At His Gates, Volume 3 (of 3) Margaret Oliphant , 2015-03-09 Example in this ebook CHAPTER I The drawing room within was very different from the wild conflict of light and darkness outside There was music going on at one end some people were reading some talking There were flirtations in hand and grave discussions In short the evening was being spent as people are apt to spend the evening when there is nothing particular going on There had been a good deal of private yawning and inspection of watches throughout the evening and some of the party had already gone to bed or rather to their rooms where they could indulge in the happiness of fancying themselves somewhere else an amusement which is very popular and general in a country house But seated in an easy chair by the fire was a tall man carefully dressed with diamond studs in his shirt and a toilette which though subdued in tone as a gentleman s evening dress must be was yet too elaborate for the occasion The fact that this new guest was a stranger to him and that his father was seated by him in close conversation made it at once apparent to Ned that it must be Golden Clara was close to them listening with a look of eager interest to all they said These three made a little detached group by one side of the fire At the other corner sat Mrs Burton with her little feet on a footstool as near as possible to the fender She had just said good night to the dignified members of the party the people who had to be considered the others who remained were mere young people about whose proceedings she did not concern herself She was taking no part in the talk at the other side of the fire She sat and warmed her little toes and pondered her vivid little mind all astir and working but uninfluenced by and somewhat contemptuous of what was going on around and her chilly little person basking in the ruddy warmth of the fire Ned came up and stood by her when he came in No one took any notice of him the few persons who remained in the room having other affairs in hand Ned was fond of his mother though she had never shown any fondness for him She had done all for him which mere intellect could do She had been very just to the boy all his life when he got into scrapes as boys will she had not backed him up emotionally it is true but she had taken all the circumstances into account and had not judged him harshly She had been tolerant when his father was harsh She had never lost her temper He had always felt that he could appeal to her sense of justice to her calm and impartial reason This is not much like the confidence with which a boy generally throws himself upon his mother s sympathy yet it was a great deal in Ned s case And accordingly he loved his mother Mrs Burton too loved him perhaps more than she loved any one She was doing her best to break his heart but that is not at all uncommon even when parents and children adore each other And then Ned was not aware that his mother had any share intentionally or otherwise in the cruel treatment he had received Who is that he asked under his breath A Mr Golden a friend of your father s said Mrs Burton lifting her eyes and turning them calmly upon the person she named There was no feeling in them of one kind or another and yet Ned felt that she at least did not admire Mr Golden and it was a comfort to him He went forward to the fire and placed himself as an Englishman loves to do in front of it He stood there for ten minutes or so paying no particular attention to the conversation on his right hand His father however looked more animated than he had done for a long time and Clara was bending forward with a faint rose tint from the fire tinging the whiteness of her forehead and throat and deeper roses glowing on her cheeks Her blue eyes were following Mr Golden s movements as he spoke her hair was shining like crisp gold in the light To be continue in this ebook
