French Women's Writing Elizabeth Fallaize, 1993 Includes chapters on Marie Cardinal Chantal Chawaf Annie Ernaux Claire Etcherelli Jeanne Hyvrard Annie Leclerc Marie Redonnet and women's writing in the 1970s and 1980s From Menstruation to the Menopause Maria Kathryn Tomlinson, 2021-05-15 This book examines the representation of the female fertility cycle in contemporary Algerian Mauritian and French women's writing It focuses on menstruation childbirth and the menopause whilst also incorporating experiences such as miscarriage and abortion This study frames its analysis of contemporary women's writing by looking back to the pioneering work of the second wave feminists Second wave feminist texts were the first to break the silence on key aspects of female experience which had thus far been largely overlooked or considered taboo Second wave feminist works have been criticised for applying their universal theories to all women regardless of their ethnicity socio economic status or sexuality This book argues that contemporary women's writing has continued the challenge against normative perceptions of the body that was originally launched by the second wave feminists whilst also taking a more nuanced contextual and intersectional approach to corporeal experience The cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach of this book is informed not only by critics of the second wave feminist movement but also by sociological studies which consider how women's bodily experiences are shaped by socio cultural context In Other Words Marie Cardinal, 1995 the reader can expect an exciting and in depth insight into the authors life learning as they go Waterfront This English translation of Autrement dit presents conversations between writers Marie Cardinal and Annie LeClerc interspersed with Cardinal's richly descriptive musings on her psychoanalysis Their conversation is a vivid example of gender marked writing it takes up the issues of A c critique fA c minine rifts within French feminism rape and marriage

Gender, Politeness and Pragmatic Particles in French Kate Beeching, 2002 This study aims to investigate politeness in women's and men's speech with a particular focus on the use of c'est a dire enfin hein and quoi in contemporary spoken French Politeness is defined as going beyond the notion of the face threatening act englobing both everyday ideas of politeness and the creation of sociability in face to face interaction The pragmatic particles studied are demonstrated to serve both psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic purposes they lubricate reformulation and contribute to both sociability and social indexation The study which combines qualitative and quantitative analysis is based on a corpus of spontaneous spoken French comprising 155 000 words 95 interviews and subjects ranging in age from 7 to 88 years The sample contains speakers from a broader range of educational backgrounds than is often the case a butcher a video salesman and a toiletteur canin rub shoulders with counter assistants teachers and doctors Paroles de Femme, Femmes de Parole, 2022-12

Femmes Margaret Collins Weitz, 1985 Countercurrents Amanda Ricci, 2023-06-15 In the decades following the Second World War women from all walks of life became increasingly frustrated by the world around them Drawing on long standing political traditions these women bound together to revolutionize social norms and contest gender inequality In

Montreal women activists inspired by Red Power Black Power and Quebec liberation among other social movements mounted a multifront campaign against social injustice Countercurrents looks beyond the defining waves metaphor to write a new history of feminism that incorporates parallel social movements into the overarching narrative of the women's movement Case studies compare and reflect on the histories of the Quebec Native Women's Association the Congress of Black Women the Front de libération des femmes du Québec various Haitian women's organizations and the Collectif des femmes immigrantes du Québec and the political work they did Bringing to light previously overlooked archival and oral sources Amanda Ricci introduces a new cast of characters to the history of feminism in Quebec The book presents a unique portrait of the resurgence of feminist activism demonstrating its deep roots in Indigenous and Black communities its transnational scope and its wide ranging inspirations and preoccupations Advancing cross cultural perspectives on women's movements Countercurrents looks to the history of women's activism in Montreal and finds new ways of defining feminist priorities and imagining feminist futures

Convergences and Interferences , 2016-09-12 How does one imagine plurality How does one find new strategies for writing diversity and polyphony How does one read the most challenging creative and critical works of the present time This bi lingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing careful analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi lingual and multi cultural dialogue In this collection of theoretically and politically aware close readings of contemporary cultural production the focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences The collection foregrounds the work of innovative writers who seek to express the ungraspable presence of cultural newness at the same time as situating themselves in the richness of detail of local lives This volume most particularly finds a balance of critical approach between the everyday attempts at negotiation and survival and the insight brought to the reader by postcolonial syncretic and feminist theoretical analysis Woman to Woman Marguerite Duras,1987-01-01 Conversations between two French writers cover woman s social position in Western culture erotic desire language and feminism Year Books of Edward II Year books (Edward II : 1307-1327),1903 The Publications of the Selden Society Selden Society,1903 Year Books of Edward II Great Britain,1903 Thinking Through the Body Jane Gallop,1988 From one of our most outspoken feminist critics this collection explores various ways in which the body can be rethought of as a site of knowledge rather than as a medium to move beyond or dominate Moving between a theoretical and confessional stance Gallop explores Sade s relation to mothers both in his novels and his life Barthe s The Pleasure of the Text Freud s work read not as a psychological text but as a literary endeavor and from a woman s point of view and Luce Irigaray s famous This Sex Which Is Not One
