Parole E Corpi Antropologia Discorso Giuridico E Politiche Sebuali Interrazziali Nella Colonia Eritrea 18901941 Anthropos:

Regulating Interracialized Intimacies Elena Zambelli, Betty de Hart, 2025-03-24 This book explores the role of the law in the social construction of race and mixture within and beyond the borders of Europe It focuses on interracialized intimacies that is the intimate relations of subjects ascribed and or perceived to belong to different races The role of the state in defining boundaries between us and them becomes particularly clear in their regulation Moving across different times places and political formations including the US slavery regime European colonial empires and metropolises the book delves deep into how the governments of white supremacist and white majority societies have consistently attempted to prevent discourage or obstruct intimate relationships crossing the colour line This occurred directly through prohibitions and anti miscegenation laws or indirectly through citizenship laws marriage licenses social care prostitution laws housing policies policing practices and other means The book further shows that the legacy of these highly gendered and racialized regulations continues to reverberate today informing norms hierarchies and perceptions about whose intimacies count as legitimate and ought to be facilitated and whose are deemed suspect and requiring state surveillance The contributions also shed light on the individuals couples and families who were targeted by state regulations and how they challenged and disturbed state categorizations and regulations Highly interdisciplinary in scope with contributions by pioneering United States and European scholars in this field this book will be a fundamental read for scholars researchers and students interested in tracing the genealogy of racial thinking in Europe and beyond and its enduring operativity Catalogo dei libri in commercio ,2003 Cahiers d'études africaines ,2003 L'homme ,1999 Cyprus between Late Antiquity and the Early Middle Ages (ca. 600-800) Luca Zavagno, 2017-05-18 Research on early medieval Cyprus has focused on the late antique golden age late fourth early fifth to seventh century and the so called Byzantine Reconquista post AD 965 while overlooking the intervening period This phase was characterized supposedly by the division of the political sovereignty between the Umayyads and the Byzantines bringing about the social and demographic dislocation of the population of the island This book proposes a different story of continuities and slow transformations in the fate of Cyprus between the late sixth and the early ninth centuries Analysis of new archaeological evidence shows signs of a continuing link to Constantinople Moreover together with a reassessment of the literary evidence archaeology and material culture help us to reappraise the impact of Arab naval raids and contextualize the confrontational episodes throughout the ebb and flow of Eastern Mediterranean history the political influence of the Caliphate looked stronger in the second half of the seventh century the administrative and ecclesiastical influence of the Byzantine empire was held sway from the beginning of the eighth to the twelfth century Whereas the island retained sound commercial ties with the Umayyad Levant in the seventh and eighth centuries at the same time politically and economically it remained part of the Byzantine sphere This belies the idea of

Cyprus as an independent province only loosely tied to Constantinople and allows us to draw a different picture of the cultural identities political practices and hierarchy of wealth and power in Cyprus during the passage from Late Antiquity to the early Middle Ages
