Past Lives Photographs By Martha Casanave:

Past Lives Martha Casanave, Ted Orland, Lyn Hejinian, 1991 20th Century Photographers Grace Schaub, 2014-11-13
This book is a compilation of interviews and essays that cover a broad range of photographers and photographic disciplines. Each photographer profiled made a living by concentrating on a specific aspect of the craft but in doing so transcended their livelihood to become recognized for more than the type of images they created. Each had a distinct style, creative approach, dedication to the craft, point of view about themselves and the world. These interviews were conducted during a seminal period in the shift from film to digital and from print reproduction to global distribution on the Internet. Just like their photographs, they continue to inspire today; now these words can live on as an invaluable reference for the photographers of the future. The truth and wisdom in this collection transcend time and technology. Photography Beyond Technique: Essays from F295 on the Informed Use of Alternative and Historical Photographic Processes Tom Persinger, 2014-02-24
Photography is not dying and has not died. It has been an ever-changing medium since its earliest days, and while near-obsession with the technology of the day may have defined photography over the course of its existence, photography is so much more than hardware and software. Photography is communication, whether chemical or digital, tangible or ephemeral in form. Photography Beyond Technique is a compelling selection of essays and images that reveal the thoughts and methods of some of today's most exciting contemporary photographers. These artists employ alternative, historical, or handmade processes and techniques, and they share a comprehensive view of the medium that the choice of photographic process is just as important as the selection of subjects. While other books concentrate solely on process or theory or artistic intent, none focus on photography in which these decisions are considered inseparable. These 20 essays, originally presented at the annual F295 symposium and seminar series, provide a thought-provoking read for anyone interested in photography as an art form and as a medium through which to view the world. Includes: Looking Backward, Seeing Forward, Reframing Visual History by Robert Hirsch, Mystery, Memory, and Narrative by Martha Casanave, Finding Confidence, Combining Process with Purpose by Mark Osterman, Photograph Material and Metaphor by Jerry Spagnoli. Photographer's Forum, 1996 Women in Photography International Archive, 1997 The Guide to Photography Workshops & Schools Lawrence H. Caplan, Dorlene V. Kaplan, 1992 Library Journal, 1990. Includes beginning Sept 15, 1954, and on the 15th of each month Sept-May a special section. School library journal ISSN 0000-0035 called Junior Libraries 1954-May 1961. Also issued separately. Bibliography of Books by and about Women Photographers Women in Photography International Archive, Peter E. Palmquist, 1998 The Publishers Weekly, 1990 F2, 1992 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 Trajectories Arno Rafael Minkinen, 2013. Trajectories presents fifty years of portraits by the award-winning photographer Martha Casanave. Publishers Weekly, 1990 This Place, These People David Stark, 2013-11-19. The numbers of farms and farmers on the Great Plains are dwindling. Disappearing even faster are the farm places: the houses, barns, and outbuildings.

that made the rural landscape a place of habitation Nancy Warner s photographs tell the stories of buildings that were once loved yet have now been abandoned Her evocative images are juxtaposed with the voices of Nebraska farm people lovingly recorded by sociologist David Stark These plainspoken recollections tell of a way of life that continues to evolve in the face of wrenching change Warner s spare formal photographs invite readers to listen to the cadences and tough minded humor of everyday speech in the Great Plains Stark s afterword grounds the project in the historical relationship between people and their land In the tradition of Wright Morris this combination of words and images is both art and document evoking memories emotions and questions for anyone with rural American roots Ruth Bernhard: The Eternal Body ,1994-11-01 For over half

J. Kern, In 2016 award winning Minnesota based photographer R J Kern made portraits of youth contestants at Minnesota county fairs Each participant some as young as four years old had spent a year raising an animal which they had then entered into a 4 H livestock competition None of the youths who sat for him had succeeded in winning an award despite the obvious care they had given to their animals The Unchosen Ones depicts the bloom of youth and the mettle of the kids who grow up on farms reminding us how resilient children can be when confronted with life s inevitable disappointments The formal qualities of the lighting and setting endow these young people with a gravitas beyond their years revealing self directed dedication in some and in others perhaps the pressures of traditions imposed upon them Kern s beautiful portraits capture a particular America a rural world and a time in life when the layered emotions of youth are laid bare Four years later in 2020 Kern returned to photograph his young subjects The most recent photographs show how the children have grown into adolescence or young adulthood some of them have continued to pursue animal husbandry while others have developed other interests It is likely that some of these kids will not choose to continue running their family farms an unpredictable and demanding way to make a living These diptychs are punctuated by lush landscapes of the farms that are their homes As Kern made the second group of photographs he asked his young subjects what they had carried forward from their previous experience What were their thoughts their dreams and their goals for the future How would they fit into the future of agricultural America The Darkroom Cookbook Steve Anchell,2016-03-22 This is the classic guide for analog photography enthusiasts interested in high quality darkroom work The
