Passion In Secret Modern Romance 217:

The Omnibus of Modern Romance ,1844 The Secret Language of Love Megan Tresidder,2003-12 The Secret Language of Love is an evocative richly illustrated glimpse into the mysterious phenomenon called love Excerpts from love poetry and literature illuminate the enigma of romance heartbreak and physical attraction 200 illustrations Modern Moral Philosophy Stephen Darwall,2023-06-15 A panoramic book by a leading moral philosopher with significant things to say about developments in modern moral philosophy Estella's Husband May Agnes Fleming,1869 The Reformation of Feeling Susan C. Karant-Nunn,2012-10-18 Susan Karant Nunn argues that the 16th century Reformation movement sought not only to modify people s doctrinal convictions and their behavior but to root these changes in altered sentiment Losing the Plot Pardis Dabashi,2023-11-06 An examination of the relationship between literature and classical Hollywood cinema reveals a profound longing for plot in modernist fiction The modernist novel sought to escape what Virginia Woolf called the tyranny of plot Yet even as twentieth century writers pushed against the constraints of plot driven Victorian novels plot kept its hold on them through the influence of another medium the cinema Focusing on the novels of Nella Larsen Djuna Barnes and William Faulkner writers known for their affinities and connections to classical Hollywood Pardis Dabashi links the moviegoing practices of these writers to the tensions between the formal properties of their novels and the characters in them Even when they did not feature outright happy endings classical Hollywood films often provided satisfying formal resolutions and promoted normative social and political values Watching these films modernist authors were reminded of what they were leaving behind both formally and in the name of aesthetic experimentalism by losing the plot Passionate Discontent Patricia Mathews,1999 Art historian Patricia Mathews examines the artistic social and scientific discourses of fin de siecle France Along the way she illuminates the Symbolist construction of a feminized aesthetic that nonetheless excluded female artists from its realm She analyzes contemporary cultural assumptions as well as theories such as social Darwinism biological determinism and degeneracy BOOK JACKET Comfort ,1906 Modern Trotting Sire Lines John Bradley,1997 Dick Sand Jules Verne,1878 Dick Sand Or A Captain at Fifteen by Jules Verne first published in 1878 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it Who's Afraid of Modern Art? Daniel A. Siedell,2015-01-07 Modern art can be confusing and intimidating even ugly and blasphemous And yet curator and art critic Daniel A Siedell finds something else something much deeper that resonates with the human experience With over thirty essays on such diverse artists as Andy Warhol Thomas Kinkade Diego Velazquez Robyn O Neil Claudia Alvarez and Andrei Rublev Siedell offers a highly personal approach to modern art that is informed by nearly twenty years of experience as a museum curator art historian and educator Siedell combines his experience in the contemporary art world with a theological perspective that serves to deepen the experience of art allowing the work of art to work as art and not covert philosophy or theology or visual illustrations of ideas meanings and worldviews Who's Afraid of Modern Art celebrates the surprising beauty of art that emerges from and embraces pain and suffering if only we take the time to listen Indeed as Siedell reveals a painting is much more than meets the eye So who's afraid of modern art Siedell's answer might surprise you God, Education, and Modern Metaphysics Nigel Tubbs, 2017-05-12 The Western tradition has long held the view that while it is possible to know that God exists it nevertheless remains impossible to know what God is The ineffability of the monotheistic God extends to each of the Abrahamic faiths In this volume Tubbs considers Aristotle's logic of mastery and questions the assumptions upon which God's ineffability rests Part I explores the tensions between the philosophical definition of the One as thought thinking itself the Aristotelian concept of noesis noeseos and the educational vocation of the individual as know thyself gnothi seuton Identifying vulnerabilities in the logic of mastery Tubbs puts forth an original logic of education which he calls modern metaphysics or a logic of learning and education Part II explores this new educational logic of the divine as a logic of tears as a dreadful religious teacher and as a way to cohere the three Abrahamic faiths in an educational concept of monotheism

Neoclassical Satire and the Romantic School 1780-1830 Rolf P. Lessenich, 2012 Romanticism was not only heterogeneous and disunited It also had to face the hostile counter movement of the Enlightenment and Augustan Neoclassicism still going strong at the time of and in the decades following the French Revolution due to support from the ruling Establishment the ancien regime of the Crown and Church of England Neoclassicists regarded Romanticism as a heteretical amalgam of dissenting new schools which threatened the monopoly of the Classical Tradition The acrimonious debates in aesthetics and politics were conducted with the traditional strategies of the classical ars disputandi on both sides Under the duress of the heaviest satirical attacks Romanticism began gradually to see itself as one movement giving rise to the problematic opposition of Classical and Romantic The construction of this rough divide however was indispensable for the clarification of different positions in the hubbub of conflicting voices and has also proved critical in literary and cultural studies which cannot do without such subsumptions The Classical Tradition encompassing Christianity emerges as an ongoing event from Greek and Latin antiquity running through to our time The Golden Rule, 1848 The Smart Set George Jean Nathan, Henry Louis Mencken, 1926 Works Voltaire, 1901 The Passionate Jesus Peter Wallace, Peter M. Wallace, 2012 A fresh and moving portrait of Jesus as a model for how to live more authentic honest and meaningful lives by fully experiencing our emotions in the love of God Many depictions of Jesus show him as a character who coolly and calmly floats above the grit and grime of human existence He doesn't hurt he doesn't fear he doesn't laugh and most tragically he doesn't love very passionately He seems not to feel at all But a closer look at the Bible reveals something surprisingly different In this eye opening spiritual study Peter Wallace examines Jesus s actions rather than just his teachings to uncover a passionate figure who was involved present connected honest and direct with others He was one who was deeply moved as the writer of John s gospel put it one who knew and embodied the emotions he felt and expressed them in honest clear and life giving ways Through Wallace s deeply personal insights and compelling stories and examples you will be encouraged to model this passionate Jesus by building personal authenticity in every area of your own life particularly in your self acceptance and self expression your relationships with others and above all your relationship with God Beyond

Spectacle Juliette Merritt,2004-01-01 Theories of sight and spectatorship captivated many writers and philosophers of the eighteenth century and in turn helped to define both sexual politics and gender identity Eliza Haywood was thoroughly engaged in the social philosophical and political issues of her time and she wrote prolifically about them producing over seventy five works of literature plays novels and pamphlets during her lifetime Examining a number of works from this prodigious canon Juliette Merritt focuses on Haywood s consideration of the myriad issues surrounding sight and seeing and argues that Haywood explored strategies to undermine the conventional male spectator female spectacle structure of looking Combining close readings of Haywood s work with twentieth century debates among feminist and psychoanalytic theorists concerning the visual dynamics of identity and gender formation Merritt explores insights into how the gaze operates socially epistemologically and ontologically in Haywood s writing ultimately concluding that Haywood s own strategy as an author involved appropriating the spectator position as a means of exercising female power Beyond Spectacle will cement Haywood s deservedly prominent place in the canon of eighteenth century fiction and position her as a writer whose work speaks not only to female agency but to eighteenth century writers gender relations and power politics as well Visions of Order in William Gilmore Simms Masahiro Nakamura,2009 One of nineteenth century America s foremost men of letters William Gilmore Simms 1806 1870 of Charleston South Carolina distinguished himself as a historian poet and novelist yet his stalwart allegiance to the ideals of the Confederacy have kept him largely marginalized from the modern literary canon In this engaging study Masahiro Nakamura seeks to reinsert Simms in current American literary and cultural studies through a careful consideration of Simms s southern conservatism as a valuable literary counterpoint to the bourgeois individualist ideology of his northern contemporaries For Nakamura Simms s vision of social order runs contrary to the staunch individualism expressed in traditional American romances by authors such as James Fenimore Cooper and Nathaniel Hawthorne In his thoughtful approaches to Simms s historical depictions of the making of American history and society Nakamura finds consistent assertions of social order against the perils of literal and metaphoric wilderness a conservative vision that he traces to the influence of Simms s southern genius loci To understand how this southern conservatism also manifests itself in Simms s fiction Nakamura contrasts Simms s historical romances with those of Hawthorne as representative of the New England romance tradition to differentiate the ways in which the two writers interpret the dynamic between the individual and society Nakamura finds that Simms s protagonists struggle to establish their places within their culture while Hawthorne s characters are often at odds with their culture The resulting comparison enriches our understanding of both writers The Making of Modern Subjects Sung Un Gang,2024-06-04 In the early 20th century Korean women began to manifest themselves in the public sphere Sung Un Gang explores how the women s gaze was reimagined in public discourse as they attended plays and movies delving into the complex negotiation process surrounding women s public presence In this first extensive study of Korean female spectators in the colonial era he analyzes newspapers magazines fictions and images arguing that public discourse aimed to mold them into a male driven and top down modernization project Through a meticulous examination of historical sources this study reconceptualizes colonial Korean female spectators as diverse active agents with their own politics who played a crucial role in shaping colonial publicness
