Phil Bell, 2015-09-08 Parents and families are busier than ever and so are you, but partnering with them is as important as ever. So how do you do that? Author Phil Bell has taken his 20 years of experience and created a playbook to help you come alongside parents. This isn't a plan to make your ministry look like someone else's. These are proven ideas you can weave into the things you're already doing. These practical ideas work whether you're full time, part time, or a volunteer. And you can add them on to your own timeline. Partnering with parents isn't about just getting them to come to you. It's about a ministry that meets in the middle where you are and where they are, creating a stronger ministry and stronger families. Topics include: Taking care of yourself and your own family first; Key strategies for effective communication; Ideas for resourcing and equipping parents; Ways to reach unengaged parents; Turning parents into your ministry's greatest promoters; Fostering a community of parents that makes everyone stronger. Youth Ministry Parents David Frazee, 2022 A Youth group is not only about your teenager. Youth ministry done well includes and impacts the entire family. Practical Wisdom for Parents is not a book about how to make your teens sit down and have a family devotional. Instead, this book will help you and your teen thrive and flourish during these important years. David and Walter give numerous practical suggestions on how you can work alongside and support those leading your youth ministry, including a variety of ways you can support and be involved in your teen's youth ministry experience. Many of their ideas are behind the scenes that don't require you to teach a class or lead a devotional. However, your partnership role with your youth ministry leadership will be clearly articulated throughout. The End of Youth Ministry? (Theology for the Life of the World)

Transforming Children into Spiritual Champions George Barna,2013-02-18 No one can deny our culture is opposed to Christian values and the influences bombarding our children s moral development are difficult to contend with But few parents and church leaders realize that a child s moral development is set by the age of nine It is therefore critical to start developing a child s biblical worldview from the very earliest years of life The problem is complex parents who themselves did not receive early spiritual training leave their children s training to the church Yet the church often focuses on older children The answer is for churches to come alongside parents to provide them biblical worldview training parenting information and counseling that will equip them to help their children become the spiritually mature church of tomorrow This helpful and hopeful book unpacks just how to develop this kind of dynamic church parent relationship and includes profiles of churches that are effectively ministering to children and winning the war for their hearts
