Selected by Gregory Pardlo as winner of the National Poetry Series, El Paso is one of the safest cities in the United States while across the river Ciudad Juárez suffers a history of femicides and a horrific drug war. Witnessing this, a Filipina's life unravels as she tries to love an addict, the murders growing just a city but the breadth of a country away. This collection weaves the personal with recent history, the domestic with the tragic, asking how much a body will hold, reaching from the border to the poet's own Philippines. These poems thirst in the desert, want for water, searching the brutal and tender territories between bodies, families, and nations. Gabriel Okara Gabriel Okara, 2016-04 Gabriel Okara, a prize-winning author whose literary career spans six decades, is rightly hailed as the elder statesman of Nigerian literature.
