Including an interview conducted by Deborah Starr with celebrated literary editor Diana Athill OBE, the Diaries bring together those most familiar with Ghali's life and work and offer a fresh take on a distinctive author and a vibrant decade.

A World of Lost Innocence Nicola Darwood, 2012-04-25 Elizabeth Bowen was a prolific writer; her publishing career spanned five decades and during this time she wrote ten novels, over one hundred short stories and countless reviews and journal articles. While earlier novels are now acknowledged as Modernist texts, her later novels can be read through the lens of postmodernism; they can be considered variously as romantic fiction, marriage novels, war-time spy thrillers and psychological drama. But throughout her novels she consistently questioned notions of identity, sexuality and the loss of innocence. A World of Lost Innocence: The Fiction of Elizabeth Bowen offers a reading of Elizabeth Bowen's fiction which focuses specifically on this loss, foregrounding the psychological conflicts experienced by her protagonists. It examines the subject not only across the range of her fiction but also in relation to her unfolding narrative structures through a chronologically based discussion of her novels and selected short stories interwoven with biographical information and drawing on unpublished letters. This book investigates the dominant kinds of innocence that Bowen represents throughout her fiction: the innocence attributed to childhood, sexual innocence and sexual morality and political innocence, and argues that the transition from innocence to experience plays an important role in the epistemological journey faced both by Bowen's characters and her readers.

Two Lovely Short Novels by Paul Richards Paul Richards, Award-winning critically acclaimed comedy writer Paul Richards proudly presents his two short novels in one lovely volume. A BAND AT SEA Before you say you're going to leave this band, before you say that playing covers is musical prostitution, before you say that every creative cell in your body has been destroyed by our 80s medley of Bros and A Ha songs, before you say you hate our choice of tunes so much that you're tempted to not listen to another piece of music ever again, before you say you'd rather be dead than play another 50th birthday party gig, don't forget this band is all you have. Alex, 41. He's lost his flat, his girlfriend, his parents and his dignity. Still, at least he's got his bandmates, yes. It's just a shame one of them doesn't talk and the other one has forced them to play a six-month residency in the middle of the sea. A fast-paced comedic tale about ambition, love and why being in a band is the greatest thing ever Contains plenty of swear words and HAVE YOURSELF A RIDICULOUS LITTLE CHRISTMAS Robert a struggling mid management executive really really gets excited by the magic of Christmas His wife no longer loves him his favourite adopted uncle has died and a man he was in charge of has been eaten by a fox at a conference in Banbury Still by Christmas Day everything will be fine yeah A delightful warm short festive tale about the tingling sensations of all things Yuletide It does contain a little swearing but not too much Basically it s really lovely but not a fairytale or anything so not for the kids and Paul wrote it in 2014 so it does reference the Queen s speech and the iPhone 6
