Musselwhite,2017-12-12 First published in 1987 this book engages directly with a selection of major texts from the traditional English literature syllabus and applies some of the techniques from the work of theorists such as Macherey Balibar Derrida Foucault Lacan and Deleuze Focusing on questions of class and gender on the nature of knowledge and power on the distinction between the public and the private display and consciousness the work traces and celebrates the dispersal of Frankenstein Wuthering Heights Mansfield Park Vanity Fair and the novels of Charles Dickens This work will be of interest to those studying nineteenth century English literature The Nineteenth-century Novel Delia da Sousa Correa,2000 This text explores the scope and variety of the great novels of the 19th century The essays in this collection trace the experimentation of 19th century writers in advancing new modes of realist fiction Nineteenth-Century Literary Realism Katherine Kearns,1996-01-26 A challenging rethinking of traditional theories and redefinition of the genre of realism

The Nineteenth-Century Novel: Realisms Delia Correa Sousa de,2013-05-13 The essays in this volume trace the experimentation of nineteenth century writers in advancing new modes of realist fiction while revitalizing the inheritance of the Gothic and the Romantic Focusing on some of the most popular novels of the century Northanger Abbey Jayne Eyre Dombey and Son Middlemarch Far from the Madding Crowd and Germinal this attractive volume explores some of the recurring themes in nineteenth century fiction aspiration and vocation social class sexual politics political reform colonialism and commerce This is an ideal introduction to some of the major fictional achievements of the first industrial era and to most of the crucial themes in nineteenth century fiction Emily Bront Patsy Stoneman, 2000 A guide to and excerpts from the critical commentary on the only novel this particular Brontd 1818 48 published Stoneman English U of Hull arranges the commentary into sections on Victorian responses power propriety and poetry the rise and fall of the author humanism formalism deconst Fictions of Authority Susan Sniader Lanser, 2018-03-15 No detailed description available for Fictions of Authority Gothic Hauntings Christine Berthin, 2010-04-09 What is buried in the crypts of the Gothic Building on psychoanalytic research on haunting cryptonymy and melancholy as well as on French philosophies of language this book explores how haunting is not just a Gothic narrative device but the symptom of an impossibility of representation and of an irreparable loss at the heart of language New Models In Geography V2 PhD Richard Peet, Professor Nigel Thrift, 2014-07-10 First published in 1989 The publication of Models in geography presaged a sea change in the practice of Anglo American geography For a new set of models this book provides a summary of their nature spirit and purpose based upon a political economy perspective The book is split into two volumes each consisting of four parts This makes the title suitable for students and geographers with an interest in models of the city civil society and social theory Iane Austen and Narrative Authority T. Wallace, 1995-03-13 In Jane Austen and Narrative Authority Tara Ghoshal Wallace argues that far from embodying ideological and technical serenity Austen's novels articulate a range of anxieties about authorship and authority The novels experiment in different ways with possible sources and the ultimate failures of authority always returning to the compromised figure of the narrator Wallace suggests that Austen's novelistic output can be read as a theory of interpretation thematizing problems of narrative authority and readers resistance The Old Story, with a Difference Julian Wolfreys, 2006 The Old Story with a Difference Pickwick's Vision explores in radically different ways from most approaches to nineteenth century studies the tropes and metaphors of vision in Dickens first novel The Pickwick Papers Julian Wolfreys provides a close reading of Dickens Pickwick Papers and argues that this novel is an exemplary text for the re consideration of concepts such as literature history the novel and the whole notion of Victorian studies True to the purpose of the Victorian Critical Interventions Series Wolfreys challenges scholars to rethink the use of a canonical text in Victorian literature Challenging the commonplaces of historicist criticism and demonstrating the need for a return to close reading The Old Story with a Difference presents a reading of the novel grounded in the twinned rigors of materialist historiography and theoretical inflections tending toward attentiveness to epistemological and linguistic concerns Through such an orientation Wolfreys unpacks the relation between the tropes of visuality and matters of memory history and the necessity of fiction to bear witness to the cultures past and present from which literature becomes generated and which it mediates In doing so he situates an argument for rethinking Dickens novel as the inaugural novel of Victorian fiction par excellence in that novel s efforts to remain open to the traces of the past in particular ways The Old Story with a Difference holds profound implications for the study not only of Dickens works but Victorian literature and culture in general Provocative and inventive this ambitious analysis will challenge goad and invite the reader to return to acts of materialist reading informed by ethical Victorian Soundscapes John M. and ideological urgency rather than relapsing into the commonplaces of humanist clich Picker, 2003-09-04 Far from the hushed restraint we associate with the Victorians their world pulsated with sound This book shows how in more ways than one Victorians were hearing things The representations close listeners left of their soundscapes offered new meanings for silence music noise voice and echo that constitute an important part of the Victorian legacy to us today In chronicling the shift from Romantic to modern configurations of sound and voice Picker draws upon literary and scientific works to recapture the sense of aural discovery figures such as Babbage Helmholtz Freud Bell and Edison shared with the likes of Dickens George Eliot Tennyson Stoker and Conrad Anxious Pleasures Jonathan Hall,1995 The following sections deal with such themes as the relationship of wit to political and sexual anxiety the connection of the mobility of signs to an elusive interiority of the subject and the paradoxically threatening and redemptive mobility of women in relationship to patriarchal control History, Humanity and Evolution James Richard

Moore,2002-10-03 History Humanity and Evolution brings together thirteen original essays by prominent scholars in the history of evolutionary thought The volume is intended both to represent the best of today's research in the field and also to celebrate the work of the distinguished historian John C Greene whose historical writings have had a unique influence on this volume's contributors as well as the field as a whole Using contemporary sources as diverse as medicine literature and natural history tableaux and drawing on the resources of publishing history feminist scholarship and the histories of politics sociology and philosophy the contributors offer new perspectives not only on familiar figures such as Erasmus and Charles Darwin Lamarck Chambers Huxley and Haeckel but also on many lesser known participants in the evolutionary debates The volume contains a fascinating introductory conversation with John C Greene and an afterword by him that responds to the contributors essays New Models in Geography - Vol 2 Richard Peet,Nigel Thrift,2023-05-09 Two decades after the publication of the seminal Models in Geography edited by Richard Chorley Peter Haggett this major collection of specially commissioned essays charts the new human geography from the perspective of political economy Providing surveys of recent trends in theory bibliographic guides to the literature and pointers to advances and frontiers in thinking the book ranges from cultural to economic and urban geography The authors explore the connections between political economy and geographical thought in each area with the emphasis lying on the processes of material production and social reproduction

Dickens's Great Expectations Jerome Meckier, 2021-10-21 Dickens scholar Jerome Meckier s acclaimed Hidden Rivalries in Victorian Fiction examined fierce literary competition between leading novelists who tried to establish their credentials as realists by rewriting Dickens s novels Here Meckier argues that in Great Expectations Dickens not only updated David Copperfield but also rewrote novels by Lever Thackeray Collins Shelley and Charlotte and Emily Bront He periodically revised his competitors themes characters and incidents to discredit their novels as unrealistic fairy tales imbued with Cinderella motifs Dickens darkened his fairy tale perspective by replacing Cinderella with the story of Misnar's collapsible pavilion from The Tales of the Genii a popular pseudo oriental collection The Misnar analogue supplied a corrective for the era's Cinderella complex a warning to both Haves and Have nots and a basis for Dickens's tragicomic view of the world

Monstrous Society David Collings,2009 Monstrous Society problematizes competing representations of reciprocity in England in the decades around 1800 It argues that in the eighteenth century moral economy power is divided between official authority and the counter power of plebeians This tacit mutual understanding comes under attack when influential political thinkers such as Edmund Burke Jeremy Bentham and T R Malthus attempt to discipline the social body to make state power immune from popular response But once negated counter power persists even if in the demands of a debased inhuman body Such a response is writ large in Gothic tales especially Matthew Lewis s The Monk and Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and in the innovative embodied political practices of the mass movements for Reform and the Charter By interpreting the formation of modern English culture through the early modern practice of reciprocity David Collings constructs a nonmodern mode of analysis one that sees modernity not as a break from the past but as the result of attempts to transform traditions that however distorted nevertheless remain broadly in force Jacket Being English Julian Wolfreys,1994-01-01 Drawing on recent developments concerning national identity in post Marxist criticism and Derridean philosophy Wolfreys looks at the ways in which literature is used to represent the English middle classes to themselves using texts by Coleridge Wordsworth Arnold Gaskell Collins Eliot and Trollope Shadowtime Jim Reilly,2013-12-19 In Shadowtime Jim Reilly explores how the great Victorian and Edwardian works of literature can be read in the light of current radical historiography which foresees the extinction not just of art but of history itself This is an outstanding combination of original readings and critical survey Shadowtime is ideal material for anyone studying nineteenth century realism modernism and the history of aesthetics

Literature along the Lines of Flight Hidenaga Arai,2014-09-15 This book presents new readings of D H Lawrence's later novels from the perspective of established critical theory and contemporary thought a specific critical theory or critical perspective is selected and applied to each novel in order to present particular interpretations of each Although remaining faithful to one s personal desires without being unduly concerned with the outside world is considered a Lawrentian virtue I would like to show another Lawrence who was sensitive enough to the outside world and to the social discourses of his time to employ elements of them in his novels although subtly and with critical shifts and displacements Lawrence is a writer who continually draws lines of flight to escape from capitalist societies that ascribe essential value and power to money
