Passion and Craft Bonnie Lyons,Bill Oliver,1998 Collection of interviews with 12 contemporary fiction writers

Conversations with Beth Henley Jackson R. Bryer,Mary C. Hartig,2023-03-24 With roots in the American South Beth Henley b 1952 has for four decades been a working playwright and screenwriter Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1981 at the age of twenty eight Henley so far has written twenty five produced plays that are always original usually darkly comic and often experimental In these interviews Henley speaks of the plays from her early crowd pleasers Crimes of the Heart and The Miss Firecracker Contest to her more experimental plays including The Debutante Ball and Control Freaks to her brilliant and time bending play The Jacksonian Henley is a master at writing about the duality of human experience the beautiful and the grotesque the cruel and the loving This duality provokes in Henley both amazement and compassion She discusses here not only her admiration for Chekhov and other influences but also her process of bringing a play from notebooks of images and bits of dialogues through rumination writing and rewriting to rehearsals and previews The interviews range from 1981 just before she won the Pulitzer Prize to 2020 and cover nearly forty years of a creative life which as Henley remarks in the most recent interview is such a life worth living to be in tune with the creative process Conversations with Andre Dubus

Olivia Carr Edenfield,2013-08-01 Over three decades celebrated fiction writer Andre Dubus 1936 1999 published seven collections of short stories two collections of essays two collections of previously published stories two novels and a novella While this is an impressive publishing record for any writer for Dubus who suffered a near fatal accident mid career it is near miraculous Just after midnight on July 23 1986 after stopping to assist two stranded motorists Dubus was struck by a car His right leg was crushed and his left leg had to be amputated above the knee After months of hospital stays and surgeries he would suffer chronic pain for the rest of his life However when he gave his first interview after the accident his deepest fear was that he would never write again This collection of interviews traces his career beginning in 1967 with the publication of his novel The Lieutenant to his final interview given right before his death February 24 1999 In between are conversations that focus on his shift to essay writing during his long recovery period as well as those that celebrate his return to fiction with the publication of The Colonel's Wife in 1993 Dubus would also share stories surrounding his Louisiana childhood his three marriages the writers who influenced him and his deep Catholic faith Reading U.S. Latina Writers A.
