Possony, 2017-04-21 Originally published in the UK in 1966 this was the first biography of Lenin which tied together extensive material unearthed in WWII and it illuminates the complex personality and explains the riddle of Lenin's seemingly impossible rise to power Using primary sources such as previously inaccessible documents from the German Austrian and Japanese foreign offices and the vast holdings of the Hoover Institution the book cuts through many contemporaneous myths in Communist sources The volume is a landmark in the study of the birth of Soviet Communism and its revolutionary enterprise OEuvres Complètes de H. de Balzac Honoré de Balzac, 1877 The World at War Georg Brandes, 1917 In The world at war Georg Brandes has collected some of his essays on the war and the events leading up to it written before and during the great conflict Preface My Memoirs. Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz, 2013-01-15 When Prussia with her German allies went to war with the French Empire under Napoleon III her navy sat with tons of barnacles on the hulls of her battleships Her navy was small ineffective without doctrine and destitute of funding As nascent Germany struggled to become a Great Power the navy was to be thoroughly updated The man who took on this challenge was Grand Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz a seasoned sailor who was given huge power as the Secretary of State for the Imperial Navy Office to ring the changes and produce a force that would be a political weapon on the World Stage Tirpitz and his officers set to work without any of the preconceptions that hamstrung their only obvious opponent the Royal Navy and advanced the idea of submarines and torpedoes as critical weapons of Naval importance The fruits of his labours produced a potent navy which sought to antagonize the Royal Navy into conflict and during the only major engagement of the First World War at Jutland their superior gunnery caused much damage to the British Fleet He was however hoisted by his own petard in 1916 brought down by his own restless advocacy of unrestricted submarine warfare Author Grand Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz 1849 1930 Text taken whole and complete from the edition published in New York Dodd Mead and company 1919 Original Page Count 428 pages Dublin Examination Papers Trinity College (Dublin, Ireland), 1905 The Private Correspondence of David Garrick with the Most Celebrated Persons of His Time David Garrick, 1832 Germania; its courts, camps and people. Érasme: Sa pensée et son comportement Léon-E. Halkin, 2024-10-28 This volume of Professor Halkin's articles forms a complement to his recent biography of Erasmus of Rotterdam The articles published here are concerned with his activities and his behaviour and describe parts of what may be called his spiritual and intellectual itinerary different aspects of his thought or different chapters of his life The personality of Erasmus continues to make a striking impact upon those who read him but that it is hard to define it clearly or simply may be seen from the variety of differing judgements scholars have made The last of the great Latin writers the author of more than a hundred works he strove hard to disseminate his ideas with his books he expounded the theories of Christian humanism in his treatises and letters he incessantly preached peace right to the end of his life he worked for the reform of the Church These themes recur in these articles but in Professor Halkin's view it is his faith his militant and uncompromising Christianity which gives his character its unity
