Park Maker:

Park Maker Elizabeth Stevenson, 2018-04-17 On April 28 1858 municipal officials announced the winner of the design contest for a great new park for the people of New York City Plan no 33 Greensward by Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux Though the appropriated ground for what was to become Central Park was nothing more than a barren expanse occupied by squatters in a matter of a few years Olmsted turned the wasteland into a landscape of coherence elegance and beauty It not only surpassed the design ingenuity of its existing European counterparts but gained the designer national acclaim in a profession that still lacked a name Olmsted was an American visionary He foresaw the day when New York and many other growing cities of the mid nineteenth century would be plagued by what we presently term urban sprawl And he was convinced of the critical importance of adapting land for the recreational and contemplative needs of city dwellers before the last remnants of natural terrain were engulfed by monotonous straight streets and piles of erect angular buildings As a result of his early efforts to revolutionize the design of public parks many cities today are able to preserve the recreational space and greenery within their urban limits In addition his thoughts and words on wilderness areas still echo across a century of preservation in the wild This lively and insightful account of his prodigious life features many of his outstanding landscape projects including the Biltmore Estate Prospect Park Brooklyn the capitol grounds in Washington DC the Boston Park System the Chicago parks and the Chicago World Fair as well as measures to preserve the natural settings at Niagara Falls Yosemite and the Adirondacks It traces his early years and describes events that were to form his artistic intellectual and deeply humanistic sensibilities And it restores this lost American hero to his prominent place in history In addition to being the acknowledged father of American landscape architecture Frederick Law Olmsted helped shape the political and philosophical climate of America in his own time and today Elizabeth Stevenson is the author of the Bancroft Award winning Henry Adams A Biography The Glass Lark a biography of Lafcadio Hearn and Babbitts and Bohemians From the Great War to the Great Depression all available from Transaction Sacramento's Boulevard Park Don Cox, Paula Boghosian, 2006 Perhaps more than any other Central Valley community Sacramento is changing so rapidly as to become almost unrecognizable New housing projects and ongoing redevelopment efforts have led to a decline in the original elegant homes in this city Thankfully this is not the case in Boulevard Park Preservationists and architectural historians have prevailed in this neighborhood to keep the Colonial Revival and Craftsman homes intact for the most part even as the city around them grows as never before Boulevard Park sits on the site of the old Union Park racetrack where Edward Muybridges early experiments in motion picture technology photographing Occidental Leland Stanfords horse were pioneered in the 1870s the street signs here have a horse and carriage motif to honor those equine origins Perhaps more than any other Central Valley community Sacramento is changing so rapidly as to become almost unrecognizable New housing projects and ongoing redevelopment efforts have led to a decline in the original elegant homes in this city Thankfully this is

An active participant in the cultural and intellectual life of New York, Vaux was an idealist who regarded himself as an artist and a professional. The first in-depth account of Vaux's career, Country Park and City, should be of great interest to historians of art, architecture, and urbanism, as well as preservationists and other readers interested in New York City's past and America's first parks.
