Passion Six Literary Marriages:

Passion Robert Neumann, 1973-01-01 Passion. Six Literary Marriages ... Translated ... by Brian W. Downs Robert Neumann, Brian Westerdale DOWNS, 1933 The Faces of Janus Nicole Brunnhuber, 2005 The author offers an interdisciplinary examination of the German speaking exile experience in Great Britain from the beginnings of the Nazi regime to the end of the Second World War The book examines the contingencies of cultural production for German and Austrian exiles against the historical context of British immigration and internment policies By investigating the influence and manipulation of trends in popular British culture in the English language exile fiction by Ernest Borneman Robert Neumann Ruth Feiner Lilo Linke and George Tabori the author illustrates how a suspect minority voiced their socio political concerns in the dominant culture and presents a strong case for the facilities of polylingualism in literature The book reconstructs biographical and cultural histories of authors whose remarkable success as English language writers may otherwise risk lingering in obscurity Since the author traces the interaction of historical events and the personal experience of a range of writers themes of gender based national and religious identities are addressed Flexible and accessible the book extracts meaning from the politics of popular culture and cultural exchange in the twentieth century during a period of nationalism acute jingoism and war A Marriage Book James P. Lenfestey, 2017 Rooted in passion desire sensuality and the shared heat of love An absolute joy to read ROBERT HEDIN 40 O.B.; Or, How Thewar was Won Hugh Cleland Hoy, 1932 The Marriage Plot Jeffrey Eugenides, 2011-10-11 A New York Times Notable Book of 2011 A Publisher s Weekly Top 10 Book of 2011 A Kirkus Reviews Top 25 Best Fiction of 2011 Title One of Library Journal s Best Books of 2011 A Salon Best Fiction of 2011 title One of The Telegraph s Best Fiction Books of the Year 2011 It s the early 1980s the country is in a deep recession and life after college is harder than ever In the caf s on College Hill the wisecracking kids are inhaling Derrida and listening to Talking Heads But Madeleine Hanna dutiful English major is writing her senior thesis on Jane Austen and George Eliot purveyors of the marriage plot that lies at the heart of the greatest English novels As Madeleine tries to understand why it became laughable to read writers like Cheever and Updike who wrote about the suburbia Madeleine and most of her friends had grown up in in favor of reading the Marquis de Sade who wrote about deflowering virgins in eighteenth century France real life in the form of two very different guys intervenes Leonard Bankhead charismatic loner college Darwinist and lost Portland boy suddenly turns up in a semiotics seminar and soon Madeleine finds herself in a highly charged erotic and intellectual relationship with him At the same time her old friend Mitchell Grammaticus who s been reading Christian mysticism and generally acting strange resurfaces obsessed with the idea that Madeleine is destined to be his mate Over the next year as the members of the triangle in this amazing spellbinding novel graduate from college and enter the real world events force them to reevaluate everything they learned in school Leonard and Madeleine move to a biology Laboratory on Cape Cod but can t escape the secret responsible for Leonard s seemingly inexhaustible energy and plunging moods And Mitchell traveling around the world to get Madeleine out of his mind finds himself face to face with ultimate questions about the meaning of life the existence of God and the true nature of love Are the great love stories of the nineteenth century dead Or can there be a new story written for today and alive to the realities of feminism sexual freedom prenups and divorce With devastating wit and an abiding understanding of and affection for his characters Jeffrey Eugenides revives the motivating energies of the Novel while creating a story so contemporary and fresh that it reads like the intimate journal of our own lives

An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: Autobiographies, novels, poetry, letters, historical works, natural history and science, linguistics, painting and the other arts, politics, psychopathology, biography, miscellaneous, dissertations Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich

Binding Passions Guido Ruggiero, 1993-06-10 Mining the rich Venetian archives especially the unusually detailed records of Venice's own branch of the Roman Inquisition Guido Ruggiero provides a strikingly new and provocative interpretation of the end of the Renaissance in Italy In this boldly structured work he develops five narrative accounts of individual encounters with the Inquisition that illustrate the double edged metaphor of how passions were both bound by late Renaissance society and were seen in turn as binding people In this way new perspectives are opened on magic witchcraft love marriage gender and discipline at the level of the community and beyond Witches courtesans prostitutes women healers nobles Cardinals and renegade priests and monks speak from these pages describing their lives beliefs hopes fears and lies With an imaginative flair for storytelling and impeccable scholarship Ruggiero exposes the rich complexity of the culture and poetics of the everyday at the end of the Renaissance and illuminates a previously unexplored chapter in Italian history The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1875 Passionate Communities Marilyn R. Schuster,1999-06 In this new full length study of Jane Rule s life and work Marilyn Schuster argues that Rule s novels provide a way of writing and reading lesbian that resists and subverts dominant discourses of gender and sexuality both those of mainstream culture and of political and sexual subcultures From her earliest novel Desert of the Heart 1964 Rule s fiction has provided a challenge to the concept of a fixed identity and to the identity politics founded on such a concept Incorporating all of Jane Rule s early work including unpublished manuscripts letters magazine and newspaper columns as well as fan mail she received Schuster also draws on interviews conversations and personal encounters with the author to elicit the ways in which Rule interrogates the meanings and politics of sexuality the relationship between sexuality and language and the stakes of communities in individual claims on identity Passionate Communities is a thorough engaging and long overdue study of an important voice in lesbian literature and gay and lesbian politics The Ridpath Library of Universal Literature ... John Clark Ridpath,1898 Passions, Sympathy and Print Culture Heather Kerr,David Lemmings,Robert Phiddian,2016-03-08 This book explores ways in which passions came to be conceived performed and authenticated in the eighteenth century marketplace of print It considers satire and sympathy in various environments ranging from popular novels and journalism through philosophical studies of the Scottish Enlightenment to last words aesthetics and plastic surgery A History of British, Irish and American Literature Hans-Peter Wagner,2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British Irish and American literary works up to 2020 Focussing on outstanding writings in prose poetry drama and non fiction the book covers the time from the Anglo Saxon period to the 21st century The feature that makes this literary history unique among its rivals is the coverage of television web series as a particular form of postmodern drama The chapters on recent drama now contain detailed analyses of the development of TV and web series from Britain Ireland and America with extensive discussions of those series now considered classics In addition there are several major innovative features To begin with each century is introduced by a survey of the socio political and cultural backgrounds in which the literary works are embedded Furthermore extensive visual material more than 160 engravings cartoons and paintings has been integrated This visual aspect as well as the introductory sections on art for each century give the reader an excellent idea of the symbiosis between visual and literary representations Further innovative aspects include discussions of non fictional works from literary criticism and theory travel writing historiography and the social sciences analyses of such popular genres as crime fiction science fiction fantasy the Western horror fiction and children s literature footnotes explaining technical and historical terms and events a detailed glossary of literary terms chronological tables for British Anglo Irish and American literatures an updated cut off date 2020 extensive bibliography containing suggestions for further reading Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature ,1896 The International Library of Masterpieces Literature Art and Rare Manuscripts Harry Thurston Peck, Frank R.
