3. KARNEI

10. KORCH

11. DRUKCHAN DRICH

Time to eat the main meal. Can be any food as chosen by the host.

12. TSAPUN

Passover Haggadah:

The Haggadah ,1957 The Passover Haggadah Vanessa L. Ochs,2020-03-17 This telling of the life of the Haggadah probably the most beloved of books that Jews own chronicles its recalibrations over time It moves from its early sources in the Bible and rabbinic literature to the years it was a handwritten manuscript to its life as an illuminated book in the middle ages to its emergence as mass produced printed book and later as an artist s book to its iterations in the twentieth century in America and Israel including those using emerging technologies of our day It is the story of a liturgical text came about to fulfill a biblical injunction to fathers to tell the story of the Exodus from Egypt to their children literally to their sons And you shall tell your son on that day It is because of what the Lord did for me when I went free from Egypt Exodus 13 8 Despite significant flaws in the text that have occasioned thousands of revisions it remains well and alive because it allows its users to transmit the story of Exodus as if it happened to them With a Haggadah in hand at a Passover seder meal the text kindles the memory of belonging to a people who knew slavery and then liberation and enlivens empathy An engagement with the Haggadah inevitable leaves one feeling responsible for helping others to achieve their own liberation Mishkan

For This We Left Egypt? Dave Barry, Alan Zweibel, Adam Mansbach, 2017-03-07

Why is this Haggadah different from all other Haggadahs Three comic writers have some fun with Passover Seders may never be the same USA Today If you've ever suffered through a Seder you're well aware that the entire evening can last as long as the exodus from Egypt itself There are countless stories dozens of blessings and far too many hand washings while the meal turns cold Now prepare to be entertained by another version of the book that's responsible for this interminable tradition With this hilarious parody Haggadah from the comedic minds of Dave Barry Alan Zweibel and Adam Mansbach good Jews everywhere will no longer have to sit and sleep through a lengthy and boring Seder In For This We Left Egypt the authors take you through every step of the Seder from getting rid of all the chametz in your home by setting it on fire with a kosher blowtorch to a retelling of the Passover story starring Pharaoh Schmuck and a burning bush that sounds kind of like Morgan Freeman set against the backdrop of the Promised Land which turned out not to be a land of milk and honey but rather one of rocks and venomous scorpions the size of Yorkshire terriers You then eat a celebratory brisket and wrap up the whole evening by taking at least forty five minutes to say good bye to everyone So gather all the Jews in your life even the few who don't appear to be long suffering and settle in for a fun way to pass the time while waiting for Elijah to show up For This We Left Egypt brings a fair measure of levity to a holiday when leavening is banned New York Jewish Week
