a living word crying out for reinterpretation as life takes new shape and expression Reinterpreting the Gospel was particularly compelling for Matthew s church because his Christians lived in a time of profound transition The Passion of Jesus then was not simply a story of suffering out of the past but a point of identification for the Christians of Matthew s own time For us twentieth century Christians who also know the peculiar suffering and hope of living in an age that is both dying and being born the Passion of Jesus according to Matthew has special meaning History of the Passion: the Gospel narrative, with notes Arthur Devine,1890 The Twelve Passion Gospels Holy Trinity Monastery,1996 During the Orthodox celebration of Holy Week the Church relives the arrest trial sufferings and crucifixion of Jesus Christ On Matins of Holy Friday commonly served on the evening of Holy Thursday there is a special service where the passion of Christ s sufferings in the Garden of Gethsemane His Trial and Crucifixion through all four Gospels is read aloud in church This book provides the English text for those twelve Passion Gospel readings The Old Testament in the Gospel Passion Narratives Douglas J.

Moo,2008-03-25 Why Are There Differences in the Gospels? Michael R. Licona,2016-11-17 Anyone who reads the Gospels carefully will notice that there are differences in the manner in which they report the same events These differences have led many conservative Christians to resort to harmonization efforts that are often quite strained sometimes to the point of absurdity Many people have concluded the Gospels are hopelessly contradictory and therefore historically unreliable as accounts of Jesus The majority of New Testament scholars now hold that most if not all of the Gospels belong to the genre of Greco Roman biography and that this genre permitted some flexibility in the way in which historical events were narrated However few scholars have undertaken a robust discussion of how this plays out in Gospel pericopes self contained passages Why Are There Differences in the Gospels provides a fresh approach to the question by examining the works of Plutarch a Greek essayist who lived in the first and second centuries CE Michael R Licona discovers three dozen pericopes narrated two or more times in Plutarch s Lives identifies differences between the accounts and analyzes these differences in light of compositional devices identified by classical scholars as commonly employed by ancient authors The book then applies the same approach to nineteen pericopes that are narrated in two or more Gospels demonstrating that the major differences found there likely result from the same compositional devices employed by Plutarch Showing both the strained harmonizations and the hasty dismissals of the Gospels as reliable accounts to be misguided Licona invites readers to approach them in light of their biographical genre and in that way to gain a clearer understanding of why they differ St. Matthew Passion Hans Blumenberg, 2021-11-15 St Matthew Passion is Hans Blumenberg's sustained and devastating meditation on Jesus's anguished cry on the cross My God my God why have you forsaken me Why did this abandonment happen what does it mean within the logic of the Gospels how have believers and nonbelievers understood it and how does it live on in art With rare philological acuity and vast historical learning Blumenberg unfolds context upon context in which this cry has reverberated from early Christian apologetics and heretics to twentieth century literature and philosophy Blumenberg's guide through this unending story of divine abandonment is Johann Sebastian Bach's monumental Matth uspassion the parabolic mirror that bundled eighteen hundred years of reflection on the fate of the crucified and the only available medium that allows us post Christian listeners to feel the anguish of those who witnessed the events of the Passion With interspersed references to writers such as Goethe Rilke Kafka Freud and Benjamin Blumenberg gathers evidence to raise the singular question that in his view Christian theology has not been able to answer How can an omnipotent God be so offended by his creatures that he must sacrifice and abandon his own Son Annotations and Meditations on the Gospels: The infancy narratives Jerónimo Nadal (S.I.), 2003 CD ROM accompanying vol 1 contains high resolution scans of all 153 engravings of Gospel episodes from the 1607 edition of Nadal's Annotations and Meditations on the Gospels v 1 p ix
