W. understanding Christianity among the world's great religious traditions. Avoiding tired labels of past debates: Exclusivism, Pluralism, and Inclusivism. Knitter suggests four different models: Replacement, Fulfillment, Mutuality, and Acceptance, that more adequately link together thirteen ways of approaching and understanding the variety of the world's religious expressions.

Beyond Dialogue John B. Cobb Jr., 1998-07-30 Christian Reflection about other religions has often misinterpreted the truth of the other Ways. The Roman Catholic Church and the World Council of Churches stress that Christians can gain an appreciative understanding of other traditions only through meaningful dialogue with believers of other faiths. This book, however, emphasizes the need for Christians to go beyond dialogue to reach for a mutual transformation of Christianity and other religions. By way of example, the author explores with originality the Christian encounter with Mahayana Buddhism. He offers an original view of how Christianity and Buddhism can appropriately transform one another when both partners are truly respected as equal. Both contributing and benefiting. John Cobb boldly challenges us to hear in an authentic way the truth which the other has to teach us and to be transformed by that truth. Theology and the Dialogue of Religions Michael Barnes, 2002-03-14 Theology of religions is an area of theological reflection on inter-religious relations which raises fundamental questions for all people of faith in a pluralist post-modern world. How to practise a religious faith with integrity while respecting other claims to ultimate truth? Must the other always be regarded as a problematic complication on the fringes of a Christianity-centred world? Is there a third way between an all-dominating exclusivism and a vapid relativism? This book contributes to the debate about the place of inter-religious relations in the life of the Church by developing a theology of dialogue. In offering a critique of much current thinking in this area, Michael Barnes SJ proposes instead a theology rooted in the themes of welcome and hospitality. He argues for a vision of Christianity as a school of faith, a community called not just to teach others but to learn from them as well. Hindus and Christians S. Wesley Ariarajah, 1991 The Future of Interfaith Dialogue Yazeed Said, Yazid Said, Lejla Demiri, 2018-08-30 Provides insightful discussions of the exegetical and discursive process begun by the open letter 'A Common Word Between Us and You'. Debate and Dialogue Maijastina Kahlos, 2016-05-13 This book explores the construction of Christian identity in fourth and fifth centuries through inventing, fabricating and sharpening binary oppositions. Such oppositions, for example, Christians/pagans, truth/falsehood, the one true god/the multitude of demons, the right religion/superstition, served to create and reinforce the Christian self-identity. The author examines how the Christian argumentation against pagans was intertwined with self-perception and self-affirmation. Discussing the relations and interaction between pagan and Christian cultures, this book aims at widening historical understanding of the cultural conflicts and the otherness in world history, thus contributing to the ongoing discussion about the historical and conceptual basis of cultural tolerance and intolerance. This book offers a valuable contribution to contemporary scholarly debate about Late Antique religious history and the relationship between Christianity and other religions. Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 Yeo, 2021-09-06 Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 is a formal analysis of Paul's rhetorical interaction with the Corinthians over the issues of participation in the cultic meal 1 Cor 10 1-22 and the eating of idol food 1 Cor 8 1-13 10 23-11 1. The thesis is that Paul's theology and rhetoric are predicated on knowledge and love. Major portions of the book employ rhetorical, sociological, archaeological, and historical critical approaches to examine the triangular interaction between Paul, the Corinthians, and the biblical texts, paying particular attention to the complex configuration of the Corinthian congregation, including the influence of proto-Gnosticism, as well as the ways Paul responded to the shifting situation and different issues. The two chapters on rhetorical hermeneutical theory and criticism are especially creative, as the author suggests a Chinese hermeneutic for cross-cultural dialogues, the issue of ancestor worship being a specific example.
