Passion For Identity An Introduction To Canadian Studies:

A Passion for Identity David Taras, Beverly Jean Rasporich, Eli Mandel, 1993      Canadian Studies in the New Millennium Mark J. Kasoff, Patrick James, 2013-01-01 This popular textbook offers a thorough and accessible approach to Canadian Studies through comparative analyses of Canada and the United States their histories geographies political systems economies and cultures Students and professors alike acknowledge it as an ideal tool for understanding the close relationship between the two countries their shared experiences and their differing views on a range of issues Fully revised and updated the second edition of Canadian Studies in the New Millennium includes new chapters on Demography and Immigration Policy the Environment and Civil Society and Social Policy all written by leading scholars and educators in the field At a time in which there is a growing mutual dependence between the US and Canada for security trade and investment Canadian Studies in the New Millennium will continue to be a valuable resource for students educators and practitioners on both sides of the border

Studies in Canadian English Adam Bednarek, 2009-10-02 This publication focuses on vocabulary which reflects unique Canadian traits elements that share not only a Canadian origin but also reference to everyday contexts present on both the micro and macro stage The conducted study aimed to show variation on the lexical level which may result from a fluid sense of national identity The Toronto region due to its extensive multi cultural and multi ethnic background bears a sense of diversity both on the social and linguistic ground The conducted study involved the distribution of questionnaires which tested speakers knowledge of Canadian register their ability of using them in the context of everyday discourse and the identification of items Furthermore the author had obtained two years worth of texts from the Toronto Sun which enabled the observation of Canadianisms within the written medium of a media context The resulting data formed a database labeled by the author as the LCTES Lodz Corpus for Toronto English Study

Canadian Studies in the New Millennium Patrick James, Mark J. Kasoff, 2007-11-26 The field of Canadian Studies is a growing discipline particularly in the United States This introductory text offers a thorough and accessible approach to Canadian Studies through comparative analyses of Canada and the United States their histories geographies political systems economies and cultures Among the topics addressed are ways in which Canadian national development has been influenced by the U S the role of geography in shaping the country s evolution and the persistent question of Canada s French speaking minority which has been an important and divisive issue since the 1500s Canadian Studies in the New Millennium is an excellent introduction to Canadian Studies with chapters written by leading scholars and educators in the field At a time in which there is a growing mutual dependence between the U S and Canada for security trade and investment this text is an ideal tool for understanding the close relationship between the two countries their shared experiences and their differing views Canadian Studies in the New Millennium will be of significant value to students educators and practitioners

New Contexts of Canadian Criticism Ajay Heble, Donna Palmateer Pennee, J.R. Struthers, 1997-04-18 Times change lives change and the terms we need to describe our literature or society or condition what Raymond Williams calls keywords change with them Perhaps the most significant development in the quarter century since Eli Mandel edited his anthology Contexts of Canadian Criticism has been the growing recognition that not only do different people need different terms but the same terms have different meanings for different people and in different contexts Nation history culture art identity the positions we take discussing these and other issues can lead to conflict but also hold the promise of a new sort of community Speaking of First Nations people and their literature Beth Brant observes that Our connections are like the threads of a weaving While the colour and beauty of each thread is unique and important together they make a communal material of strength and durability New Contexts of Canadian Criticism is designed to be read to work in much the same manner Un-writing Interculturality in Education and Research Fred Dervin, Hamza R'boul, 2024-12-16 This highly original and stimulating edited volume focuses on ways of un writing the polysemous controversial and highly political notion of interculturality in research and education The authors argue that no critical perspective on interculturality can do without revising exploring and creating ways of engaging with different and potentially new aspects and forms of inquiry of the notion in writing They also claim that un writing interculturality can serve an emancipatory function towards an epistemic re appraisal of the mainstream s and the dominant s While critiquing problematic perspectives as well as the taken for granted and things as usual within interculturality scholarship writing about interculturality is epistemically significant and indicative of change in the ways the notion is used Each chapter reflects on how to un write un do and un learn interculturality in research and aims to provide some answers to the following questions What could un writing interculturality mean What are the pros and cons of un writing in research on intercultural communication education and How does constant work on languaging around interculturality contribute to enriching the notion globally The book is aimed at students and scholars who wish to push the boundaries of scholarly engagement with interculturality especially in relation to their modalities of writing reasoning and critiquing Health, Wealth, and Power in an African Diaspora Church in Canada T. Aechtner, 2015-03-24 This book investigates an African diaspora Christian community in Calgary Alberta and explores the ways in which the church s beliefs and practices impact the lives of its migrant congregation In particular it reveals the church s pronounced concern with the utility of the Prosperity Gospel and Holy Spirit Power Once and Future Canadian Democracy Janet Ajzenstat, 2003 Annotation An inspiring case for parliamentary democracy and a sympathetic exploration of current discontents Shaped by the West Wind Claire Elizabeth Campbell, 2005 Claire Campbell draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket Northern Spirits Robert C. Sibley, 2008-02-08 The recovery of Watson s thought is particularly valuable Sibley shows that Watson an internationally respected philosopher in the early twentieth century discussed idealism and support for imperialism in ways that are particularly relevant in our new age of empire A consideration of Grant's relationship to Hegel illuminates what led Grant to declare that Canada was impossible in the age of technology Sibley's comparison of Grant and Trudeau is both unexpected and intriguing So too is his analysis of the illiberal strands in Taylor's politics of recognition

Sport and Migration Joseph Maguire, Mark Falgout, 2010-10-18 From Major League Baseball to English soccer's Premier League all successful contemporary professional sports leagues include a wide diversity of nationalities and ethnicities within their playing and coaching rosters The international migration of sporting talent and labor encouraged and facilitated by the social and economic undercurrents of globalization mean that world sport is now an important case study for any student or researcher with an interest in international labor flows economic migration global demography or the interdependent world economy In this dazzling collection of papers leading international sport studies scholars chart the patterns policies and personal experiences of labour migration within and around sport and in doing so cast important new light both on the forces shaping modern sport and on the role that sport plays in shaping the world economy and global society Presenting original case studies of sports from European and African soccer to Japanese baseball to rugby union in New Zealand the book makes an important contribution to our understanding of a wide range of issues within contemporary social science such as national identity politics economic structure and organization north south relations imperial legacies and gender relations This book is invaluable reading for students and researchers working in sport studies human geography economics or international business

Reel Time Robert Morris Seiler, Tamara Palmer Seiler, 2013 In this authoritative work Seiler and Seiler argues that the establishment and development of moviegoing and movie exhibition in Prairie Canada is best understood in the context of changing late nineteenth century and early twentieth century social economic and technological developments From the first entrepreneurs who attempted to lure customers in to movie exhibition halls to the digital revolution and its impact on moviegoing Reel Time highlights the pivotal role of amusement venues in shaping the leisure activities of working and middle class people across North America

The Identities of Marie Rose Delorme Smith Doris Jeanne MacKinnon, 2012 Marie Rose Delorme Smith was a woman of French Métis ancestry who was born during the fur trade era and who spent her adult years as a pioneer rancher in the Pincher Creek district of southern Alberta The Identities of Marie Rose Delorme Smith examines how Marie Rose negotiates her identities as mother boarding house owner homesteader medicine woman midwife and writer during the changing environment of the western plains during the late nineteenth century

North of Everything William Beard, Jerry White, 2002-06 This is the first book to comprehensively examine the development of English Canadian cinema since 1980 previous books in English have dealt either with specific films or filmmakers with policy or with specific genres avant garde film documentary films by women etc It deals with regional and institutional questions with the new authors that are defining contemporary cinema in English Canada with avant garde work and work by Aboriginal people Bringing together a wide variety of contributors the book deals with an enormous amount of cinema that has helped transform North American culture of the last two decades

Racial, Ethnic, Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings Andreea Topor-Constantin, 2013-07-26
Racial Ethnic Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence s Writings is a study on Canada Canadian literature and Margaret Laurence s works in particular thus addressing various kinds of readership This book avoids the danger of limiting the approach to solely focusing attention on Canada by presenting a thorough analysis of various literary genres allowing the book to be of interest to all literature lovers Furthermore the book explores the parallelism between life and fiction emphasising Laurence s biographic and realist elements and their influence on the writer s fictional writing revealing real and imaginary worlds which would appeal to anybody s literary needs This major contribution to the already existent criticism of Margaret Laurence s works lies in the analysis of her work as an entity balancing both terms of the common binary oppositions fiction versus non fiction Africa versus Canada white versus Black or Metis In spite of critical comments which might be raised Andreea Topor Constantin comments on how the voice of the marginal makes itself heard throughout the author s books underlying Laurence s emphasis on characterisation and her genuine concern for people This book covers all aspects of Laurence s life and fiction from the African to the writer s Canadian background from adults to children s literature from novels to short stories from essays to letters in order to challenge readers perceptions of race ethnicity gender and class

Louis Riel and the Creation of Modern Canada Jennifer Reid, 2008 Jennifer Reid looks at the man known today as the founder of Manitoba Not just a traditional biography Reid examines Riel s education and religious beliefs book jacket

The Politics of Art, 2022-06-08

Next-Generation Memory and Ukrainian Canadian Children's Historical Fiction Mateusz Świetlicki, 2023-03-24 This is the first book monograph devoted to Anglophone Ukrainian Canadian children s historical fiction published between 1991 and 2021 It consists of five chapters offering cross sectional and interdisciplinary readings of 41 books novels novellas picturebooks short stories and a graphic novel The first three chapters focus on texts about the complex process of becoming Ukrainian Canadian showcasing the experiences of the first two waves of Ukrainian immigration to Canada including encounters with Indigenous Peoples and the First World War Internment The last two chapters are devoted to the significance of the cultural memory of the Holodomor the Great Famine of 1932 1933 and the Second World War for Ukrainian Canadians All the chapters demonstrate the entanglements of Ukrainian and Canadian history and point to the role Anglophone children s literature can play in preventing the symbolical seeds of memory from withering This volume argues that reading imagining and reimagining history can lead to the formation of beyond textual next generation memory Such memory created through reading is multidimensional as it involves the interpretation of both the present and the past by an individual whose reality has been directly or indirectly shaped by the past over which they have no influence Next generation memory is of anticipatory character which means that authors of historical fiction anticipate the readers both present day and future not to have direct links to any witnesses of the events they discuss and to have little knowledge of the transcultural character of the Ukrainian Canadian diaspora     Icon, Brand, Myth Maxwell Foran,Max Foran,2008 This book investigates the meanings and iconography of the Stampede an invented tradition that takes over the city of Calgary for ten days every July Since 1912 archetypal Cowboys and Indians are seen again at the chuckwagon races on the midway and throughout Calgary Each essay in this collection examines a facet of the experience from the images on advertising posters to the ritual of the annual parade This study of the Calgary Stampede as a social phenomenon reveals the history and sociology of the city of Calgary and a component of the social construction of identity for western Canada as a whole
