Passion S Gold:

Passions of the Heart John D. Street, 2019 Enticed by rage sensuality or pride anyone can become caught up in previously unimaginable acts Experienced biblical counselor John Street takes a hard look at the heart idolatries that lead even Christians to commit egregious sexual sin showing how to bring lasting change by identifying the underlying motivations of the heart Here there is hope any sin can be forgiven and Christ gives men and women the grace to mortify fleshly desires and to humbly live for him

Reading the Early Modern Passions Gail Kern Paster, Katherine Rowe, Mary Floyd-Wilson, 2004-06 Authors here investigate specific emotions such as sadness courage and fear Others turn to emotions spread throughout society by contemporary events such as a ruler's death the outbreak of war or religious schism and discuss how such emotions have widespread consequences in both social practice and theory

An Essay on the Passions Kingsmill Davan, 1799

Passions Christiane Heggan, 1993 From California's gold coast to the canals of Venice to the high rises of Manhattan Paige Granger lives a life of passion and glamour but finds herself torn between the ex husband she still loves and her husband to be Original

Hume, Passion, and Action Elizabeth Schmidt Radcliffe, 2018 David Hume's theory of action is well known for several provocative theses including that passion and reason cannot be opposed over the direction of action Elizabeth S Radcliffe defends an original interpretation of Hume's views on passion reason and motivation which is consistent with other theses in Hume's philosophy loyal to his texts and historically situated She challenges the now orthodox interpretation of Hume on motivation presenting an alternative that situates Hume closer to Humeans than many recent interpreters have Part of the strategy is to examine the thinking of the early modern intellectuals to whom Hume responds Most of these thinkers insisted that passions lead us to pursue harmful objects unless regulated by reason and most regarded passions as representations of good and evil which can be false Understanding Hume's response to these claims requires appreciating his respective characterizations of reason and passion The author argues that Hume's thesis that reason is practically impotent apart from passion is about beliefs generated by reason rather than about the capacity of reason Furthermore the argument makes sense of Hume's sometimes ridiculed description of passions as original existences having no reference to objects The author also shows how Hume understood morality as intrinsically motivating while holding that moral beliefs are not themselves motives and why he thought of passions as self regulating contrary to the admonitions of the rationalists

Passions of the Soul Rowan Williams, 2024-01-18 The Eastern Christian tradition is filled with theological and spiritual riches In Passions of the Soul Rowan Williams opens up the great classics of Eastern Christian writing to show how it can help us to understand and cope with the ups and downs of modern life With compelling and illuminating insight he shows the cost of living in a culture that is theologically and philosophically undernourished working with a diminished and trivialized picture of the human self The Eastern tradition teaches us how to develop our self knowledge and awareness so that we can relate to the world without selfish illusions Only then can we be ready for our eyes to be opened to God and avoid destructive patterns of behaviour Only in this way can we understand the kind of people we need to become Historical illustrations of the origin and progress of the passions, and their influence on the conduct of mankind [by S.W. Burgess]. Samuel Walter Burgess,1825 Passions, Persons, Psychotherapy, Politics Andrew Samuels,2014-11-13 Andrew Samuels is one of the best known figures internationally in the fields of psychotherapy Jungian analysis relational psychoanalysis and counselling and in academic studies in those areas His work is a blend of the provocative and original together with the reliable and scholarly His many books and papers figure prominently on reading lists in clinical and academic teaching contexts This self selected collection Passions Persons Psychotherapy Politics brings together some of Samuels major writings at the interface of politics and therapy thinking In this volume he includes chapters on the market economy prospects for eco psychology and environmentalism the role of the political Trickster particularly the female Trickster the father relations between women and men and his celebrated and radical critique of the Jungian idea of the feminine principle Clinical material consists of his work with parents and on the therapy relationship The book concludes with his seminal and transparent work on Jung and anti semitism and an intriguing account of the current trajectory of the Jungian field Samuels has written a highly personal and confessional introduction to the book Each chapter also has its own topical introduction written in a clear and informal style There is also much that will challenge the long held beliefs of many working in politics and in the social sciences This unique collection of papers will be of interest to psychotherapists Jungian analysts psychoanalysts and counsellors as well as those undertaking academic work in those areas Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah,2006-10-26 Lectures on the philosophy of the human mind Thomas Brown,1833 Mental Hygiene: Or, An Examination of the Intellect and Passions, Designed to Illustrate Their Influence on Health and the Duration of Life William Sweetser,1844 From Passions to Emotions Thomas Dixon,2003-06-05 Today there is a thriving emotions industry to which philosophers psychologists and neuroscientists are contributing Yet until two centuries ago the emotions did not exist In this path breaking study Thomas Dixon shows how during the nineteenth century the emotions came into being as a distinct psychological category replacing existing categories such as appetites passions sentiments and affections By examining medieval and eighteenth century theological psychologies and placing Charles Darwin and William James within a broader and more complex nineteenth century setting Thomas Dixon argues that this domination by one single descriptive category is not healthy Overinclusivity of the emotions hampers attempts to argue with any subtlety about the enormous range of mental states and stances of which humans are capable This book is an important contribution to the debate about emotion and rationality which has preoccupied western thinkers throughout the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and has implications for contemporary debates Lectures on the Philosophy of the Human Mind Thomas BROWN (M.D., Professor of Moral Philosophy in the University of Edinburgh.),1860 The Century ,1891 Passion and Action Susan James,1997-10-16 Passion and Action explores the place of the emotions in seventeenth century understandings of the body and mind and the role they were held to play in reasoning and action Interest in the passions pervaded all areas of philosophical enquiry and was central to the theories of many major figures including Hobbes Descartes Malebranche Spinoza Pascal and Locke Yet little attention has been paid to this topic in studies of early modern thought Susan James surveys the inheritance of ancient and medieval doctrines about the passions then shows how these were incorporated into new philosophical theories in the course of the seventeenth century She examines the relation of the emotions to will knowledge understanding desire and power offering fresh analyses and interpretations of a broad range of texts by little known writers as well as canonical figures and establishing that a full understanding of these authors must take account of their discussions of our affective life Passion and Action also addresses current debates particularly those within feminist philosophy about the embodied character of thinking and the relation between emotion and knowledge This ground breaking study throws new light upon the shaping of our ideas about the mind and provides a historical context for burgeoning contemporary investigations of the emotions

Novels George Sand, 1902 Lectures on the Philosophy of the Human Mind, with a Memoir of the Author by the Rev. David Welsh, Minister of St. David's, Glasgow Thomas Brown, 1828 The Passions Of The Heart Of God Mariano Sennewald, 2022-11-23 When you speak with someone you will very soon recognize the things they are ardent about because they speak so fervently about them If the Scriptures are an intimate dialogue with God what are the topics He speaks about with irrepressible passion What things are mentioned with overwhelming desire Which ones does God name more often and more emphatically What does the Word say specifically about things that God loves Through this book you will discover seven areas that burn in the heart of God These longings will become the goal of your being a guide to prayer and intercession an action map a ministry plan the itinerary for your life s journey a holy zeal to see others also shaping their hearts according His heart
