties involved with the project including designers residents gardeners and maintenance people Mark Francis takes a critical look at Village Homes addressing its failures as well as its successes and examines the question of why despite its success this development has not been replicated Tourism as a Challenge Maria F. Schmitz, P. Diaz (Anthropologist), 2013 The first tourist destinations were primarily consolidated in the early twentieth century Since then tourism has undergone significant changes in its economic and social components Over time many of these destinations have now come to represent mass tourism and are the subject of many studies on the impacts of tourism and competitiveness policies The conclusions of these studies point to the need for new perspectives and strategies ranging from adaptation to new contexts to a radical change in targets Concepts such as sustainability nature biodiversity or climate change have now been added to the tourism industry with varying degrees of knowledge and skill These offer a great opportunity to improve a model of tourism previously oriented towards business and the institutional rhetoric of sustainability a fact now recognised by tourists as representing the negative effects of conventional tourism Management of these innovations should include among its aims environmental education and orient visitors towards awareness and respect for sustainability even outside their leisure time To this end the tourist needs to be made aware of all those involved and their commitment to managing the destination as enjoying the territory should be based upon minimising the socio ecological impacts of tourism and on motivating nature conservation and participation of local populations in both these goals as well as in the economic benefits obtained The challenge entails the destination finding a good balance between economic and cultural benefits landscape conservation and tourist satisfaction This fifth volume of the Tourism Today Series presents a collection of papers addressing the how to manage these types of uses at a variety of destinations and in multiple contextual realities These edited papers were selected from those presented at different international conferences organised by the Wessex Institute of Technology They address important issues related to tourism as a tool for development which will give a better understanding of some of the current challenges

Designer/builder ,2005 Biodiversity Planning and Design Jack Ahern, Elizabeth Leduc, Mary Lee York, Landscape Architecture Foundation, 2007-01-01 How do you measure biodiversity and why should landscape architects and planners care What are the essential issues the clearest terminology and the most effective methods for biodiversity planning and design How can they play a role in biodiversity conservation in a manner compatible with other goals These are critical questions that Jack Ahern Elizabeth Leduc and Mary Lee York answer in this timely and useful book Real world case studies showcase biodiversity protection and restoration projects both large and small across the U S the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle Washington the Crosswinds Marsh Wetlands Mitigation Project in Wayne County Michigan the Florida Statewide Greenway System and the Fort Devens Stormwater Project in Ayer Massachusetts Ahern shows how an interdisciplinary approach led by planners and designers with conservation biologists restoration ecologists and natural and social scientists
