Pas Platform Development And Change 19511986:

PAS' Platform Alias Muhammad,1994      Malaysia Saw Swee-Hock,K Kesavapany,2006 This book documents the trends and challenges that are taking place in various sectors in Malaysia The chapters written by specialists with an intimate knowledge of the country cover many of the major issues concerning Malaysia a country undergoing significant changes and challenges      Piety and Politics Joseph Chinyong Liow,2009-04-07 Malaysia home to some twenty million Muslims is often held up as a model of a pro Western Islamic nation The government of Malaysia in search of Western investment does its best to perpetuate this view But this isn't the whole story Over the last several decades Joseph Liow shows Malaysian politics has taken a strong turn toward Islamism This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the growing role of Islam in the last quarter century of Malaysian politics Conventional wisdom suggest that the ruling UMNO party has moved toward Islamism to fend off challenges from the more heavily Islamist opposition party PAS Liow argues however that UMNO has often taken the lead in moving toward Islamism and that in fact PAS has often been forced to react The result Liow argues is a game of piety trumping that will be very difficult to reverse and that has dire consequences not only for the ethnic and religious minorities of Malaysia but for their democratic system as a whole      Islamic Leviathan Seyyed Vali Reza Nasr,2001-09-13 Islamization is commonly seen as the work of Islamist movements who have forced their ideology on ruling regimes and other hapless social actors There is little doubt that ruling regimes and disparate social and political actors alike are pushed in the direction of Islamic politics by Islamist forces However Islamist activism and its revolutionary and utopian rhetoric only partly explain this trend Here Nasr argues that the state itself plays a key role in embedding Islam in the politics of Muslim countries Focusing on Malaysia and Pakistan Nasr argues that the turn to Islam is a facet of the state's drive to establish hegemony over society and expand its powers and control      Personalized Politics In-wŏn Hwang,2003 This book is an innovative analysis of regime maintenance and transformation in Malaysia It goes beyond familiar approaches centred on communal politics or the corporate workings of Malaysia Inc to stress the importance of power maintenance tracing a path from consociational bargaining to authoritarian UMNO dominance to Dr Mahathir's personal dominance The author has synthesized a diverse range of sources and in particular made insightful use of interviews with nearly all the key actors The analysis is up to date including the dramatic challenge to Dr Mahathir's dominance associated with his sacking of deputy Anwar Ibrahim following the Asian economic crisis      Religion and the Politics of Development P. Fountain,R. Bush,M. Feener,2015-04-07 This volume brings emerging research on religion and development into conversation with politics Deploying innovative conceptual frameworks and drawing on empirical research from across contemporary Asia this collection makes an incisive contribution to the analysis of aid and development processes      Civil Society and Political Change in Asia Muthiah Alagappa,2004 A systematic investigation of the connection between civil society and political change in Asia change toward open participatory and accountable politics Its findings suggest that the link between a vibrant civil society and democracy is indeterminate certain civil society organizations support democracy others could undermine it

Modernization, Democracy, and Islam Shireen T. Hunter, Huma Malick, 2005-01-30 The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion but factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion Islam but rather factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The distinguished scholars contributing to this volume identify key factors some intrinsic to the Muslim world and some external that contribute to Islam's current predicament Contrary to much prevailing thought and opinion Islam is neither monolithic nor impervious to change It is neither anti democratic nor inherently anti modernization Islam itself as this book shows is not the root cause of the malaise of the Islamic world

The Politics of Indonesia-Malaysia Relations Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2005 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Indonesia and Malaysia focusing especially on how the relationship has developed in the last fifty years It argues that the political relationship between the two countries has been largely defined by rivalry despite the fact that the processes of national self determination began by emphasising Indo Malay fraternity It shows how the two countries have different contested interpretations of Indo Malay history and how the continuing suspicion of Javanese hegemony which defined much of the history of the Indo Malay world is also a key factor in the relationship

Malaysia, State and Civil Society in Transition Vidhu Verma, 2002 Tracing historical and political dynamics underlying nearly 20 years of authoritarian rule Verma addresses five issues Islam secular nationalism citizenship democracy and human rights arguing that modernization has led to tensions in Malaysia

Kekal abadi, 1990 Southeast Asian Affairs 2002

Daljit Singh, 2003-08-01 Southeast Asian Affairs of which there are now twenty nine in the series is an annual review of significant developments and trends in the region Though the emphasis is on ASEAN countries developments in the broader Asia Pacific region are not ignored Readable and easily understood analyses are offered of major political economic social and strategic developments within Southeast Asia The contributions can be divided into two broad categories There are those which provide an analysis of major developments during 2001 in individual Southeast Asian countries and in the region generally Then there are the theme articles of a more specialized nature which deal with topical problems of concern This volume contains twenty articles dealing with such major themes as international conflict and co operation political stability and economic growth and development

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia Meredith Weiss, 2014-10-17 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia offers a broad analytical survey of Malaysia It provides a comprehensive survey of significant topics in Malaysian politics economy and society today focussing on issues institutions and trends It is divided into four thematic sections which are all introduced by the editor Domestic politics Economics Social policy and social development International relations and security The volume brings together an international team of experts an interdisciplinary mix of forty contributors from Malaysia and elsewhere including many of the leading specialists on Malaysian affairs The chapters included in the volume form an accessible and fascinating window onto contemporary Malaysia They each introduce a different aspect of the Malaysian polity economy or society offering both historical perspective and a current assessment or investigation Designed for general readers and specialists alike chapters may be read individually each stands on its own or conjointly Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Malaysian politics economics and society

The Politics of Bangsa Malaysia: Nation-Building in a Multiethnic Society (UUM Press) Mohamed Mustafa Ishak, 2014-01-01 The politics of nation building has always been a central issue in Malaysia Whilst the country has been able to sustain a relatively stable politics since the 1969 tragedy and hence generate a rapid economic development at least until the 1997 Asian economic crisis and later in the post 2008 General Election the project of nation building remains a basic national agenda yet to be fully resolved The book explores the delicate process of nation building in Malaysia in the post 1970s especially in the context of the vision constructing the Bangsa Malaysia or a united Malaysian nation enshrined in Mahathir's Vision 2020 project which was introduced in 1991 It discusses the underlying socio political parameters that shape and influence the politics of nation building in the country and the construction of Bangsa Malaysia As such the book provides an alternative perspective in the analysis of ethnic relations and nation building in Malaysia thus broadens the understanding of Malaysian politics and society

The Politics of Islam in Contemporary Malaysia Kamarulnizam Abdullah, 2003 This book focuses on two major Malay politic parties UMNO and PAS two major dakwah movements ABIM and Al Arqam to analyse and to examine their impact on Malaysian politics This book explores the role of Islam in Malay society and politics and tries to establish a systematic linkage between Islam and Malay unity

A Bibliography of Military and Political Aspects of the Malayan Emergency, the Confrontation with Indonesia, and the Brunei Revolt Justin J. Corfield, 2003 The Malayan Emergency the confrontation with Indonesia and the Brunei Revolt are fundamental to an understanding of Southeast Asia during the 20th century This bibliography brings together 4575 sources which should provide useful information for scholars researching these developments and Southeast Asian history in general Sources include books theses newspaper and magazine articles and unpublished manuscripts

International Review of Comparative Public Policy Mercuro, 1997-12-15 Islamic states the process of definition and the source of legitimacy of public policy is complex and potentially more controversial than in secular states This complexity arises from applying the interpretations of the divine law the Shari'a to contemporary social issues The Shari'a is the code of social conduct and the means of regulating social discourse as well a social change fundamental issues arise First what is the legitimate source and process of interpretation of the precepts of Islamic law the Shari a And second how are the specific dictums of the Shari a affected by the fundamental changes in the social and technological circumstances of life to this politico theological issues The problem has evolved into the more fundamental questions of what is Islam and whose Islam frequently asked by Muslim revivalists groups themselves who claim that theirs is the true Islam practical applications of a major issue in public policy and with the controversies that may exist on the interpretation of Islamic precepts on the topic In this respect this volume is planned to be a cohesive and integrated collection seeking to reflect the difference in methodological approaches of various authors     The Frontiers of Southeast Asia and Pacific Studies Xinhuan Xia,2006     Mahathir's Administration Khai Leong Ho,Ung-Ho Chin,2001     Protest and Possibilities Meredith Leigh Weiss,2006 This book examines a recent movement for political reform in Malaysia contrasting the experience both with past initiatives in Malaysia and with a contemporaneous reform movement in Indonesia to help us understand how and when coalitions unite reformers from civil and political societies and how these coalitions engage with the state and society
