Age Rage and Going Gently Oliver Davis, 2006-01-01 This wide ranging study looks at how the ageing process has alternately been figured in and excluded from twentieth century French literature philosophy and psychoanalysis It espouses a critical interdisciplinarity and calls into question the assumptions underlying much research into ageing in the social sciences work in which the negative aspects of growing older are almost invariably suppressed It offers a major reappraisal of Simone de Beauvoir's great but neglected late treatise La Vieillesse and presents the first substantial discussion of a lost documentary film about old age in which Beauvoir appears and which she helped to write PROMENADE AU PAYS DE LA VIEILLESSE Questioning Beauvoir's own rather reductive reading of Gide's work on old age this study analyses the way in which his Journal and Ainsi soit il experiment with a range of representational models for the senescent subject The encounter between psychoanalysis and ageing is framed by a reading of Violette Leduc's autobiographical trilogy in which she suggests that psychoanalysis to its detriment simply cannot allow ageing to signify This claim is tested in a critical survey of recent theoretical and clinical work by psychoanalysts interested in ageing in France the UK and the US Lastly Herv Guibert's recently republished photo novel about his elderly great aunts Suzanne et Louise is examined as a work of intergenerational empathy and is found in addition to be an important statement of his photographic aesthetic Navigating between the extremes of fury age rage and serene acceptance going gently this study aims throughout to examine the role which ageing plays in formal as well as thematic terms in writing the life of the subject

Contemplation and Midlife Crisis Rosemarie Carfagna, 2014-05-14 This book helps the reader in midlife crisis frame his/her experience in spiritual contemplative terms and thereby provides a wider context in which to understand and eventually accept it

The Losses of Our Lives Dr. Nancy Copeland-Payton, 2011-07-11 Find hope and renewal in life's natural cycle of ordinary losses and new beginnings When we intentionally enter into our everyday walk through small losses the terrain of larger losses the valley of the shadow of death is not totally unknown It is not completely unfamiliar alien terrifying for we have walked some of this way before with our lesser losses We can journey through this valley of loss for journey through it we must And we can emerge markedly changed but alive on the other side from the Prologue Going beyond loss as a problem to be resolved a grief to be worked through Dr Nancy Copeland Payton a spiritual director and ordained clergywoman reframes loss from the perspective that our everyday losses help us learn what we need to handle the major losses Weaving in spiritual and classical themes personal and scriptural story Dr Copeland Payton shows us that by becoming aware of what our lesser losses have to teach us the larger losses of our lives become less terrifying Each chapter includes a spiritual practice and questions for reflection to help you Mine the hidden depths of painful losses of things and places Traverse the devastating loss of relationships and the heart wrenching death of people we love Overcome the steep dark slopes of loss of beliefs and faith Venture past our fear of the losses of aging and our own death Transpersonal Psychotherapy Nigel Wellings, Elizabeth Wilde

McCormick, 2000-01-30 This is an enriching book for readers interested in unconscious psychological processes and who have a predilection for psychotherapy which interfaces psychology philosophy and spirituality Journal of Critical Psychology Counselling and Psychotherapy Transpersonal Psychotherapy recognizes levels of experience that take us beyond our usual sense of self limited by the content of our personality Whilst facilitating the emergence of self it also actively encourages an exploration of transpersonal experience as an integral part of the individuation process The major work proves a thorough and accessible introduction for students of psychotherapy and interested others Peregrina Marilyn R. you're actually growing. Sure, when you're working on getting rid of a huge character flaw, you can see progress, but do you ever wish you had a roadmap for the spiritual journey for the rest of the time? Do you ever feel spiritually dry or like something's just not working anymore in your spiritual life? If you find yourself longing for more satisfaction, joy, and intimacy with Christ, this book is for you. Stages of the Soul is about making tangible spiritual progress. It's about truly understanding understanding like you've never understood before that you are deeply loved. Nancy Kane walks you through five stages of the soul's journey toward embracing God's love. As you learn about each stage, you'll be able to identify where you are in the process of spiritual growth, understand the role of pain and suffering in your life, experience God's love in the radically deep way you were designed to experience it. Imagine loving God in a way that fills you up from the moment you wake up to the moment you go to bed. Imagine having Christ's love for the world flow out of your heart without insecurity, anxiety, or selfishness getting in the way. That's what this book is all about: radically deeper love. This book will help you see more clearly how the Lord tenderly guides us to greater wholeness, holiness, and love. But Stages of the Soul is not just another book; it will become both your companion and guide as you walk day by day in greater intimacy with Christ. There is nothing more valuable than help in your journey toward spiritual wholeness. Receive that gift today.

Love Is Not Enough - to Prepare Your Child for Life's Challenges Halim Ozkaptan, 2010-03-21. This book describes the parental techniques necessary to develop their child's self-confidence and courage to maintain a moral balance in view of today's media, drug, and internet onslaught. The constraints of family and community have been loosened at the same time the child needs discipline and boundaries to withstand temptation and negative pressures. It is designed to help a child overcome his or her self-doubt and fear when faced by life's challenges and peer pressure. The key developmental needs of a child: self-realization and fellowship are described. Principles, techniques, and illustrative examples are also given to help a parent train a child to become a confident and self-assured good person.

The Way to Love Matt Boswell, 2018-09-04. Love people. An oft-proclaimed rallying cry for Christians, but what does it look like in practice to love? We may believe that love is the greatest (1 Cor 13:13). Love may be our destination. But do we know how to get there? This book addresses essential questions about the Christian life: What is a true, compelling, and helpful Christian understanding of love? What is spiritual growth supposed to do to us, or for us, or for others through us? How can we speak of grace and personal initiative in one theological vision? How do we go beyond a spirituality that is either too privatized and insular or too activist without the undergirding character needed to sustain such activism? How do we ensure love is not simply a principle we hold or a slogan we applaud but a powerful force that perpetually grows in us and ripples out to others in concrete, transformative ways? This book is a guide to love. Drawing on virtue ethics, psychology, theology, and spirituality, it offers a love-centered, hopeful vision of the Christian spiritual life. The story in which God invites us to live is about a journey of love toward love. Is this your story?

Understanding Children's Spirituality Kevin E. Lawson, 2012-03-22. How important is childhood in the spiritual formation of a person? How do children experience God in the context of their lives as they grow What does God do in the lives of children to draw them to himself and help them grow into a vital relationship with him How can adults who care about children better support their spiritual growth and direct it toward relationship with God through Jesus Christ These are critical questions that church leaders face as they consider how best to nurture the faith of the children God brings into our lives In this book over two dozen Christian scholars and ministry leaders explore important issues about the spiritual life of children and ways parents church leaders and others who care about children can promote their spiritual formation

Psychology ,1928 The laws of Human nature Unity of Universal love ,2023-12-22 Introduction A life of Healing a life of Health A life worth living is a life of Wealth I have practiced over 25 years as a chiropractor and I have learned that most people come to me to treat their pain I m sure that most doctors and therapists have the same experience people want to receive a treatment that will cure their illness As I treat my patients I m also analyzing how their problem was created I m looking at various factors like diet lack of exercise injurious repetitive movements or anything else that could provoke the problem I m trying to get the patient to take responsibility for their problem and help me with their treatment It appears that I m treating their physical illness but over the years I have come to a new realization that a person s emotional mental and spiritual side can also affect their health The reality of the situation is that we can t separate an illness into a physical emotional mental or spiritual ailment because everything works together I now understand that attitudes play an essential role in our health and wellbeing Attitudes have characteristics that are physical emotional mental and spiritual In psychology attitudes are labeled as behavioral physical affective emotional and cognitive mental In this book attitudes have a spiritual side as well attitudes will have a positive spiritual value or a negative spiritual value Attitudes that bring people together and unite them has an energy with a positive spiritual value and attitudes that are divisive and cause separation has a negative value If we have attitudes with a negative spiritual energy then they will cause illness physical illness mental illness and emotional illness We need to adopt attitudes with a positive spiritual energy if we want to stay healthy and grow spiritually Spiritual growth is there for all of us but we have to make the effort no one can make us grow spiritually Looking for someone to cure our ills is a short term proposition the long term cure is when we discover what is causing us harm and create a healthy lifestyle The 7 Laws of Human Nature is a scientific philosophical study into the human consciousness the 7 chakras and the human aura We use theories to make sense about what we are observing in life to explain ideas and interpret facts The 1st chapter is the Theory of the Oneness of Universal Love which will present 7 hypotheses These hypotheses will present facts and suppositions of facts which will be followed up by a theory This is all happening on four energy levels physical emotional mental and spiritual Life on Earth has to have a reason our lives aren t an accident and this book presents a logical theory on the how and why of life This is a book on love and how love works in our lives With Love and Devotion to All
