Jihad vs. McWorld Benjamin Barber, 2010-04-21 Jihad vs McWorld is a groundbreaking work an elegant and illuminating analysis of the central conflict of our times consumerist capitalism versus religious and tribal fundamentalism These diametrically opposed but strangely intertwined forces are tearing apart and bringing together the world as we know it undermining democracy and the nation state on which it depends On the one hand consumer capitalism on the global level is rapidly dissolving the social and economic barriers between nations transforming the world's diverse populations into a blandly uniform market On the other hand ethnic religious and racial hatreds are fragmenting the political landscape into smaller and smaller tribal units Jihad vs McWorld is the term that distinguished writer and political scientist Benjamin R Barber has coined to describe the powerful and paradoxical interdependence of these forces In this important new book he explores the alarming repercussions of this potent dialectic for democracy A work of persuasive originality and penetrating insight Jihad vs McWorld holds up a sharp clear lens to the dangerous chaos of the post Cold War world Critics and political leaders have already heralded Benjamin R Barber s work for its bold vision and moral courage Jihad vs McWorld is an essential text for anyone who wants to understand our troubled present and the crisis threatening our future Conspiracy Theories in Turkey Doğan Gürpınar,2019-05-29 in Pakistan Its focus is conflict among groups communities classes ideologies and institutions which has shaped the country s political dynamics Mohammad Waseem critically examines the theory surrounding the millennium long conflict between Hindus and Muslims as separate nations who practiced mingled faiths and the Hindu Muslim and Sikh renaissances that created a twentieth century clash of communities and led to partition Political Conflict in Pakistan addresses multiple clashes between the high culture as a mission to transform society and the low culture of the land and the people between those committed to the establishment s institutional constitutional framework and those seeking to dismantle the colonial state between the corrupt and those seeking to hold them to account between the political class and the middle class and between civil and military power The author exposes how the ruling elite centralised power through the militarisation and judicialization of politics rendering the federalist arrangement an empty shell and thus grossly alienating the provinces He sets all this within the contexts of education and media as breeders of conflict the difficulties of establishing an anti terrorist regime and the state s pragmatic attempts at conflict resolution by seeking to keep the outsiders inside This is a wide ranging account of a country of contestations
