Past Things And Present Jasper Johns Since 1983:

Past Things and Present Joan Rothfuss, Jasper Johns, Walker Art Center, 2003 The Walker Art Center in Minneapolis which holds a complete collection of Johns prints conceived the exhibition held in 2004 for which this is the catalogue the exhibition traveled to South Carolina Scotland Ireland and Spain There are three essays including a lengthy essay by senior art historian Richard Shiff The works are presented without commentary on full page color plates The volume is not indexed The dust jacket is a folded print of Johns Untitled 2001 Distributed by Distributed Art Publishers Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Jasper Johns Jeffrey S. Weiss, John Elderfield, Jasper Johns, 2007 This volume was published to accompany an exhibition of the works of American contemporary artist who works primarily in painting and printmaking Jasper Johns b 1930 In the late 1950 s Johns emerged as force in the American art scene His richly worked paintings of maps flags and targets led the artistic community away from Abstract Expressionism toward a new emphasis on the concrete Johns laid the groundwork for both Pop Art and Minimalism The exhibition of works depicted in this book was held at the National Gallery in Washington concentrating on the pivotal decade 1955 1965 when Johns produced his most famous works Alongside the full color reproductions of Johns works are analysis of various diverse aspects of these early years of his career that established him as one of the great figures in modern art and stimulated much in art created by others Jasper Johns Catherine Craft, 2015-09-15 At a time when the dominant mode of painting Abstract Expressionism emphasised expressive drama through bold brushwork and largely abstract compositions Johns paintings of the American flag targets numbers and the alphabet demonstrated a decided departure from convention Despite being painted with obvious care they seemed emotionally reticent cool and quiet far from the emotional fireworks then fashionable It all began with my painting a picture of an American flag Using this design took care of a great deal for me because I didn't have to design it So I went on to similar things like the targets things the mind already knows That gave me room to work on other levels For instance I've always thought of painting as a surface painting it in one color made this very clear Then I decided that looking at a painting should not require a special kind of focus like going to church A picture ought to be looked at the same way you look at a radiator Unlike most artists statements in New York during the 1950s Johns remarks contained none of the familiar talk of doubt and angst and his selection of subject matter appeared deliberate thoughtful and far removed from emotional attachments and desires To younger artists his art seemed not so much cold and unfeeling as clear eyed and honest after the excesses of Abstract Expressionism Furthermore in selecting recognisable subjects Johns seemed to reject prevailing abstract modes of painting yet his subjects themselves flags targets numbers each possessed a vital characteristic of classic abstraction namely a flatness rendering them all but indistinguishable from the picture plane itself This book underlines how Johns's work made the polarity between abstraction and representation that had dominated debates about modern art for decades seem suddenly obsolete opening up other ways of thinking about art's relation to the world It also tries to understand why since his first exhibition at the Leo Castelli Gallery at the age of twenty seven he has remained one of the major artists of the contemporary artistic scene The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner, Estill Curtis Pennington, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America's cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe's architectural plans for the nation's Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague's tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region's artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume's contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South Past Things and Present, 2003 Cette exposition explore le travail réalisé par Jasper Johns durant ces 20 dernières années travers une sélection de peintures gravures et dessins Ces travaux recèlent des images d'objets présents dans son atelier et dans sa maison ainsi que des allusions son enfance Exhibitionist Richard Dorment, 2016-08-22 100 sumptuously produced essays by Britain's leading art critic US born Richard Dorment They cover exhibitions of historic and contemporary art world wide interpreting and critiquing many of the most important shows of the last 30 years They offer in a highly accessible form the fundamental elements of a history of art and a beguiling review of recent cultural trends Jasper Johns Elizabeth C. Price, 2007 Comprised of nearly fifty paintings sculptures and works on paper The Abstract Impulse highlights artists in such critical movements as Abstract Expressionism Minimalism and Op Art Artists who are included are such canonical figures as Robert Motherwell Jasper Johns Helen Frankenthaler and Robert Mangold among others This publication together with its coinciding exhibition seeks to unveil the pluralistic ways in which abstraction developed after 1950 which will be revealed by the grouping of the works stylistically and thematically into three general sections gesture geometry and introspection Richard Shiff: Writing After Art Richard Shiff, 2023-05-16 A broad and deep anthology of critic and art historian Richard Shiff's most influential writings which have shaped our understanding of twentieth and twenty first century art Elegantly designed as intended for broad readership including art historians art critics artists among other lovers of art this volume is a must read experience with pleasure and discovery Phong Bui The Brooklyn Rail In his engaging and often strikingly deep observations of major modern and contemporary visual art Shiff has written about an impressive range of artists including Willem de Kooning Marlene Dumas Jasper Johns Donald Judd Barnett Newman Pablo Picasso and Bridget Riley A leading scholar and powerful voice Shiff's insight into some of the most prominent artistic practices spans generation place and approach as seen in this considered selection of essays on twenty six artists These writings first appeared in exhibition catalogues for

Jasper Johns Jasper Johns, Scott Rothkopf, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2005 After completing the installation of his 1996 retrospective at New York's Museum of Modern Art Jasper Johns retreated to his studio in Connecticut to wipe the slate clean beginning a body of work that was a dramatic departure from anything he had made before This volume reproduces for the first time the complete series of those magnificent works that Johns one of our greatest living artists has made over the last eight years The first painting in this new series included a string hanging from upper right to lower left generating a curve called a catenary and this curve became the compositional backbone of the entire series Johns produced a total of 61 paintings drawings and prints based on the catenary theme all of which are reproduced in this volume The work is saturated with autobiographical references both transparent and opaque while it simultaneously encourages multiple layers of meaning Sensual surfaces fragile constructions and formal rigor meet allusions to key moments in the history of modern art and motifs from Johns's earlier work The poetry of Johns's catenary series is explored in an illustrated essay by the scholar Scott Rothkopf published alongside the catalogue's 51 color plates

Nocturnes Joan Rothfuss, A prominent figure in the Twin Cities art scene Chris Faust marks the essence of the changing Midwestern landscape by documenting common scenes in an uncommon way Known for his spectacular panoramic work Faust is also increasingly admired for his unique night photographs where he quietly unveils a world we never noticed was there and when the darkest hours evoke a mood of mystery and surrealism The palette of light and shadow heightens our senses by revealing the stillness and ambiguities of the landscape Nocturnes a beautiful collection of more than seventy tritone photographs is a visual record of our world as few ever see it during the nighttime hours Emphasizing the passage of time as well as the necessity for change the images reflect our disappearing rural terrain abandoned urban streets and aging industrial spaces recalling aspects of our culture that are quickly fading into the past With an affinity for certain old world practices and tools Faust works just with ambient light and uses no digital or electronic technology only classic darkroom processing allowing all the subtle textures and tones to emerge in his work Faust's photographs of the Midwest are shot in a panoramic format with wide detailed images spectacular in both their artistry and documentary impact Chris Faust a resident of St Paul is one of Minnesota's finest photographers His award winning images are widely collected and exhibited throughout the region and the country Joan Rothfuss is a writer and art historian who was curator of the Walker Art Center for more than seventeen years She was coeditor of the Walker collection catalogue Bits Pieces Put Together to Present a Semblance of a Whole and the artists of De Stijl and Surrealism In an extensive new Reintroduction Henderson surveys the impact of interest in higher dimensions of space in art and culture from the 1950s to 2000 Although largely eclipsed by relativity theory beginning in the 1920s the spatial fourth dimension experienced a resurgence during the later 1950s and 1960s In a remarkable turn of events it has returned as an important theme in contemporary culture in the wake of the emergence in the 1980s of both string theory in physics with its ten or eleven dimensional universes and computer graphics Henderson demonstrates the importance of this new conception of space for figures ranging from Buckminster Fuller Robert Smithson and the Park Place Gallery group in the 1960s to Tony Robbin and digital architect Marcos Novak Corpse and Mirror John Yau,1983
