Passion For God Theology In Two Voices:

Passion for God Jürgen Moltmann, Elisabeth Moltmann-Wendel, 2003-01-01 Comprised of four lectures and two sermons Passion for God provides a unique look into the theological perspectives of renowned theologians Jürgen Moltmann and Elisabeth Moltmann-Wendel each a preeminent figure in the proliferation of contemporary theology in the twentieth century

Passions of the Christ F. Scott Spencer, 2021-05-04 Senior New Testament scholar F. Scott Spencer focuses on a neglected area in the study of Jesus and the Gospels: the emotional life of Jesus. This book offers a fresh reading of the Gospels through the lens of Jesus's emotions: anger, grief, disgust, surprise, compassion, and joy. These emotions motivate Jesus's mission and reveal to Gospel readers what matters most to him. Amid his passions, Jesus forges his character as God's incarnate Messiah, wholly embodied and emotionally engaged with others and thoroughly embedded in the surrounding environment.

Indwelling the Forsaken Other J. Matthew Bonzo, 2009-02-01 Indwelling the Forsaken Other is a critical reading of Jürgen Moltmann's ethics of discipleship. While Moltmann's notable turn to the inner life of the Trinity as a source for his reflections on the life of the church is influential, it is not without problems. The call emerging from Moltmann's reflection upon Trinitarian life to copy God in our relationships may offer some general direction for our actions; however, it also raises several questions. Two important questions for this work are: In what way are we to copy God? and What conditions make it possible to copy God? Moltmann's answers to these questions are insufficient, and consequently, he fails to protect the difference between Creator and creation in his analogia relationis. As a result, the ethical direction of Moltmann's work seems to be increasingly muddled and at best paradoxical.

God as Sacrificial Love
Asle Eikrem, 2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi layered and complex theological topic From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology creation trinity incarnation atonement sin faith sacraments and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today

Sounds of Hope
Robert Janacek, 2012-07-01 For a world so out of tune this treatise intends to correlate from various instruments of learning a new sound a sound of hope This sound will be heard as each truth from key areas of knowledge will be played in a synthesis of theology psychology and philosophy all in the context of a valid cosmology To listen and read the key concepts and predictions of the secular authorities our earth is either destined for a massive freeze or one ending in conflagration Thus the concern of the author is that all too often each area of study is playing its own sound and valid as it may be is not listening or seeing what could be if these sounds became part of a symphony In Sounds of Hope Robert N Janacek contends that when these sounds are truly heard and projected in our anticipated symphony a new and harmonious world will be enacted At a time when there are almost constant sounds of hate death and hopelessness a world awaits one for us to hear and attend as a new concert a concert playing a score of harmony and hope

published twice a year and is available in print and digital formats The Transformative Church Patrick Oden,2015-02-01 Throughout the course of his theological career Jürgen Moltmann has been interested in the ecclesial and societal consequences of systematic theology and what each doctrine means for our life in this world The Transformative Church explores these concerns in Moltmann's major texts and highlighting themes relevant for a transformative ecclesiology Patrick Oden constructs a substantive transformative ecclesiology embedded in this world we are to become in the church who we are to be in this world whole in Christ so as to be a messianic people in any context Good Is the Flesh Jean Margaret Denton,2005 The Mother Heart of God Trudy Beyak,2013-04-23 In this age of chaos God gives courage and comfort Trudy Beyak an award winning journalist interviewed 50 global leaders of faith Ruth Graham Dr Francis Collins Danae Dobson Dr Raymond Damadian the MRI inventor the Vatican Paul Young Gary Chapman and many others about the nature of God They reveal fascinating new insights When no one cares and you feel all alone the maternal mercy of God comforts your soul as a mother comforts a precious loved one Ruth Graham explains When God created men and women to be like him women are half the picture What a gift then it is to be a mother The maternal instinct to nurture others corresponds to the nature of God as our Comforter Women no longer need ask Dear Lord Who am I Discover 50 exclusive interviews that will transform a woman's life and men as well And there's more The Mother Heart of God is a journalist's compelling spiritual journey a personal invitation to every man and woman to experience the love of God that brings hope and healing to every soul The Annihilation of Hell Nik Ansell,2013-10-01 For Jürgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfillment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature-grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honor human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalize our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorizing of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and Hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the center of theology but at the heart of life itself Love, Violence, and the Cross Gregory Anderson Love,2010-08-01 Does God use violence to redeem us What is the relationship between divine love and violence in regard to the saving significance of the cross of Christ In Love Violence and the Cross Gregory Love dialogues with two responses to this question while presenting a third alternative in which Jesus's death is simultaneously a crime and an element of God's saving actions Through familiar stories in history literature and film Love presents five constructive models that cumulatively affirm God's saving act in the person and work of Christ while letting go the myth of redemptive violence. They affirm redemption but one with a different shape. Instead of exacting the absolute punishment God redeems by making good God's promise to humanity to secure human life. Love argues that God is nonviolent while retaining the core idea presented in the New Testament witnesses that reconciliation occurs in the work of Christ and that the cross plays a role in that divine work.

Trinitarian Theology and Power Relations M. Minister, 2014-11-06 This text crafts a trinitarian theology that reorients theology from presumptions about the immateriality of the Trinity toward the places where the Trinity matters: material bodies in historical contexts and the intersecting ways political and theological power structures normalize and marginalize bodies on the basis of material difference.

Practicing Faith Lisa Spriggins, Tim Meadowcroft, 2022-05-17 The integration of theology and social vocation invites scholars and practitioners to reach outside their discipline and into relationship with others. Out of these relationships new ways of enacting faith and informing practice can emerge. This book brings together a collection of essays engaging with the integration of theology and social vocation. Designed to reflect and invite dialogue, these authors engage with the relationship between faith and practice as it is expressed in their own area of interest and speciality. Arranged in five themed dialogues: wellbeing, formation, hospitality, therapy, and theology, each essay reflects the unique dynamics of its author's integrative process and offers something new to the ongoing conversation between theology and social vocation. This set of essays will be of interest to practitioners and students concerned to infuse their faith with their practice of vocation to develop a practicing faith.

The Hidden Power of Watching and Praying Mahesh Chavda, Bonnie Chavda, 2011-07-28 Much of today's church is powerless because it's prayerless. Prayer is the single most important ministry of the church, yet much of the church today is powerless because it is prayerless. The Lord has issued a renewed call to corporate fasting and intercessory prayer for the deliverance and healing of the nations in preparation for His return. Such a call requires sacrifice: complete surrender to Christ, dogged willingness to engage the enemy on the field of battle. Answering this call to battle is not for the faint of heart but for those who truly want to make a difference for the Kingdom of God in their world. Jesus said to them: "It is written, 'My house will be called a place for praying.'" Matthew 21:13. Great Book Learn how you can access and demonstrate The Hidden Power of Watching and Praying. Your prayer life will never be the same as you are strengthened with the power of God as you pray.

The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell, 2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jürgen Moltmann's model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time. For Jürgen Moltmann, Hell is the nemesis of Hope. The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into

Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zinzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature-grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself
