Isotopography Niels Wilde,2024-08-19 While the concept of place remains undertheorized in Kierkegaard research this study argues that place is at the center of Kierkegaard s thinking The first part of the book shows that Kierkegaard s notion of situatedness as being placed in a socio historical situation conditioned by a situation prior to situatedness points to a realist position and a flat ontology Secondly the book develops a detailed analysis of the ontological structure of the existential place the place we ourselves are and concrete places the places where we are Place opens a qualified space within bounds the existence sphere an atmosphere of elemental attunement and attuned elementality Finally the book collects the dots from part one and two in a topological realist approach to Kierkegaard s theology and three main definitions of God God is love God is that everything is possible and God is the middle term The book concludes that Kierkegaard s existential topography reveals a realist position where we are is never exhausted by being the place where we are
