Partial Knowledge Paul W. Gooch, 1987 Mission and Moral Reflection in Paul Michael D. Barram, 2006 The Apostle Paul sought to exert his influence and authority over the congregations he founded long after they had been established Such ongoing oversight by Christianity's prototypical evangelist has not been adequately understood In a brief 1987 article W Paul Bowers challenged John Knox's assertion that Paul's pastoral and administrative work irked him and that he wanted to be free of it This book confirms and significantly develops Bowers's little known thesis examining a wide range of passages in the apostle's undisputed letters and highlighting crucial implications of Paul's broadly conceived vocation for understanding his mission and moral reflection The Pauline Epistles John Muddiman, John Barton, 2010-04-22 The Oxford Bible Commentary is a Bible study and reference work for 21st century students and readers that can be read with any modern translation of the Bible It offers verse by verse explanation of every book of the Bible by the world's leading biblical scholars From its inception OBC has been designed as a completely non denominational commentary carefully written and edited to provide the best scholarship in a readable style for readers from all different faith backgrounds It uses the traditional historical critical method to search for the original meaning of the texts but also brings in new perspectives and insights literary sociological and cultural to bring out the expanding meanings of these ancient writings and stimulate new discussion and further enquiry Newly issued in a series of part volumes the OBC is now available in an affordable and portable format for the commentaries to the Pauline Epistles Includes a general introduction to using the Commentary in addition to an introduction to study of the New Testament and to the Pauline Corpus in particular

Buried Hope or Risen Savior? Charles L. Quarles, 2008-01-01 Buried Hope or Risen Savior argues for the credibility of Jesus Christ's resurrection engaging the issue in relation to the recent Jesus Family Tomb claims that continue making headlines around the world Among the contributors Steve Ortiz professor of Biblical Archaeology at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary discusses the general background of this type of tomb and the archaeology of the Talpiot tomb site Craig Evans New Testament professor at Acadia Divinity College writes about ossuaries and tomb inscriptions Richard

Bauckham New Testament professor at Scotland's University of St Andrews gives the history of Jewish names extrabiblical writings and Mary Magdalene William Dembski SWBTS research professor in Philosophy discusses the statistical evidence for the names found on the Talpiot tomb to have been Jesus Mike Licona North American Mission Board director of Apologetics and Interfaith Evangelism responds to claims that finding the bones of Jesus would not disprove Christ's resurrection Gary Habermas Apologetics Philosophy chair at Liberty University summarizes the evidence for the bodily resurrection of Jesus And Darrell Bock New Testament professor at Dallas Theological Seminary addresses the importance of the resurrection and how Christians should respond to challenges upon their faith

The Future of Hope Miroslav Volf, William Henry Katerberg, 2004 Over the last three decades a major cultural shift has taken place in the attitudes of Western societies toward the future Modernity's eclipse by postmodernity is characterized in large part by the loss of hope for a future substantially better than the present Old optimism about human progress has given way to uncertainty and fear In this book scholars from various disciplines theology the social sciences and the humanities explore the move from a culture of optimism to a culture of ambiguity and they seek to infuse today's jaded language of hope with a new vitality The Future of Hope offers a powerful critique of today's stifling cultural climate and shows why the vision of hope central to Christian faith must be a basic component of any flourishing society The first section of the book sets the context with telling cultural criticism of modernity The second section focuses on affinities between premodern Christian visions of hope and twentieth century thought The final section of the book examines the relationship between postmodern thought Christian tradition and biblical hope addressing how Christians in a postmodern world can best articulate their faith Written by truly profound thinkers these chapters are diverse in their content methodologies and temperament yet they are united by a deep engagement with both the Christian tradition and the larger cultural and intellectual climate in which we live and work The Future of Hope can thus be read not just as an attempt at retrieval of hope for today but as itself one small act of hope in an age when people too seldom take time to think critically and hopefully Contributors David Billings Robert Paul Doede Kevin L Hughes Paul Edward Hughes Daniel Johnson William Katerberg John Milbank Jurgen Moltmann James K A Smith Miroslav Volf Nicholas Wolterstorff

1 Corinthians: A Social Identity Commentary J. Brian Tucker, 2024-10-17 Paul's first letter to the Corinthians deals with key aspects of the formation of the Christian community at Corinth Paul uses his correspondence with the Corinthians to address issues of morality of community structure of ritual and of religious behaviour The letter is a key document for understanding the development of Christianity and for understanding Christianity in its earliest context In this Social Identity Commentary J Brian Tucker provides a comprehensive coverage of the issues and concerns related to 1 Corinthians from the perspective of social identity Tucker outlines his interpretation of the theoretical issues concerned and then applies this to provide a clear overview of historical and critical issues related to the study of 1 Corinthians This provides a clear engagement with the text that will serve as a useful resource for scholars students clergy and people interested in the formation and purpose of the letter The First Epistle to the Corinthians Anthony C. Thiselton, 2000-11-22 This superb volume in the New International Greek Testament Commentary series provides the most detailed definitive and distinctive commentary on 1 Corinthians available in English to date One of the world's most respected Christian theologians Anthony Thiselton here provides in depth discussion of the language of 1 Corinthians presents his own careful translation of the Greek traces the main issues of interpretation from the church fathers to the present and highlights topics of theological ethical and sociohistorical interest today including ethics and rights marriage divorce and remarriage headship gender prophecy and many others No other commentary on 1 Corinthians embodies the wealth and depth of detail presented in Thiselton's work which takes account of nearly all scholarly research on 1 Corinthians and incorporates substantial bibliographies throughout In his commentary Thiselton indeed addresses virtually every question that thoughtful serious readers scholars students pastors teachers may wish to ask of or about the text of 1 Corinthians His work truly offers a fresh comprehensive and original contribution to our understanding of this major epistle and its contemporary relevance Looking for Life John G. Lewis, 2005-04-30 Through exegetical studies of 1 Corinthians and Galatians John Lewis shows how Paul synthesises theology and ethics which interpreters frequently separate as integrated aspects of Christian thinking and living This fusion becomes evident in Paul's complex process of theological moral reasoning that lies beneath the surface of his letters for which we have coined the phrase theo ethical reasoning The book also examines how Paul encourages his churches to apply this theo ethical reasoning in the community practice of spiritual discernment a dialogical comparative process of reasoned reflection on behaviour and experience Through this practice of looking for life community members are led by the Spirit as they reason together attempting to associate the manifestations of new life with conduct that faithfully portrays Christ's self giving pattern This correlation of conduct with experience grounds Paul's own proclamation of Jesus Christ in word and deed It also becomes the foundation for believers faith and hope as they come to know Christ and experience the power of God Thus the book concludes that the practice of spiritual discernment by means of theo ethical reasoning lies at the centre of Paul's religion A Jew to the Jews David Rudolph, 2016-10-21 David J Rudolph raises new questions about Paul's view of the Torah and Jewish identity in this post supersessionist interpretation of 1 Corinthians 9 19 23 Paul's principle of accommodation is considered in light of the diversity of Second Temple Judaism and Jesus example and rule of accommodation A Jew to the Jews David J. Rudolph, 2011 David Rudolph's primary aim is to demonstrate that scholars overstate their case when they maintain that 1 Cor 9 19 23 is incompatible with a Torah observant Paul A secondary aim is to show how one might understand 1 Cor 9 19 23 as the discourse of a Jew who remained within the bounds of pluriform Second Temple Judaism Part I addresses the intertextual contextual and textual case for the traditional reading of 1 Cor 9 19 23 Weaknesses are pointed out and alternative approaches are considered The exegetical case in Part II centres on interpreting 1 Cor 9 19 23 in light of Paul's recapitulation in 1 Cor 10 32 11 1 which concludes with the statement Be imitators of me as I am of Christ Given the food related and hospitality context of 1 Cor 8 10 and Paul s reference to dominical sayings that point back to Jesus example and rule of adaptation it is argued that 1 Cor 9 19 23 reflects Paul s imitation of Jesus accommodation oriented table fellowship with all As Jesus became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews Pharisees and sinners Paul became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews strict Jews those under the law and Gentile sinners This Cambridge University dissertation won the 2007 Franz Delitzsch Prize from the Freie Theologische Akademie

Understanding Watchman Nee Dongsheng John Wu, 2012-04-01 This book situates Nee s view within the rich heritage of the Protestant Catholic and Eastern Orthodox spiritual traditions and thus renders Nee s thought more intelligible to Christians of both evangelical and more liberal persuasions In this book Dongsheng John Wu examines Watchman Nee s thought on the spiritual life focusing on the relationship between spiritual formation and spiritual knowledge Different ways of acquiring spiritual understanding are explored including the respective roles of divine illumination intellectual studies and life circumstances Understanding Watchman Nee begins by synthesizing strategic aspects of Nee s teachings as well as formative events and sources in the development of Nee s own spirituality and theology It then utilizes the critical work of contemporary theologian Mark McIntosh to bring Nee s voice into dialogue with some important figures in the history of Christian spirituality Such interactions reveal that Nee s crucial theological convictions exhibit strong parallels with related themes found in the church s spiritual or mystical treasures

The First Letter to the Corinthians Roy E Ciampa, Brian S Rosner, 2020-05-21 This careful sometimes innovative mid level commentary touches on an astonishingly wide swath of important sensitive issues theological and pastoral that have urgent resonances in twenty first century life This thorough commentary presents a coherent reading of 1 Corinthians taking full account of its Old Testament and Jewish roots and demonstrating Paula s primary concern for the unity and purity of the church and the glory of God Those who preach and teach 1 Corinthians will be grateful to Ciampa and Rosner for years to come and scholars will be challenged to see this letter with fresh eyes

God and the Teaching of Theology Steven Edward Harris, 2019-05-31 Theologians today are facing a crisis of identity Are they members of the academy or the church Is it still possible to be members of both In God and the Teaching of Theology Steven Harris argues a way through the impasse by encompassing both church and academy within the umbrella of the divine economy To accomplish this Harris uses St Paul s description of this economy in the opening chapters of his first letter to the Corinthians Through Paul s discussion of wisdom the Spirit and the apostles role in sharing that divine wisdom theologians of the patristic medieval and Reformation eras found a description of their own work as educators they discovered that they too had roles within the same divine economy This book thus offers a rich description of the teaching of theology as part of God s own divine pedagogy stretching from God the teacher himself through the nature of students and teachers of theology to the goal of this pedagogy human salvation in the knowledge of God In addressing the current identity crisis of theology faculties Harris looks backward in order to chart a way forward His book will appeal to academic theologians and to theological and church educators pastors and Christians interested in the relationship between academic study and their faith

Discerning the Spirits André Munzinger, 2007-08-02 How did Paul determine ethical and theological truth Were all believers expected to be able to discern the spirits 1 Corinthians 12 10 This 2007 study shows that discernment must be understood against the backdrop of an extensive hermeneutic by which Paul inherently relates ethical and theological knowledge Understanding the will of God requires noetic and existential transformation in short the renewal of the mind Romans 12 2 Munzinger argues that Paul implies a process of inspiration in which the Spirit sharpens the discerning functions of the mind because the believer is liberated from a value system dominated by status and performance The love of God enables all believers to learn to interpret reality in a transformed manner and to develop creative solutions to questions facing their communities For Paul authentic discernment is linked to a comprehensive sense of meaning

Sister Or Wife? J. Dorcas Gordon, 1997-11-01 This work investigates the social dynamics within the Corinthian community and the function of Paul's argumentation in the light of those dynamics The models of Victor Turner and Mary Douglas cultural anthropologists guide the inquiry Gordon concludes that the conflict in 1 Corinthians 7 arose as the result of two antithetical views of the root metaphor In Christ all are children of God no male and female One group supported a kinship system based on patrilineal marriage and hierarchical community structures A second group demanded that an egalitarian sibling relationship should order the community Paul attempts to persuade both factions that their commitment to each other and to him is primary His arguments encourage each group to reconsider the absoluteness of its stance and to learn to live with ambiguity

Paul's Way of Knowing Ian W. Scott, 2008-12 Dirty Words in Deadwood showcases literary analyses of the Deadwood television series by leading western American literary critics Whereas previous reaction to the series has largely addressed the question of historical accuracy rather than intertextuality or literary complexity Melody Graulich and Nicolas S Witschi's edited volume brings a much needed perspective to Deadwood's representation of the frontier West As Graulich observes in her introduction With its emotional coherence compelling characterizations compressed structural brilliance moral ambiguity language experiments interpretation of the past relevance to the present and engagement with its literary forebears Deadwood is an aesthetic triumph as historical fiction and like much great literature makes a case for the humanistic value of storytelling From previously unpublished interviews with series creator David Milch to explorations of sexuality disability cinematic technique and western narrative this collection focuses on Deadwood as a series ultimately about the imagination as a verbal and visual construct and as a literary masterpiece that richly rewards close analysis and interpretation

Reading 1 Corinthians in the Twenty-First Century Cornelia Cyss Crocker, 2004-04-23 Cornelia Cyss Wittenstein uses the insights of hermeneutics and other critical methods to offer a new reading of 1 Corinthians

Constructing the Self Valérie Nicolet-Anderson, 2012 Using some of the works of Michel Foucault 1926 1984 as a conversation partner Valerie Nicolet Anderson focuses on the manner in which Paul constructs the identity of his audience in his letter to the Romans. In particular, she analyzes how the notions of autonomy and self agency function for both authors. In this dialogue, Valerie Nicolet Anderson examines whether Paul can still play a relevant part in contemporary discussions around the notion of identity. The approach to Paul presents a narrative reading of Romans and displays an interdisciplinary hermeneutics which brings together New Testament exegesis and post modern philosophy. The author constructs a dynamic picture of Paul as engaged in the shaping of the ethos of his communities through various strategies. She highlights Paul's actuality reflecting the current use of Paul by continental philosophers and invites more interdisciplinary reflection between exegesis and philosophy.
