Romantic Revolutionary Robert Harvey,2011-04-21 Simon Bolivar was the archetypal romantic revolutionary Born into privilege and nurtured in the Rousseau s philosophy of the Homme Sauvage it was not until the young colonial visited Europe that the taper of revolution was lit that sent the young man on a death defying quest to fight for the people of his homeland and eventually liberate the whole of continental South America Bolivar s struggle for liberty is a story of extraordinary courage and fortune Since the age of the Conquistadores South America was controlled from Spain with an iron grip The Spanish army brutalised the people while the wealth of the continent was shipped away to Europe In 1807 he returned to Caracas and joined the resistance movement declaring independence for Venezuela four years later He soon gave up politics however to search for a military solution devising the Decree of War until Death in July 1813 and claiming the title El Liberador Yet once again after initial victories he found himself fleeing for his life His final campaign from 1817 to 1821 saw the eventual liberation of Venezuela Columbia Equador and Panama He continued his commitment to liberty with the subsequent conquest of Peru In 1825 the new nation of Bolivia was created in the spirit that had driven Bolivar himself to achieve so much revolutionary zeal and enlightenment principles Nonetheless by 1828 Bolivar had declared himself a dictator After assassination attempts and uprisings the liberator was finally hounded from office and eventually died as he waited to go into exile in Europe Bestselling author of The War of Wars Robert Harvey bring a lifetime s fascination into Bolivar and explores the complex personality behind the revolutionary He vividly recreates the story of the campaigns and draws a panoramic portrait of South America at the turning of the Spanish Empire tumultuous terrain of passion where love and pain intertwine in an exquisite dance The Flame of Love delves into the depths of this enigmatic emotion exploring its origins its manifestations and its profound impact on our lives From the initial spark of attraction to the enduring flame of commitment passion is a journey that is both exhilarating and challenging It has the power to transform us to make us feel alive in a way that nothing else can But it can also be a double edged sword leading to heartbreak and pain In this thought provoking exploration we will uncover the delicate balance between passion and pain and the strategies for cultivating and maintaining passion in long term relationships We will trace the evolution of passion over time examining the role of communication trust and vulnerability in maintaining its intensity We will also delve into the cultural significance of passion exploring its role in literature art and music We will examine the ways in which passion has shaped our cultural norms and values and the role it plays in driving social change Ultimately The Flame of Love is a celebration of this powerful emotion a testament to its ability to illuminate our lives and give them meaning It is a book that will resonate with anyone who has ever experienced the ecstasy and the agony of passion and who longs to understand this enigmatic force that shapes our lives If you like this book write a review on google books With Love Arcelia

Watson,2012-10-27 It has been a joy to write this memoir as a legacy for my son Dennis and my daughter Susan and my grandchildren and great grandchildren I have fantastic family and friends I retired after 54 years as a public school teacher I loved teaching eighthgraders I feel that my students have given me more than I gave them I have spent my years searching and growing and always trying to be a responsible person I am living a charmed life In my journey I have dealt with negatives such as alcoholism divorce death codependency and Alzheimer s I am a child of an alcoholic I married and divorced an alcoholic I was a codependent Alzheimer s is one of the cruelest diseases there is The disease erased all that made my mom a unique human being I hope my story can inspire Sports have given me much pleasure I love football basketball IRL racing and NASCAR My favorites are the Green Bay Packers the Illini Dan Wheldon Danica Patrick Brett Favre Jeff Gordon and Jimmie Johnson Traveling has been the most invigorating experience for me as I have traveled the US and the world It was so neat to walk the Great Wall of China I am living a very passionate positive and fulfilling life It is not my age that defines me it is what I do with my life With love my name is Arcelia Modern Romance Aziz Ansari,Eric Klinenberg,2016-06-14 The 1 New York Times Bestseller An engaging look at the often head scratching frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives Refinery 29 A hilarious thoughtful and in depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari the star of Master of None and one of this generation s sharpest comedic voices At some point every one of us embarks on a journey to find love We meet people date get into and out of relationships all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection This seems standard now but it s wildly different from what people did even just decades ago Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history With technology our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering So why are so many people frustrated Some of our problems are unique to our time Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods Combos My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan Who s Nathan Did he just send her a photo of his penis Should I check just to be sure But the transformation of our romantic lives can t be explained by technology alone In a short period of time the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically A few decades ago people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood Their families would meet and after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer they would get married and soon have a kid all by the time they were twenty four Today people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person a soul mate For years Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance but for Modern Romance the book he decided he needed to take things to another level He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit which drew thousands of messages They enlisted the world s leading social scientists including Andrew Cherlin Eli Finkel Helen Fisher Sheena Iyengar Barry Schwartz Sherry Turkle and Robb Willer The result is unlike any social science or humor book we ve seen before In Modern Romance Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world

Love Disconsolated Timothy P. Jackson, 1999-11-25 Few concepts are more central to ethics than love but none is more subject to false consolation This 1999 book explores several theological philosophical and literary accounts of love focusing on how it relates to matters such as self interest and self sacrifice and invulnerability and immortality Timothy Jackson first considers key aspects of what the Bible says about love then he further examines the meaning of love and sacrifice through a close reading of novels by Fitzgerald and Hemingway Lastly he evaluates how love constrains and is constrained by other traditional moral concepts Throughout Jackson defends the moral priority of what the Christian tradition calls agape He argues that a proper understanding of agapic love rejects both moral relativism and the comfort of believing that good people cannot be harmed or that God causally necessitates every historical action and event When love is thus disconsolated it neither fears death nor despises life

Mistress to an Age J. Christopher Herold, 2002 J Christopher Herold vigorously tells the story of the fierce Madame de Stael revealing her courageous opposition to Napoleon her whirlwind affairs with the great intellectuals of her day and her idealistic rebellion against all that was cynical tyrannical and passionless Germaine de Stael s father was Jacques Necker the finance minister to Louis XVI and her mother ran an influential literary political salon in Paris Always precocious at nineteen Germaine married the Swedish ambassador to France Eric Magnus Baron de Stael Holstein and in 1785 took over her mother s salon with great success Germaine and de Stael lived most of their married life apart She had many brilliant lovers Talleyrand was the first Narbonne the minister of war another Benjamin Constant was her most significant and long lasting one She published several political and literary essays including A Treatise on the Influence of the Passions upon the Happiness of Individuals and of Nations which became one of the most important documents of European Romanticism Her bold philosophical ideas particularly those in On Literature caused feverish commotion in France and were quickly noticed by Napoleon who saw her salon as a rallying point for the opposition He eventually exiled her from France This winner of the 1959 National Book Award is excellent detailed full of color movement great names and lively incident The New York Times Mr Herold s full bodied biography is clear eyed intelligent and written with abundant wit and zest The Atlantic Monthly Main Currents in Nineteenth Century Literature: The emigrant literature.- 2.
