Joyce Chang, 2023-05-09 Choices in Relationships takes readers through the lifespan of relationships marriages and families and utilizes research to help them make deliberate informed choices in their interpersonal relationships Drawing on extensive research authors David Knox Caroline Schacht and I Joyce Chang challenge students to think critically about the choice making process consider the consequences involved with choices view situations in a positive light and understand that not making a choice is a choice after all The Fourteenth Edition features over 1000 new citations increased emphasis and discussion of diversity and inclusion throughout each chapter and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on individuals couples and families Make Love Work For You Anne Nicholls, 2015-07-16 In this practical guide relationships counsellor Anne Nicholls explains that finding and keeping a positive and happy relationship is not an impossible dream Here she seeks to arm the reader with a toolkit of tried and tested strategies to help you break the negative patterns of the past allow you to spot early on who is right for you and keep your new relationship strong and nurturing Topics covered include erasing your old relationship rules and finding new positive ones learning how to recover from past hurt learning strategies for checking that a new partner is right for you determining whether it is love or infatuation learning how to make the transition from singles to couple maintaining comfort and security in a relationship using strategies for dealing with conflict and disagreements and avoiding booby traps Partnership Rights, Free Movement, and EU Law Helen Toner, 2004-12-21 This book considers the case for modernising partnership rights in EC family reunification law Existing Community law traditionally guarantees immigration rights only to spouses and yet there is a growing diversity of national laws on same sex marriage registered partnerships and recognition of cohabitation The Community institutions which have recently framed new legislation seem to view this as a question that can be settled by political agreement with little or no outside constraint The book challenges this assumption The book outlines recent developments in national legal systems and traces the development of the recent Community legislation Then drawing on basic ECHR principles the place of the ECHR in Community law and on basic Community law principles of free movement and discrimination the book argues that the right of a migrant EU Citizen to family reunification for a cohabiting partner is presumptively protected and therefore justification for refusing to admit such partners must be provided It also considers the possible justifications for marriage partners only immigration policies and concludes that although possible such justifications are far from certain to succeed The discussion also tackles the question of whether judicial activism is appropriate or whether there should be judicial deference to the legislative process recently completed The book concludes with a wider discussion of the proper response of Community law to the increasing diversity of Member States family laws and policies beyond the field of immigration rights The book will be of value not only to immigration lawyers but also to those interested in partnership rights generally as well as to a wider audience of EU lawyers primarily academics but also graduate students and practitioners 10 Little Things for a Happier Marriage Santanu
