Parts Of An Andrology On Representations Of Mens Bodies:

Parts of an Andrology Lawrence R. Schehr, 1997 In studying the white male body a counterpoint in gender studies to the many readings of the representations of the female body this book considers works by such authors as Poe Maupassant Moravia Tournier Roth Guibert and Foucault

Parts of an Andrology Lawrence R. Schehr, 1997 The subject of this original and provocative work is the white male body a counterpoint in gender studies to the many readings of the representation of the female body To look at the construction of this figure the author examines a group of discontinuous works that are representative of the discontinuity in the intermittent representation of the male body Especially in nineteenth century narrative where Edgar Allan Poe and Guy de Maupassant write astutely on the subject there is never continuity in representing the male body The Pit and the Pendulum and Bel Ami are flickering episodic investigations into the male body as subject as sentient feeling as the subject of torture or of adulation Not until the twentieth century can this male subject be continuously represented Though the male body is often at center stage in works that treat it as a metonymy of its own phallic and phallogocentric power this body has less often been seen relative to pleasure and pain to aesthetics to human vulnerability An introductory chapter explores a work by Alberto Moravia Io e lui as well as various manifestations of the male body s most salient part the penis in contemporary discourse and aesthetics Another chapter deals with writings about the forbidden activity of masturbation and focuses on the work of three disparate writers Paul Bonnetain Michel Tournier and Philip Roth In the final chapter the author discusses several works that focus on the representation of the male body during the gay liberation movement in France and the subsequent celebration of the male body ending with the inscription of the male body in the literature of AIDS Among the authors discussed are Guy Hocquenghem Herv Guibert and Michel Foucault

Music Video and the Politics of Representation Diane Railton, 2011-07-07 How can we engage critically with music video and its role in popular culture What do contemporary music videos have to tell us about patterns of cultural identity today Based around an eclectic series of vivid case studies this fresh and timely examination is an entertaining and enlightening analysis of the forms pleasures and politics that music videos offer In rethinking some classic approaches from film studies and popular music studies and connecting them with new debates about the current state of feminism and feminist theory Railton and Watson show why and how we should be studying music videos in the twenty first century Through its thorough overview of the music video as a visual medium this is an ideal textbook for Media Studies students and all those with an interest in popular music and cultural studies

Revealing Male Bodies Nancy Tuana, William Cowling, Maurice Hamington, Greg Johnson, 2002-05-06 Revealing Male Bodies is the first scholarly collection to directly confront male lived experience There has been an explosion of work in men s studies masculinity issues and male sexuality in addition to a growing literature exploring female embodiment Missing from the current literature however is a sustained analysis of the phenomenology of male gendered bodies Revealing Male Bodies addresses this omission by examining how male bodies are physically and experientially constituted by the economic theoretical and social practices in which men are immersed Contributors include Susan Bordo William Cowling Terry Goldie Maurice Hamington Don Ihde Greg Johnson Bj rn Krondorfer Alphonso Lingis Patrick McGann Paul McIlvenny Terrance MacMullan Jim Perkinson Steven P Schacht Richard Schmitt Nancy Tuana Craig L Wilkins and John Zuern

Figures of Alterity Lawrence R. Schehr,2003 This book focuses on the extension of realist writing toward alterity toward otherness in its ongoing efforts to enable individuals to speak and be heard correctly Through a series of close readings of six authors from Balzac to Proust the author shows the ways realist narrative engages the problem of bringing the other into the realm of the discursively representable The acts of representation involved in that development were not necessarily coterminous with either the representation of the exotic and its attendant stereotypes or with the representation of individuals themselves The representation of the other was the extension of discourse to what was previously unrepresentable The author argues that the unrepresentable is often perceived as oppositional because of the structuring of discourse by hierarchies and metaphysics whereby any bivalent pair is made into an oppositional pair

Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness,2017-12-02 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804 1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sands novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sands fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sands novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority

Zola, The Body Modern Susan Harrow,2017-07-05 Emile Zola s reputation as a landmark European novelist is undisputed His monumental achievement the novel cycle Les Rougon Macquart Histoire sociale et naturelle d une famille sous le Second Empire 1871 1893 fixed his status as a major writer in the naturalist tradition Is there any more to be said Susan Harrow answers boldly in the affirmative challenging the commonplace view that Zola s writing is predictable prolix and transparent what Barthes called readerly for which read tedious Harrow exposes the modernist and postmodernist strategies which surface in the Rougon Macquart novels and reveals Zola s innovatory representation of the body captured here at work at war at play at rest and in arresting abstraction Informed by critical thought from Barthes and Deleuze to Michel de Certeau and Anthony Giddens Zola the Body Modern offers a model for how we can revitalize our understanding of the canonical nineteenth century European

Taboo Hannah Thompson,2017-07-05 French realist texts are driven by representations of the body and depend on corporeality to generate narrative intrigue But anxieties around bodily representation undermine realist claims of objectivity and transparency Aspects of bodily reality which threaten les bonnes moeurs gender confusion sexual appetite disability torture murder child abuse and disease rarely occupy the foreground and are instead spurned or only partially alluded to by writers and critics This wide ranging study uses the notion of the taboo as a powerful means of interpreting representations of the body The hidden bodies of realist texts reveal their secrets in unexpected ways Thompson reads texts by Sand Rachilde Maupassant Hugo Barbey d Aureville Mirbeau and Zola alongside modern theorists of the body to show how the figure of the taboo plots an alternative model of author reader relations based on the struggle to speak the unspeakable Dr Hannah Thompson is a Senior Lecturer in French at Royal Holloway University of London Her first book Naturalism Redressed Identity and Clothing in the Novels of Emile Zola was published by Legenda in 2004
