Park County Wyoming Facts And Maps Through Time:

Park County, Wyoming Bruce H. Blevins, 1999-01-01      Park County Lynn Johnson Houze and Jeremy M. Johnston, 2022

The Wyoming State Legislature approved the formation of Park County named in honor of Yellowstone National Park on February 15 1909 Early fur traders such as John Colter and George Drouillard traversed the area in the early 1800s opening trade with the indigenous Crow and Shoshone In the middle of the 19th century buffalo hunters miners ranchers and homesteaders arrived and displaced the indigenous people in the area establishing trading posts and the cowboy town of Meeteetse The region's natural wonders inspired conservationists to lobby Congress to create Yellowstone National Park in 1872 and Shoshone National Forest in 1891 In the 1890s Buffalo Bill Cody spearheaded an effort to irrigate arid lands and established productive farms and new towns such as Powell and Cody The scenery and outdoor recreation opportunities lured many tourists to the area including Ernest Hemingway and Amelia Earhart From the mountain peaks to the river valleys Park County offers insight into the extraordinary history of the American West      Powell Jeremy M. Johnston, 2009-07-13 By 1909 the completion of the Garland Canal brought water to the arid lands in the central Bighorn Basin transforming the high plains desert into irrigated farmland Homesteaders and businessmen poured into the region and established the town of Powell named after famed government explorer John Wesley Powell Residents of Powell worked through the years to overcome a variety of obstacles and establish a vibrant and lasting community that would continue to bloom in the arid landscape      Encyclopedia of Immigration and Migration in the American West Gordon Morris Bakken, Alexandra Kindell, 2006-02-24 Through sweeping entries focused biographies community histories economic enterprise analysis and demographic studies this Encyclopedia presents the tapestry of the West and its population during various periods of migration Examines the settling of the West and includes coverage of movements of American Indians African Americans and the often forgotten role of women in the West's development      Beckoning Frontiers George W.
