

Reading

Goal: To practice the use of Simple Future and develop reading skill.

I. Read the story. Put the paragraph in order and underline ALL the Simple Future tense.

How will my great great granddaughter be like?

I think that I will write a letter to tell her what I'm living right now, and then she will notice the big change in her life and mine. She will have more possibilities in medicine, technology and whatever... Of course, if we take care of our world right now. She will be excited at the moment of finding my letter.

When my mother asked me that, I started to think how my great great granddaughter will be. I think that she will be cute. She will be tall because I'm tall and my parents too. She will have green eyes and black hair.

My name is Missy, and I'm 14. Everyday I talk with my mother about different things. We were watching tv when we saw a robot and she told that she thinks that in the future there will be robots. Maybe, my mom is right. There will be robots in the future. Then, she asked me if I want to have any children in the future and I told her that I want but when I have a job and a husband and a secure family for the baby.

Maybe, she will be a little thin because my father is thin. She won't have to go to school to study, because in 50 years or more, I think that there will not be school. Everything will be online. So, my great great granddaughter will study in her home. She will eat pills or maybe tiny little food, because there are many changes that people do on food nowadays. However, I think that she will have an extravagant car, because cars will be cheaper than now. There will be cars that can fly, and she could have one of those. It will be cool for her.

II. Comprehension Questions. Circle the correct alternative

1. What is the name of the girl?
Minnie / Pauly / Missy
2. How old is Missy?
14 / 16 / 15
3. Her mom said that in the future....
Cars will fly / there will be robots / there will be houses in the air
4. How many children does Missy want to have?
One / two / seven
5. The colors of her great great granddaughter will be
Brown / green / grey
6. Her great great granddaughter will be
Fat / thin / tall
7. Her great great granddaughter will eat....
Chocolate / ice-cream / pills
8. Her great great granddaughter will have.....
An extravagant car / a limosine / a bicycle

III. Write a short paragraph about how you think your great great granddaughter will be

Florida, 1995 Located at the juncture of literature history and anthropology Writing the Past Inscribing the Future charts a strategy of how one might read a traditional text of non Western historical literature in order to generate with it an opening for the future This book does so by taking seriously a haunting work of historical prophecy inscribed in the nineteenth century by a royal Javanese exile working through this writing of a colonized past to suggest the reconfiguration of the postcolonial future that this history itself apparently intends After introducing the colonial and postcolonial orientalist projects that would fix the meaning of traditional writing in Java Nancy K Florida provides a nuanced translation of this particular traditional history a history composed in poetry as the dream of a mysterious exile She then undertakes a richly textured reading of the poem that discloses how it manages to escape the fixing of tradition Adopting a dialogic strategy of reading Florida writes to extend as the work s Javanese author demands this history s prophetic potential into a more global register Babad Jaka Tingkir the historical prophecy that Writing the Past Inscribing the Future translates and reads is uniquely suited for such a study Composing an engaging history of the emergence of Islamic power in central Java around the turn of the sixteenth century Babad Jaka Tingkir was written from the vantage of colonial exile to contest the more dominant dynastic historical traditions of nineteenth century court literature Florida reveals how this history s episodic form and focus on characters at the margins of the social order work to disrupt the genealogical claims of conventional royal historiography thus prophetically to open the possibility of an alternative future Book Business: Publishing Past, Present, and Future Jason Epstein, 2011-02-07 An irresistible book about Grub Street authorship and the literary marketplace Washington Post Book World Jason Epstein has led arguably the most creative career in book publishing during the past half century He founded Anchor Books and launched the quality paperback revolution cofounded the New York Review of Books and created of the Library of America the prestigious publisher of American classics and The Reader s Catalog the precursor of online bookselling In this short book he discusses the severe crisis facing the book business today a crisis that affects writers and readers as well as publishers and looks ahead to the radically transformed industry that will revolutionize the idea of the book as profoundly as the introduction of movable type did five centuries ago Devils, Women, and Jews Joan Young Gregg, 2012-02-01 Contemporary misogyny and antisemitism have their roots in the demonization of women and Jews in medieval Christendom In church art and mass preaching the construct of the devil as an outcast from heaven and the source of all evil was linked both to the conception of women as sensual and malicious figures betraying man s soul on its arduous journey to salvation and to the notion of Jews as treacherous dissidents in the Christian landscape These stereotypes widely disseminated for over three hundred years persist today The exemplum or cautionary story incorporated into preachers manuals and popular homilies was an important mode of religious teaching for clerical and lay folk alike Sermon narratives drawn from Hindu mythology Arab storytelling and secular folktales entertained all classes of medieval society while dispensing theological and cultural instruction In Devils Women and Jews the vital genre of the medieval sermon story is for the first time made accessible to specialists and nonspecialists alike Rendered in modern English the tales provide an invaluable primary resource for medievalists anthropologists psychologists folklorists and students of women s studies and Judaica Critical introductions and explanatory headnotes contextualize the tales and comprehensive endnotes and a bibliography allow readers to follow up analogue and subject studies in their own areas of interest Reading-Writing Connections Rui A.

Johannes de Moor, H.R. van Rooy, 2021-11-22 In the politico religious history of the Deuteronomists past present and future mingle in an often inextricable way Long obsolete traditions which had been unacceptable to the Davidic dynasty were rediscovered and adapted to the aims of the Deuteronomists Personages of the past were condemned and blackened in the light of the new ideology whereas others were glorified and embellished as heroes of faith because their ideas suited the historians This inevitably raises the question whether the Bible can be trusted as a source book for writing a history of Israel Apparently not say scholars like T L Thompson P R Davies and N P Lemche In this volume a number of authors take up this challenge stating that the radical rejection of the biblical testimony in favour of a history based mainly on archaeology is ill advised Several contributions to this volume draw instructive parallels between the process of re writing the history of South Africa and the work of the Deuteronomists
