Passing Of The Day:

The Day Will Pass Away Ivan Chistyakov, 2017-08-08 A rare first person testimony of the hardships of a Soviet labor camp long suppressed that will become a cornerstone of understanding the Soviet Union Originally written in a couple of humble exercise books which were anonymously donated to the Memorial Human Rights Centre in Moscow this remarkable diary is one of the few first person accounts to survive the sprawling Soviet prison system At the back of these exercise books there is a blurred snapshot and a note Chistyakov Ivan Petrovich repressed in 1937-38 Killed at the front in Tula Province in 1941 This is all that remains of Ivan Chistyakov a senior guard at the Baikal Amur Corrective Labour Camp Who was this lost man How did he end up in the gulag Though a guard he is a type of prisoner too We learn that he is a cultured and urbane ex city dweller with a secret nostalgia for pre Revolutionary Russia In this diary Chistyakov does not just record his life in the camp he narrates it He is a sharp eyed witness and a sympathetic humane and broken man From stumblingly poetic musings on the bitter landscape of the taiga to matter of fact grumbles about the inefficiency of his stove from accounts of the brutal conditions of the camp to reflections on the cruelty of loneliness this diary is an astonishing record a visceral and immediate description of a place and time whose repercussions still affect the shape of modern Russia and modern Europe Select

Letters Marcus Tullius Cicero, 1891 Give Us This Day Christopher Levan, 2007 Bread speaks to us of our daily reliance upon a Maker writes Christopher Levan Perhaps more than any other food it brings us close to our roots as fellow creatures of God's creation Bread is an apt metaphor for the spiritual journey Give Us This Day offers meditations for every day in Lent inviting us to connect faith our daily bread and the world in which we live along with recipes that range from Shrove Tuesday No Fret Pancakes to Easter Challah bread Each of the 40 meditations begins with a scripture verse and a prayer A collection of the public general statutes passed in the ... year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria Great Britain, 1844

No Average Day Rona Simmons, 2024-10-24 On Tuesday October 24 1944 nearly three years after the United States entered World War II over 2 600 Americans perished more than on any other single day of the conflict yet the day remains overshadowed by more widely remembered dates in WWII history Drawing from the accounts of men from diverse backgrounds who served in the U S Army Navy Marines and Air Corps Rona Simmons offers a gripping retelling of the fateful day hour by hour and incident by incident The book begins with Army Private First Class Paul Miller's demise in a prisoner of war camp and ends with the death of Navy Seaman Second Class Wanza E Matthews after the Japanese submarine I 56 attacked his ship off New Guinea The sinking of the Japanese hellship Arisan Maru a lesser known tragedy of the war looms large deftly interwoven through each part of the narrative Perhaps the most compelling aspect of No Average Day is its attention to the human side of conflict telling the stories of ordinary individuals clerks radio operators cooks sailors machinist mates riflemen and pilots and their air crews as they grapple with the horrors of the war Despite its narrow focus or perhaps because of it No Average Day reveals the vastness of World War II through a consideration of the largely overlooked events

The Day Is Now Far Spent Robert Sarah, Nicolas Diat, 2019-09-01 Robert Cardinal Sarah calls The Day Is Now Far Spent his most important book He analyzes the spiritual moral and political collapse of the Western world and concludes that the decadence of our time has all the faces of mortal peril A cultural identity crisis he writes is at the root of the problems facing Western societies The West no longer knows who it is because it no longer knows and does not want to know who made it who established it as it was and as it is Many countries today ignore their own history This self suffocation naturally leads to a decadence that opens the path to new barbaric civilizations While making clear the gravity of the present situation the cardinal demonstrates that it is possible to avoid the hell of a world without God a world without hope He calls for a renewal of devotion to Christ through prayer and the practice of virtue
