Participation And Governance In Regional Development Global Trends In An Australian Context:

Participation and Governance in Regional Development Robyn Eversole, John Martin, 2005 Providing a clearly written cross disciplinary overview of changing understandings of regional development in Australia this volume focuses particularly on how the concept of participation is playing an increasingly important role in all aspects of regional development theory policy and practice It explores current trends toward increased citizen participation in development decision making and the establishment of governance structures to facilitate participation The book brings the Australian experience into the larger debate while seating Australian regional development experiences within their broader international context Regional Development in Australia Robyn Eversole, 2015-12-22 In Australia regions are not just geographic locations they are also cultural ideas Being regional means being located outside the nation s capital cities and in the periphery of its centres of power and influence Regional development in Australia is thus significantly different than its European or American counterparts However surprisingly little has been written about the unique dynamics of development in Australia s regions this book has been written to fill this gap In recent decades the Australian government has made repeated policy efforts to achieve sustainable development in its non metropolitan areas Over the same period those who live and work outside the nation s capital cities have come to identify as regional Australians This book takes an anthropological approach to understanding the particularities of regional development in Australia It draws upon rich on the ground observations of towns industries universities development organisations and communities across different settings to provide an in depth understanding of the subject This book will be of interest to researchers and practitioners concerned with regional development and policy Contested Country Cathy J. Robinson, Bruce Taylor, 2009 Leading researchers critically review Australia s environmental management over the past decade Steering the Metropolis Inter American Development Bank, United Nations Human Settlements Programme, Development Bank of Latin America, 2017-10-24 A distinctive feature of urbanization in the last 50 years is the expansion of urban populations and built development well beyond what was earlier conceived as the city limit resulting in metropolitan areas This is challenging the relevance of traditional municipal boundaries and by extension traditional governing structures and institutions Steering the Metropolis Metropolitan Governance for Sustainable Urban Development encompasses the reflections of thought and practice leaders on the underlying premises for governing metropolitan space sectoral adaptations of those premises and dynamic applications in a wide variety of contexts Those reflections are structured into three sections Section 1 discusses the conceptual underpinnings of metropolitan governance analyzing why political technical and administrative arrangements at this level of government are needed Section 2 deepens the discussion by addressing specific sectoral themes of mobility land use planning environmental management and economic production as well as crosscutting topics of metropolitan governance finance and monitoring and evaluation Section 3 tests the concepts and their sectoral adaptations against the practice with cases from Africa America Asia and Europe      Endogenous Regional Development Robert John Stimson, Roger Stough, Peter Nijkamp, 2011 Increasingly endogenous factors and processes are being emphasized as drivers in regional economic development and growth This 15 chapter book is unique in that it commences by presenting five disciplinary takes on endogenous development from the perspectives of economics geography sociology planning and organizational management Several chapters demonstrate how researchers have developed operational models to investigate the roles played by endogenous factors in regional economic development including the role of entrepreneurial rents Further chapters provide empirical investigations of endogenous factors in regional development at various levels of spatial scale from the supraregion to the nation city and small town and in a variety of situational settings including the European Union Asia and Australia The book is an invaluable up to date resource for researchers and students in regional science and regional economic development and planning      Rural Governance Lynda Cheshire, Vaughan Higgins, Geoffrey Lawrence, 2006-12-05 This book critically explores the social causes and consequences of emerging governance arrangements In particular the book moves beyond questions of empowerment in governance debates to consider how new kinds of power relations arise between the various actors involved      Theorising Social Exclusion Ann Taket, Beth R. Crisp, Annemarie Nevill, Greer Lamaro, Melissa Graham, Sarah Barter-Godfrey, 2009-09-10 Social exclusion attempts to make sense out of multiple deprivations and inequities experienced by people and areas and the reinforcing effects of reduced participation consumption mobility access integration influence and recognition This book works from a multidisciplinary approach across health welfare and education linking practice and research in order to improve our understanding of the processes that foster exclusion and how to prevent it Theorising Social Exclusion first reviews and reflects upon existing thinking literature and research into social exclusion and social connectedness outlining an integrated theory of social exclusion across dimensions of social action and along pathways of social processes A series of commissioned chapters then develop and illustrate the theory by addressing the machinery of social exclusion and connectedness the pathways towards exclusion and finally experiences of exclusion and connection This innovative book takes a truly multidisciplinary approach and focuses on the often neglected cultural and social aspects of exclusion It will be of interest to academics in fields of public health health promotion social work community development disability studies occupational therapy policy sociology politics and environment      Federalism and Regionalism in Australia A. J. Brown, Jennifer Bellamy, 2007-08-01 Sections include Setting the scene old questions or new Drivers for change new approaches to federalism and regionalism and New institutions Approaching the challenge of reform      'Now is the Psychological Moment' Stephen Wilks, 2020-10-12 Earle Christmas Grafton Page 1880 1961 surgeon Country Party leader treasurer and prime minister was perhaps the most extraordinary visionary to hold high public office in twentieth century Australia Over decades he made determined efforts to seize the psychological moment and thereby realise his vision of a decentralised regionalised and rationally ordered nation Page s unique dreaming of a very different Australia encompassed new states hydroelectricity economic planning cooperative federalism and rural universities His story casts light on the wider place in history of visions of national development He was Australia's most important advocate of developmentalism the important yet little studied stream of thought that assumes that governments can lead the nation to realise its economic potential His audacious synthesis of ideas delineated and stretched the Australian political imagination Page's rich career confirms that Australia has long inspired popular ideals of national development but also suggests that their practical implementation was increasingly challenged during the twentieth century Effervescent intelligent and somewhat eccentric Page was one of Australia's great optimists Few Australian leaders who stood for so much have since been so neglected

Tracking Rural Change Francesca Merlan, David Raftery, 2009-04-01 A key intensifying change affecting rural areas in the last few decades has been a decline in the proportion of national populations whose principal livelihood is farming The corresponding redistribution of population has typically resulted in a net population loss to rural areas and diversification of rural activity The corporatization and technological modification of food production has prompted new policy challenges and has bound rural and urban populations together in new relationships articulated in moral discourses of custodianship food safety and sustainability Contributors to this volume came together in the attempt to stimulate collective insight into trends of rural change in Australia New Zealand and Europe The first two countries have been characterised by avowedly neoliberal rural policy with considerable departures from it in practice Europe on the other hand by a mix of policy measures which attempt to integrate land management and sustainability diversification and maintenance of a competitive farming sector within an overarching policy framework more overtly though only partially oriented towards sustaining rural society Aiming to build on research relating to the character of rural transitions this volume offers substantive and critical contributions to the understanding of the sources of unpredictability instability and continuity that underpin rural transition The papers explore changes and continuities in policy the governance of rural spaces technological developments relating to rural areas and populations and social forms of subjectivation and participation in increasingly diverse rural settings

The Future of Australian Federalism Gabrielle Appleby, Nicholas Aroney, Thomas John, 2012-03-08 This volume explains and evaluates Australia's federal system and the options for reform from various comparative and disciplinary perspectives

Beyond Consensus Richard D. Margerum, 2011-08-19 An examination of how to move from consensus to implementation using collaborative approaches to natural resource management urban planning and environmental policy Collaborative approaches are increasingly common across a range of governance and policy areas Single issue single organization solutions often prove ineffective for complex contentious and diffuse problems Collaborative efforts allow cross jurisdictional governance and policy involving groups that may operate on different decision making levels In Beyond Consensus Richard Margerum examines the full range of collaborative enterprises in natural resource management urban planning and environmental policy He explains the pros and cons of collaborative approaches develops methods to test their effectiveness and identifies ways to improve their implementation and results Drawing on extensive case studies of collaborations in the United States and Australia Margerum shows that collaboration is not just about developing a strategy but also about creating and sustaining arrangements that can support collaborative implementation Margerum outlines a typology of collaborative efforts and a typology of networks to support implementation He uses these typologies to explain the factors that are likely to make collaborations successful and examines the implications for participants The rich case studies in Beyond Consensus which range from watershed management to transportation planning and include both successes and failures offer lessons in collaboration that make the book ideal for classroom use It is also designed to help practitioners evaluate and improve collaborative efforts at any phase The book's theoretical framework provides scholars with a means to assess the effectiveness of collaborations and explain their ability to achieve results

Sustainable Economic Development and the Influence of Information Technologies: Dynamics of Knowledge Society Transformation Karatas, Muhammed, Tunca, Mustafa Zihni, 2010-02-28 This book provides relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical research findings in the area of information technology as it relates to sustainable economic development and the development of knowledge societies Provided by publisher

Regional Advantage and Innovation Susan Kinnear, Kate Charters, Peter Vitartas, 2012-12-04 Regional areas are key building blocks of society in many countries This compilation uses Australian case study examples to demonstrate how regional areas are uniquely well placed to contribute to national goals in innovation infrastructure provision water and food security environmental sustainability industry diversification healthy and liveable communities and natural disaster preparedness and response Each of these themes is examined in the context of using innovative approaches from regions to deliver outcomes that are nationally significant Authorship is drawn from a balance of leading practitioners and academics to provide stories that are both engaging and rigorous The case studies are contextualised by an analysis of regional advantage literature discussion on the regional policy implications and lessons and commentary around the key trends and drivers for innovation and regional advantage in Australia The book provides a convincing argument that focusing on regional innovation and development offers significant benefits to a nation as a whole

Agriculture and Resilience in Australia's North Keith Noble, Tania Dennis, Sarah Larkins, 2019-08-05 This book examines the mechanisms and strategies farmers in North Australia adopt to manage the setbacks and challenges they face This social research is based on farmers' experiences but also draws on the author's own experience after his tropical fruit farm was destroyed by two Category 5 cyclones in five years Through historical analysis the book compares historic and contemporary aspirations for northern development and discusses the influence of the built environment on individuals as well as access to health and other social services Exploring the implications of individual resilience strategies for policy development within the broader context of northern development and evolving environmental governance the book also highlights the fact that this is occurring in a new geological epoch the

Anthropocene The book will provide a unique perspective and understanding to government individuals and industries interested in northern Australia and its relationship to the world      Governance and Planning of Mega-City Regions Jiang Xu,Anthony Yeh,2010-09-13 Provides a comparative treatment and examination of how new approaches in governance and planning are reshaping mega city regions around the world The contributors highlight how European mega city regions are evolving and strategic intervention redefined to enable the integration of urban qualities in a multi level governance environment how traditional federal countries in North America and Australia see the promise of major policies and development initiatives finally moving ahead to herald a more strategic intervention at national and regional scales and how transitional economies in China witness the rise of state strategies to control the articulation of scales and to reassert the functional importance of state in a growing diffused power context      Social Economics and Entrepreneurship

Patricia-Luciana Runcan,2014-03-26 In the context of recent changes in the economic and social spheres one of the most important topics of interest for researchers is the analysis of the way in which social economics and entrepreneurship may be used as successful approaches in social work This type of approach has seen a remarkable increase in popularity and has implications for social economic and political organisations as well as for the design of governing policies and strategies at local regional national and even international levels Social Economics and Entrepreneurship deals with core topics such as social economics management human resources and the impact of economics on social development The book will appeal mainly to researchers involved in these fields though the 21 essays compiled here are also a useful starting point for a wider audience wishing to familiarise themselves with these subjects      Local Government in a Global World Emmanuel Brunet-Jailly,John F. Martin,2010-01-01 Contributors provide insights into key themes impacting local governance in two federations with much in common historically culturally and politically Australia and Canada These essays examine changes in the Australian and Canadian systems through four thematic lenses citizen participation in government systems the restructuring and reform of local governments the use of performance measures and management systems in the administration of local governments and the relations of local governments within higher levels of governments

Promoting Conflict or Peace through Identity Nikki R. Slocum-Bradley,2016-04-15 Developing a solid basis for future research and training this illuminating volume facilitates peace and mutual understanding between people by addressing a root cause of social conflicts identity constructions The volume encompasses eight revealing empirical case studies from regions throughout the world conducted by experts from diverse disciplinary backgrounds Each case study examines how identities are being constructed and used in the region how these identities are related to borders and in what ways identity constructions foment peace or conflict The volume summarizes insights gleaned from these studies and formulates an analytical framework for understanding the role of identity constructions in conflict or peace      Citizen Participation at the Local Level in China and Canada Andrew Sancton,Chen Zhenming,2014-11-13 What if anything is similar about citizen participation at the local level in Canada and China The answer of course is politically sensitive There are many in Canada who would claim that the question is absurd How can there be meaningful citizen participation in a country where there are significant restrictions on political activity includ
