Communication and Culture in War and Peace Colleen Roach,1993-02-01 Roach provides an excellent account of the contributions of feminist peace researchers to the analysis of cultural militarism and its twin cultural violence against women Altogether this book is a worthy enterprise that will help both activists and scholars gain a more in depth understanding of the barriers to change errected by the media s use of information technology and will be useful in developing scenarios and strategies for the creative use of that technology for peaceful social transformation Elise Boulding in Media Development Does the media have a perverse fascination with war and violence Do television newspapers and magazines neglect the forces of peace in favor of the more dramatic war machines thereby amplifying the guns rather than

muting them If so how does media coverage reflect the culture for which it works By exploring the role of both culture and mass media this volume fills a crucial void in the study of war and peace Outstanding scholars provide a history and overview of critical mass media research and investigate emerging issues dealing with the ongoing debate over communication in war and peace Several chapters deal specifically with the role of communication culture in the Gulf War while others discuss more general themes including the military industrial communication complex cultural imperialism and transnational control of communication Many of the essays offer a uniquely feminist reading of war and peace a perspective typically unacknowledged in mainstream communication work This timely book also weaves peripheral concerns like multiculturalism international communication law women and peace and communication technology into the primary themes of media and war The research and practical information given here will be useful for courses in peace and conflict studies international mass communication and intercultural communication Professionals in international relations negotiations and the media will find this book to be both fascinating and illuminating Original research on the coverage of disarmament stories and peace issues in Canadian dailies and Vincent Mosco s excellent blueprint for converting the military machine to a peace system give Roach s work practical and positive dimensions Abstracts at the beginning of the chapters full bibliographies and a preface by the father of peace studies Johan Galtung add to the importance of this book Recommended for anyone interested in the use minuses of mass media to cover up explain promote governmental efforts to keep situations tense and warlike Choice

Communication and Culture in War and Peace provides a strategic road map for scholarly and citizen action This is tightly edited passionately and convincingly argued and a broadly conceived book It fills a large gap and is likely to be a widely used seminal resource and text for some time to come George Gerbner Professor of Communication and Dean Emeritus University of Pennsylvania

A Pathway To Union Ariana Khent,2010-03 A Pathway to Union challenges a five thousand year old masculine dominant belief system which fosters division separation and death and offers an in depth look at a new balanced feminine and masculine perspective that promotes wholeness interconnectedness and respect for life Learn how you can facilitate this evolutionary transition by observing tapping into and trusting the data streaming from your feelings heart feminine thoughts mind masculine and the physical body In this transformative step by step guide you will See how the masculine qualities of action leadership and thinking must always contain the feminine characteristics of compassion creativity and feeling Probe the benefits of setting healthy boundaries utilizing left and right brain functions living in the present and much more Discover your invaluable worth and the contribution personal transformation makes to humanity s collective shift Raise your awareness through practical supportive exercises and narrative stories Marrying the feminine heart and masculine mind requires a radical shift in consciousness A Pathway to Union serves as a blueprint to awaken and explore what it means to fully integrate feminine and masculine attributes into your life in the twenty first century

Charlotte Perkins Gilman Carol Farley Kessler,1995-03-01 The focus of Carol Farley Kessler s work is how Charlotte

Perkins Gilman developed as a writer and how she imagined a full blown utopia for women This book which offers a fresh reading of Gilman s fiction fills a void in Gilman scholarship in feminist utopian scholarship and in American literary studies Kessler provides three journeys through Gilman s life A Biographical Exploration discusses facets of her life having a substantial impact upon her utopian writing Four themes influence this development the legacy of ancestral expectations her relationships to father mother and daughter the experience of two marriages and a divorce and her friendships with women Gilman and her Prancing Young Utopia presents three stages in the development of Gilman s utopian writing First she imagined neighborhoods writing alternately fiction and nonfiction Second she tested in fiction the expression of utopian principles explained in her nonfiction Finally she created the whole society in her 1915 satire Herland All of the foregoing writing represents Gilman s effort to imagine in fiction solutions that she recommended in her 1898 feminist treatise Women and Economics Writing to Empower Living connects Gilman s biography to her utopian writing as both personal expression and public activism The writing can be understood as equipment for living Ten hard to locate utopian short stories and chapters from four novels conclude the volume

The Art of Everyday Ecstasy Margot Anand,2015-02-18 Ecstasy is about waking up and finding that you are in love with life Most people think of ecstasy in terms of sexual ecstasy which Tantric sex expert Margot Anand wrote about in her bestselling The Art of Sexual Ecstasy Now in The Art of Everyday Ecstasy Anand expands our definition of ecstasy and shows how we can harness its energy to help us live work and love more passionately joyfully and with true spiritual focus Our modern work obsessed stress filled culture what Anand calls the anti ecstatic conspiracy has dulled our spirits thrown us off balance and alienated us from meaningful everyday experiences In this inspirational journey toward finding the healing nature of ecstasy Anand explains how the two types of ecstatic experiences the moments of epiphany called Ecstatic Awakenings and EveryDay Ecstasy or the Ecstasy of Flow a connection to our power and inner wisdom can help us move beyond pain and doubt to reach our highest potential Based on the spiritual path of Tantra Anand shows how to use the natural energy system of our bodies the seven chakras as a map to ecstasy As she guides us through the chakras she explains how each one plays an important role in transforming energy into erotic passion healing empowerment compassion creativity insight and gratitude Blocked chakras manifest themselves in surprising ways wholeness can be achieved only when all of the chakras are open with energy flowing freely By transforming negative behavioral patterns into positive ones and strengthening ourselves physically emotionally and spiritually we can improve our health sex life career relationships and find profound meaning in everyday moments With personal anecdotes exercises meditations and rituals The Art of Everyday Ecstasy shows us how to bring ecstatic energy into the body mind heart and spirit to embrace every moment in our totality to respond bodily feel from the heart perceive with clarity and be fully present to others and to life

The Real Wealth of Nations Riane Eisler,2008-11-03 The author of The Chalice and the Blade proposes a new economics based on care in this impressive work that s well argued insightful and hopeful Publishers Weekly

Adam Smith's The Wealth of Nations provided the first explanation of the workings of modern economics. But with his focus on the market as the best mechanism for producing and distributing the necessities of life, Smith's concepts only told part of the story, leading to flawed economic models that devalue activities that fall outside of the market's parameters of buying and selling. The real wealth of nations, Riane Eisler argues, is not merely financial but includes the contributions of people and our natural environment. In The Real Wealth of Nations, Eisler reexamines economics from a larger perspective, showing that we must give visibility and value to the essential work of caring for people and the planet. Eisler proposes a new caring economics that recognizes the full spectrum of economic activities, from the life-sustaining activities of the household to the life-enriching activities of caregivers and communities to the life-supporting processes of nature. Eisler reveals how current economic models are based on a deep-seated culture of patriarchy and domination. She then shows how human needs would be better served by economic models based on caring. Most importantly, she provides practical proposals for new measures, policies, rules, and practices to bring about a caring economics that fulfills human needs. Voicing Power Gail

Hanlon, 2019-05-20 This collection brings together a number of key interviews with some of the most interesting visionary and thought-provoking feminist theorists and activists now working in the United States. It provides a detailed exploration into their responses to feminist paradigm shifts, their analyses of the future of the women's movement, and their global

Coercive Relationships Jennifer C. Parker, 2021-03-11 Coercive Control provides a beacon for survivors of partner abuse. Parker's nonjudgmental, empathic voice offers knowledge gleaned from years of experience. Survivors gain answers to frequently asked questions: Am I being abused? Why do they hurt me? Why do I feel so crazy? What can I change? Why do they believe they should control us? How do I recognize abuse of power? How do I heal? Each chapter contains illustrative vignettes and suggestions for reflection to assist readers in discovering what they want. Coercive Relationships lifts the private shame survivors feel by connecting their abusers' actions to societal values and beliefs that permit all forms of violence. The Politics of Hope Donna Zajonc, 2004 The Politics of Hope presents cogent research on human potential and leadership against the backdrop of an insider's political war stories. The result is a clear picture of American democracy as an exciting four-step evolutionary process that mirrors the macrocosm of the evolution of all humanity. That the scope of our world has narrowed due to rapid and chaotic social change brought on by the Internet and other global communication technologies is a fact not lost on Zajonc. The Politics of Hope is a call to action for American citizens recognizing that to revive the dream of democracy worldwide, our nation must set the stage for political greatness on a global scale. The Soul of Creativity

Tona Pearce Myers, 2011-09-22 There is no single definition of creativity. It is as wide-ranging as the people who seek it: writers, painters, musicians, actors; indeed, anyone who desires a richer, more rewarding life. Many consider it inaccessible, limited to gifted artists and celebrities. But as the extraordinary contributors to this book show, it is really everyone's birthright, too often shoved to the recesses of our psyches by the demands of everyday life. From the vibrant naturalist and poet Diane Ackerman to musical theorist Don Campbell to inspirational author SARK these talented contributors guide us through the creative process with clarity and insight They remind us that inspiration is always available to those willing to realize the power and possibility of their true creative being Contributors include Diane Ackerman Pat B Allen Christina Baldwin Hal Zina Bennett Echo Bodine Jean Shinoda Bolen Don Campbell Lucia Capacchione Michelle Cassou Judith Cornell Adriana D az Riane Eisler Linda Firestone John Fox Robert Fritz Aviva Gold Robert Grudin Jean Liedloff Ann Linnea Shaun McNiff Eric Maisel Jill Mellick Stephen Nachmanovitch Kent Nerburn Jan Phillips SARK
