Particular Place Urban Restructuring:

A Particular Place Nancy L. Eiesland, 2000 Focusing on how the religious congregations all Protestant of a particular town adapted to a rapid influx of newcomers this book makes a significant contribution to sociological literature in an interesting narrative style Eiesland's work is the perfect complement to that of other major contributors in the field such as Robert Wuthnow Wade Clark Roof William McKinney David A Rootzen Jackson Carroll and Nancy T Ammerman

Place-making and Urban Development Pier Carlo Palermo, Davide Ponzini, 2014-12-05 The regeneration of critical urban areas through the redesign of public space with the intense involvement of local communities seems to be the central focus of place making according to some widespread practices in academic and professional circles Recently new expertise maintains that place making could be an innovative and potentially autonomous field competing with more traditional disciplines like urban planning urban design architecture and others This book affirms that the question of making better places for people should be understood in a broader sense as a symptom of the non contingent limitations of the urban and spatial disciplines It maintains that research should not be oriented only towards new technical or merely formal solutions but rather towards the profound rethinking of disciplinary paradigms In the fields of urban planning urban design and policy making the challenge of place making provides scholars and practitioners a great opportunity for a much needed critical review Only the substantial reappraisal of long standing technical cultural institutional and social premises and perspectives can truly improve place making practices The pressing need for place making implies trespassing undue disciplinary boundaries and experimenting a place based approach that can innovate and integrate planning regulations strategic spatial visioning and urban development projects Moreover the place making challenge compels urban experts and policy makers to critically reflect upon the physical and social contexts of their interventions In this sense facing place making today is a way to renew the civic and social role of urban planning and urban design on HUD-Independent Agencies,1980 Financial Engineering in Sustainable Funding of Urban Development in the EU Piotr Idczak, Ida Musiałkowska, 2022-08-22 This theoretically rooted and research based book provides insights on the JESSICA funding model which unlike the traditional non repayable aid focuses on supporting sustainable urban development projects in a repayable and recyclable way Looking through the lens of the JESSICA financial engineering mechanism used in urban transformation it examines the functioning and performance thereof and formulates policy recommendations for the future The aim of this volume is to contribute to a deeper understanding of the JESSICA sustainable funding model by exploring its repayable assistance mechanism to support sustainable urban development projects The authors make several noteworthy contributions to the literature on EU cohesion policy and shed light on the use of the repayable instruments within public interventions while providing for the first time a critical analysis of the JESSICA sustainable funding model from the holistic perspective which is especially relevant for supporting sustainable urban development Financial Engineering in Sustainable Funding of Urban Development in the EU provides policy significant findings that are important for EU cohesion policy in the field of repayable assistance to be reinvested in the long term in urban and regional transformation Transience and Permanence in Urban Development John Henneberry, 2017-05-30 Temporary urban uses innovative ways to transform cities or new means to old ends The scale and variety of temporary or meanwhile or interim urban uses and spaces has grown rapidly in response to the dramatic increase in vacant and derelict land and buildings particularly in post industrial cities To some this indicates that a paradigm shift in city making is underway To others alternative urbanism is little more than a distraction that temporarily cloaks some of the negative outcomes of conventional urban development However rigorous theoretically informed criticism of temporary uses has been limited The book draws on international experience to address this shortcoming from the perspectives of the law sociology human geography urban studies planning and real estate It considers how time and the way that it is experienced informs alternative perspectives on transience It emphasises the importance for analysis of the structural position of a temporary use in an urban system in spatial temporal and socio cultural terms It illustrates how this position is contingent upon circumstances What may be deemed a helpful and acceptable use to established institutions in one context may be seen as a problematic unacceptable use in another What may be a challenging and fulfilling alternative use to its proponents may lose its allure if it becomes successful in conventional terms Conceptualisations of temporary uses are therefore mutable and the use of fixed or insufficiently differentiated frames of reference within which to study them should be avoided It then identifies the major challenges of transforming a temporary use into a long term use These include the demands of regulatory compliance financial requirements levels of expertise and so on Finally the potential impacts of policy on temporary uses both inadvertent and intended are considered The first substantive critical review of temporary urban uses Transience and Permanence in Urban Development is essential reading for academics policy makers practitioners and students of cities worldwide Housing and Urban Development

Legislation of 1970 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking and Currency. Subcommittee on Housing and Urban Affairs, 1970 Sustainable Urban Development and Globalization Agostino Petrillo, Paola Bellaviti, 2017-11-24 This book equips readers with a deeper understanding of the challenges posed by radical socioeconomic environmental and cultural changes due to globalization and describes effective sustainable solutions to these challenges The focus is especially on the rapid urbanization processes in countries of the Global South which are giving rise to dramatic new problems of spatial and social inequality and difficult environmental challenges in relation to climate change Readers will gain skills and knowledge that will help them to develop an integrated multidisciplinary approach to planning design and management of urban settlements and territories in contexts with a high level of social economic territorial and landscape vulnerability The coverage includes for example strategies to promote social inclusion improve housing quality ensure adequate education protect cultural heritage enhance risk management and address issues in the food energy water nexus Among the authors are leading experts from the Polytechnic University of Milan where a multidisciplinary set of studies and research projects in the field have been undertaken in recent years Ecologies of Faith in New York City Richard Cimino, Nadia A. Mian, Weishan Huang, 2013 Ecologies of Faith in New York City examines patterns of interreligious cooperation and conflict in New York City It explores how representative congregations in this religiously diverse city interact with their surroundings by competing for members seeking out niches or cooperating via coalitions and neighborhood organizations Based on in depth research in New York's ethnically mixed and rapidly changing neighborhoods the essays in the volume describe how religious institutions shape and are shaped by their environments what new roles they have assumed and how they relate to other religious groups in the community Department of Housing and Urban Development--Independent Agencies Appropriations for 1978 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on HUD-Independent Agencies, 1977 The Sustainable Urban Development Reader Stephen M. Wheeler, Timothy Beatley, 2004 Bringing together classic readings from a wide variety of sources this key book investigates how our cities and towns can become more sustainable Thirty eight selections span issues such as land use planning urban design transportation ecological restoration economic development resource use and equity planning Section introductions outline the major themes whilst the editors' introductions to the individual writings explain their interest and significance to wider debates Additional sections present twenty four case studies of real world sustainable urban planning examples sustainability planning exercises and further reading Providing background in theory practical application and vision in a clear accessible format The Sustainable Urban Development Reader is an essential resource for students professionals and indeed anyone interested in the future of urban environments Department of Housing and Urban Development, and Certain Independent Agencies Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1984: Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Emergency Management Agency, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, National Science Foundation, Neighborhood

Reinvestment Corporation United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on HUD-Independent Agencies,1983 Creative Industries and Urban Development Terry Flew,2013-10-31 The concept of creative industries has developed considerable academic and policy momentum in the 21st century There has been a connection identified between the rise of creative industries and the urbanisation of the world s population particularly in relation to the significance of cities as sites of cultural production and consumption Much of the work on creative industries and cities however has drawn upon imagined geographies about the relationship between creativity and place This collection draws together contributions that critically appraise recent urban cultural policy discourses as well as reflecting on the role of culture and creative industries in the future development of cities This book is based on a special issue of The Information Society An International Journal Department of Housing and Urban Development, and certain independent agencies appropriations for fiscal year 1987 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on HUD-Independent Agencies,1986 Private Sector-Led Urban Development Projects Erwin Heurkens,2012-09-04 Central to Private Sector led Urban Development Projects lays the concept of private sector led urban development projects Such projects involve project developers taking a leading role and local authorities adopting a facilitating role in managing the development of an urban area based on a clear public private role division Such a development strategy is quite common in Anglo Saxon urban development practices but is less known in Continental European practices Nonetheless since the beginning of the millennium such a development strategy also occurred in the Netherlands in the form of concessions However remarkably little empirical knowledge is available about how public and private actors collaborate on and manage private sector led urban development projects Moreover it remains unclear what the effects of such projects are This dissertation provides an understanding of the various characteristics of private sector led urban development projects by conducting empirical case study research in the institutional contexts of the Netherlands and the UK The book provides an answer to the following question What can we learn from private sector led urban development projects in the Netherlands and UK in terms of the collaborative and managerial roles of public and private actors and the effects of their inter actions Urban Development Guidebook Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America.
