Reasons of State Alejo Carpentier,2013-10-08 One of the most significant novels in Latin American literature written by Cuba s most important modern novelist to win a bet with Gabriel Garcia Marquez In the early 1970s friends Gabriel Garc a M rquez Augusto Roa Bastos and Alejo Carpentier reached a joint decision they would each write a novel about the dictatorships then wreaking misery in Latin America Garc a M rquez went on to write The Autumn of the Patriarch and Roa Bastos I the Supreme The third novel in this remarkable trinity is Reasons of State hailed as the most significant novel ever to come out of Cuba As with Garcia Marquez Reasons of State is a bold story boldly told daring in its perceptions rich in lush detail inventive in prose and deadly compelling in its suspenseful plot Inexplicably out of print for years it tells the tale of the dictator of an unnamed Latin American country who has been living the life of luxury in high society Paris When news reaches him of a coup at home he rushes back and crushes it with brutal military force But returning to Paris he is given a chilly welcome and learns that photographs of the atrocities have been circulating among his well to do friends Meanwhile World War One has broken out and another rebellion forces the dictator back across the ocean As he struggles with the Marxist forces beginning to find footing in his own country and Europe is devastated Carpentier constructs a masterful and biting satire of the new world order

Mourning El Dorado Charlotte Rogers,2019-06-13 What ever happened to the legend of El Dorado the tale of the mythical city of gold lost in the Amazon jungle Charlotte Rogers argues that El Dorado has not been forgotten and still inspires the reckless pursuit of illusory wealth The search for gold in South America during the colonial period inaugurated the promise of El Dorado the belief that wealth and happiness can be found in the tropical forests of the Americas That assumption has endured over the course of centuries still evident in the various modes of natural resource extraction such as oil drilling and mining that characterize the region today Mourning El Dorado looks at how fiction from the American tropics written since 1950 engages with the promise of El Dorado in the age of the Anthropocene Just as the golden kingdom was never found natural resource extraction has not produced wealth and happiness for the peoples of the tropics While extractivism enriches a few outsiders it results in environmental degradation and the subjugation displacement and forced assimilation of native peoples This book considers how the fiction of five writers Alejo Carpentier Wilson Harris Mario Vargas Llosa lvaro Mutis and Milton Hatoum criticizes extractive practices and mourns the lost illusion of the forest as a place of wealth and happiness

Distant Relation Eoin S. Thomson,2001-01-24 The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualization of distance that recognizes the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies Crossing the Mangrove Maryse Conde,2011-03-02 In this beautifully crafted Rashomon like novel Maryse Conde has written a gripping story imbued with all the nuances and traditions of Caribbean culture Francis Sancher a handsome outsider loved by some and reviled by others is found dead face down in the mud on a path outside Riviere au Sel a small village in Guadeloupe None of the villagers are particularly surprised since Sancher a secretive and melancholy man had often predicted an unnatural death for himself As the villagers come to pay their respects they each either in a speech to the mourners or in an internal monologue reveal another piece of the mystery behind Sancher's life and death Like pieces of an elaborate puzzle their memories interlock to create a rich and intriguing portrait of a man and a community In the lush and vivid prose for which she has become famous Conde has constructed a Guadeloupean wake for Francis Sancher Retaining the full color and vibrance of Conde's homeland Crossing the Mangrove pays homage to Guadeloupe in both subject and structure The Ends of Literature Brett Levinson,2001 The Ends of Literature analyzes the part played by literature within contemporary Latin American thought and politics above all the politics of neoliberalism The why of contemporary Latin American literature is the book's overarching concern Its wide range includes close readings of the prose of Cortázar Carpentier Paz Valenzuela Piglia and Las Casas of the relationship of the Boom movement and its aftermath of testimonial narrative and of contemporary Chilean and

Chicano film The work also investigates in detail various theoretical projects as they intersect with and emerge from Latin American scholarship cultural studies deconstruction psychoanalysis and postcolonial studies Latin American literature both as a vehicle of conservatism and as an agent of subversion is bound from its inception to the rise of the state Literature's nature role and status are therefore altered when the Latin American nation state succumbs to the process of neoliberalism as the too strong state dictatorship yields to the too weak state the market and as the various practices of civil society and public life are replaced by private or privatized endeavors However neither the end of literature nor the end of the state can be assumed The end of literature in Latin America is in fact the call for more literature it is the call of literature in particular that of the Boom The end of the state likewise is the demand upon this state The book then analyzes the ends in question as at once their purpose direction future and conclusion Also key to the study is the notion of transition Within much recent Latin American political discussion la transición refers to the passage from dictatorship to democracy as well as to the failure of this shift the failure of post dictatorship The author argues that the movement from literary to cultural studies while issuing from intellectual and aesthetic circles is an integral component of this same transition The thematization of the bind between these two displacements hence of Latin America's voyage into post transition forms a fundamental portion of the text
