Passion And Affect:

Passion and Affect Laurie Colwin, 2014-11-18 The debut story collection from one of America's most beloved authors Laurie Colwin explores the mysteries of life and love with her signature blend of empathy, wisdom and wit in these fourteen exquisite tales In Animal Behavior an ornithologist and a doctoral student find their own mating habits to be just as inscrutable as those of their avian subjects In The Elite Viewer when his wife travels to England to attend a seminar Benno Moran searches for exotic ways to occupy his time He discovers television, junk food and Greenie Frenzel a young woman with Technicolor hair and an appetite for cherry soda and mentholated cigarettes Children, Dogs and Desperate Men is the story of Elizabeth Bayard a sensible music critic whose flirtation with a married cartographer is the latest in a series of romantic missteps as irrational as they are irresistible The heroes and heroines of Passion and Affect are clever, naive, brave, delicate and fickle In other words they are profoundly human and their precisely observed, warmly intelligent stories capture nothing less than what it means to be alive in the modern world This ebook features an illustrated biography of Laurie Colwin including rare photos and never before seen documents from the author's estate Impersonal Passion Denise Riley, 2005-04-08 Denise Riley is renowned as a feminist theorist and a poet and for her remarkable refiguring of familiar but intransigent problems of identity, expression, language and politics In Impersonal Passion she turns to everyday complex emotional and philosophical problems of speaking and listening Her provocative meditations suggest that while the emotional power of language is impersonal, this impersonality paradoxically constitutes the personal In nine linked essays Riley deftly unravels the rhetoric of life's absurdities and urgencies, its comforts and embarrassments, to insist on the forcible affect of language itself She teases out the emotional complexities of such quotidian matters as what she ironically terms the right to be lonely in the face of the imperative to be social or the guilt associated with feeling as if you're lying when you aren't Impersonal Passion reinvents questions from linguistics, the philosophy of language and cultural theory in an illuminating new idiom, the compelling emotion of the language of the everyday The Psychology of Passion Dr Robert J. Vallerand, 2015-05-01 Winner of the 2017 APA William James Book Award The concept of passion is one we regularly use to describe our interests and yet there is no broad theory that can explain the development and consequences of passion for activities across people's lives In The Psychology of Passion Robert J Vallerand presents the first such theory providing a complete presentation of the Dualistic Model of Passion and the empirical evidence that supports it Vallerand conceives of two types of passion: harmonious passion which remains under the person's control and obsessive passion which controls the person While the first typically leads to adaptive behaviors, the obsessive form of passion leads to less adaptive and at times maladaptive behaviors Vallerand highlights the effects of these two types of passion on a number of psychological phenomena such as cognition, emotions, performance, relationships, aggression and violence He also discusses the development of passion and reviews a range of literature on passion for activities PASSION AND AFFECT. LAURIE.

COLWIN,2024 A Partial Translation with Comments of "Passion and Affect" by Laurie Colwin Kathleen van den Steen,1992 Another Marvelous Thing Laurie Colwin,2014-11-18 Witty literate and intelligent linked stories that follow an extramarital affair from beginning to end by the author of Happy All the Time The New York Times Book Review Josephine Billy Delielle and Francis Clemens are sleeping together Both are economists and both are married to other people but the similarities end there He is fastidious she is a slob He delights in good food and fine wine her refrigerator is always empty He is old and sentimental she is young and tough minded This is not his first extramarital dalliance she never imagined it was possible to love anyone but her husband The desire that Billy and Francis feel for each other is as inexplicable as it is undeniable and the moments they steal together are electrifying tense and reassuring all at once Told from the alternating perspectives of two adulterous lovers Another Marvelous Thing is an exquisitely crafted story collection that tackles the thorniest of subjects with honesty grace and humor This ebook features an illustrated biography of Laurie Colwin including rare photos and never before seen documents from the author s estate Affects, Actions and Passions in Spinoza Chantal Jaquet,2019-08-07 A new analysis of the mind body relationship based on the philosophy of Spinoza It is widely recognised that Spinoza put an end to the Cartesian dualism of body and mind by thinking through the possibility of their unity Revisiting this generally accepted notion of psychophysical parallelism in Spinoza Chantal Jaquet offers a new analysis of the relation between body and mind Using an original methodology she analyses their unity in action through the affects that bring together a body s affection and the idea of this affection Looking at a range of Spinoza s texts Jaquet reveals that understanding affects actions and passions provides the key to how the mind and body are the same individual expressed in two different ways She presents the Spinozist model in all its complexity illuminating its potentialities for contemporary debates on the nature of the mind body problem Building Autonomous Learners Woon Chia Liu,John Chee Keng Wang,Richard M. Ryan,2015-09-29 This edited work presents a collection of papers on motivation research in education around the globe Pursuing a uniquely international approach it also features selected research studies conducted in Singapore under the auspices of the Motivation in Educational Research Lab National Institute of Education Singapore A total of 15 chapters include some of the latest findings on theory and practical applications alike prepared by internationally respected researchers in the field of motivation research in education Each author provides his her perspective and practical strategies on how to maximize motivation in the classroom Individual chapters focus on theoretical and practical considerations parental involvement teachers motivation ways to create a self motivating classroom use of ICT and nurturing a passion for learning The book will appeal to several different audiences firstly policymakers in education school leaders and teachers will find it a valuable resource Secondly it offers a helpful guide for researchers and teacher educators in pre service and postgraduate teacher education programmes And thirdly parents who want to help their children pursue lifelong learning will benefit from reading this book The Psychology of Passion Robert J. Vallerand,2015 In The Psychology of

Passion Robert J Vallerand provides a complete presentation of the Dualistic Model of Passion and reports on the empirical evidence supporting the theory Vallerand highlights the effects of two types of passion harmonious and obsessive on a number of psychological phenomena such as cognition emotions performance relationships aggression and violence

Handbook of Eudaimonic Well-Being Joar Vittersø,2016-10-18 This handbook presents the most comprehensive account of eudaimonic well being to date It brings together theoretical insights and empirical updates presented by leading scholars and young researchers The handbook examines philosophical and historical approaches to the study of happy lives and good societies and it critically looks at conceptual controversies related to eudaimonia and well being It identifies the elements of happiness in a variety of areas such as emotions health wisdom self determination internal motivation personal growth genetics work leisure heroism and many more It then places eudaimonic well being in the larger context of society addressing social elements The most remarkable outcome of the book is arguably its large scale relevance reminding us that the more we know about the good way of living the more we are in a position to build a society that can be supportive and offer opportunities for such a way of living for all of its citizens Affects, Actions and Passions in Spinoza Chantal Jaquet,2018-01-23 Revisiting the generally accepted notion of psycho physical parallelism in Spinoza Chantal Jaquet offers a new analysis of the relation between body and mind Looking at a range of Spinoza s texts and using an original methodology she analyses their unity in action through affects actions and passions Passion's Fictions from Shakespeare to Richardson Benedict S. Robinson,2021-05-27 Passion's Fictions traces the intimate links between literature and the sciences of mind and soul from the age of Shakespeare to the rise of the novel It chronicles the emergence of new sciences of the passions between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries and it argues that this history was shaped by rhetoric that contained the most extensively particularized discourse on the passions offering principles for moving and affecting the passions of others in concrete social scenes This rhetoric of the passions centered on narrative as the instrument of a non theoretical knowledge of the passions in their particularity predicated on an account of passion as an intimate relation between an impassioned mind and an impassioning world rhetoric offers a kind of externalist psychology formalized in the relation of passion to action and underwriting an account of narrative as a means of both moving passion and knowing it This volume describes the psychology of the passions before the discipline of psychology tracing the influence of rhetoric on theories of the passions from Francis Bacon to Adam Smith and using that history to read literary works by Shakespeare Milton Haywood Richardson and others Narrative offers a means of knowing and moving the passions by tracing them to the events and objects that generate them the history of narrative practices is thus a key part of the history of the psychology of the passions at a critical moment in its development Theory Driving Research: Dennis M. McInerney,Herbert Marsh,Rhonda G. Craven,Frédéric Guay,2013-06-01 Theory Driving Research New wave perspectives on self processes and human development provides a unique insight into self processes from varied theoretical perspectives The chapters in this volume develop avant garde theoretical ideas to drive future cutting edge empirical research and together in one collected volume make a valuable contribution to scholarly literature on self processes Among the themes covered are resurrecting the I self a re look at the dichotomy between the I self and the Me self based on James s analysis the actualization of human potential naturalizing and contextualizing the self hypo egoic states personal proficiency networks competition and performance relationships achievement motivations passion and optimal functioning in society competence and self worth threat new interpretations of expectancy value research methodological advances in BFLPE research and multilevel models of student achievement motivation This monograph the fourth in the International Advances in Self Research monograph series provides wealth of information on new theorizing and provides a platform for generating the next wave of research designed to understand the fundamental role self processes play in human development

Passion and Addiction in Sports and Exercise Attila Szabo,Zsolt Demetrovics,2022-06-07 Passion and Addiction in Sports and Exercise is about the bright and dark aspects of sports and exercise behavior and revolves around two closely related yet distinct concepts Passion is a joyful and healthy reflection of one s enjoyment and dedication to an adopted sport or exercise At the same time exercise addiction is an obligatory and must be done training regimen This book is the first to attempt to explain the significant differences between passion and addiction in sports and exercise as well as the relationship between the two This book presents an overview of three dimensions of passion and offers a new frame to contextualize exercise addition The work also addresses the misinterpretation of certain aspects of training e g intensity frequency and commitment often related to the risk of exercise addiction After introducing the health benefits of exercise the book looks at the passion for sports and exercise training and the transition into maladaptive practice Then it presents definitions and theoretical models for exercise addiction It then examines exercise addiction cases while also illustrating how excessive or high exercise volumes could be beneficial instead of problematic The last chapter offers a new approach for a better understanding of exercise addiction Passion and Addiction in Sports and Exercise is helpful for students researchers and clinicians interested in sport and exercise psychology athletic training behavioral addictions and physical education As well as being valuable reading for all regular exercisers and physically active individuals including athletes competing at various levels in different sport disciplines
