Passionate Fictions Marta Peixoto, Passionate Fictions Marta Peixoto, 1994 Passionate Fictions was first published in 1994 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Clarice Lispector is the premiere Latin American woman prose writer of this century Suzanne Ruta noted in the New York Times Book Review but because she is a woman and a Brazilian she has remained virtually unknown in the United States Passionate Fictions provides American readers with a critical introduction to this remarkable writer and offers those who already know Lispector's fiction a deeper understanding of its complex workings Utopias of Otherness Fernando Arenas, 2003 Forges a new understanding of how these two Lusophone nations are connected The closely entwined histories of Portugal and Brazil remain key references for understanding developments past and present in either country Accordingly Fernando Arenas considers Portugal and Brazil in relation to one another in this exploration of changing definitions of nationhood subjectivity and utopias in both cultures Examining the two nations shared language and histories as well as their cultural social and political points of divergence Arenas pursues these definitive changes through the realms of literature intellectual thought popular culture and political discourse Both Brazil and Portugal are subject to the economic political and cultural forces of postmodern globalization Arenas analyzes responses to these trends in contemporary writers including Jose Saramago Caio Fernando Abreu Maria Isabel Barreno Vergilio Ferreira Clarice Lispector and Maria Gabriela Llansol Ultimately Utopias of Otherness shows how these writers have redefined the concept of nationhood not only through their investment in utopian or emancipatory causes such as Marxist revolution women's liberation or sexual revolution but also by shifting their attention to alternative modes of conceiving the ethical and political realms Exploring Gender Studies and Feminism Through Literature and Media Khuraijam, Gyanabati, 2022-06-24 The evolution of how gender and feminism have been portrayed within media and literature has changed dramatically over the years as society continues to understand the importance of representation within entertainment To fully understand how the field has changed further study on the current and past forms of media representation is required Exploring Gender Studies and Feminism Through Literature and Media engages with literary texts digital media films and art to consider the relevant issues and empowerment strategies of feminism and gender and discusses the latest theories and ideas Covering topics such as gender performativity homophobia patriarchy sexuality LGBTQ community digital studies and empowerment strategies this major reference work is ideal for government officials policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Encyclopedia of Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900-2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal,2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel's history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel García Márquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation The Translator's Dialogue Giovanni Pontiero,1997-01-01 The Translator's Dialogue Giovanni Pontiero is a tribute to an outstanding translator of literary works from Portuguese Luso Brazilian Italian and Spanish into English The translator introduced authors such as Carlos Drummond de Andrade Manuel Bandeira Clarice Lispector and Jose Saramago to the English reading world Pontiero's essays shed light on the process of literary translation and its impact on cultural perception This process is exemplified by Pontiero the translator and analyst some of the authors he collaborated with publishers editors and literary critics and finally by an unpublished translation of a short story by Jose Saramago Coisas Narrating Life - Experiments with Human and Animal Bodies in Literature, Science and Art,2016-02-02 Narrating Life explores the relationship between literature science and the arts and the way in which they are informed by the process of narrating life More specifically it asks how do literature science and the arts affect and are affected by the emergence of a critical culture of biopolitics and its rhetorical figurations Its topicality for literary and cultural studies lies therefore in its exploration of the question to what extent could narratives of life or life writing be understood as a special practice through which to access the contemporary discussion about biopolitics with its strategies of immunity mutation and contagion The individual contributions address these questions through focusing on new forms of life writing in traditional and new media science writing and artistic and critical creative practice In doing so they also explore and redraw the boundaries between fictional and factual experimental practices Contributors Amelie Björck Elisabeth Friis Holly Henry Stefan Herbrechter Tom Idema Moritz Ingwersen Cristina Iuli Tanja Nusser Angela Rawlings Manuela Rossini Dorion Sagan Laura Shackelford Amalie Smith Marianne Sommer Steve Tomasula David Wagner Jeff Wallace Dominik Zechner Anti-Literature Adam Joseph Shellhorse,2017-06-30 Anti Literature articulates a rethinking of what is meant today by literature Examining key Latin

American forms of experimental writing from the 1920s to the present Adam Joseph Shellhorse reveals literature's power as a site for radical reflection and reaction to contemporary political and cultural conditions His analysis engages the work of writers such as Clarice Lispector Oswald de Andrade the Brazilian concrete poets Osman Lins and David Viçosa to develop a theory of anti literature that posits the feminine multimedial and subaltern as central to the undoing of what is meant by literature By placing Brazilian and Argentine anti literature at the crux of a new way of thinking about the field Shellhorse challenges prevailing discussions about the historical projection and critical force of Latin American literature Examining a diverse array of texts and media that include the visual arts concrete poetry film scripts pop culture neo baroque narrative and others that defy genre Shellhorse delineates the subversive potential of anti literary modes of writing while also engaging current debates in Latin American studies on subalternity feminine writing posthegemony concretism affect marranismo and the politics of aesthetics

States of Grace Patrícia I. Vieira, 2018-03-19 States of Grace offers a novel approach to the study of Brazilian culture through the lens of utopianism Patrícia I Vieira explores religious and political writings journalistic texts sociological studies and literary works that portray Brazil as a utopian land of the future where dreams of a coming messianic age and of social and political emancipation would come true The book discusses crucial utopian moments such as the theological political utopia proposed by Jesuit Priest Antônio Vieira matriarchal utopias like the egalitarian society of the Amazons work free utopias that abolished the boundaries separating toil and play and ecological utopias where humans and nonhumans coexist harmoniously The uniqueness of the book's approach lies in rethinking the link between messianic and utopian texts as well as the alliances forged between progressive religious socioeconomic political and ecological ideas

the natural world the dead and the unborn and shows how these aspects are present in all the different societies addressed and point to the mystical dimension that permeates most societies With regard to Couto's work this ahuman other is approached mostly through a discussion of the holistic animist values and epistemologies that inform and guide Mozambican traditional societies while in further analyses the notion is approached via discussions on phenomenology elementality and divinity following the philosophies of Levinas and Irigaray and mystical consciousness in Zen Buddhism and the psychology of Jung
