Word to marriage and family life A Theology of Biblical Counseling Heath Lambert, 2016-04-05 A landmark textbook for Christian counselors that unpacks the core theological convictions behind sound counseling and outlines practical wisdom for counseling today Since the beginning of the biblical counseling movement in 1970 biblical counselors have argued that counseling is a ministry of the Word just like preaching or missions As a ministry counseling must be defined according to sound biblical theology rather than secular principles of psychology For over four decades biblical theology has been at the core of the biblical counseling movement Leaders in biblical counseling have emphasized a commitment to teaching doctrine in their counseling courses out of the conviction that good theology leads to good counseling and bad theology leads to bad counseling A Theology of Biblical Counseling is an ideal resource for use in training biblical counselors at colleges seminaries and training institutes In each chapter doctrine comes to life in real ministry to real people dramatically demonstrating how theology intersects with the lives of actual counselees Counsel for Couples Jonathan D. Holmes, 2025-01-14 Counsel for Couples is an indispensable guide for pastors or lay counselors who lack formal marriage and family counseling training and feel ill equipped and under prepared to handle the messy world of navigating marital troubles with others It offers specific guidance on ten of the most common topics that come up in marriage counseling Solution-focused Pastoral Counseling Charles Allen Kollar, 1997 This groundbreaking book now updated and expanded furthers its original effective time saving approach that benefits pastors overtaxed by counseling demands Dr Charles Kollar presents a departure in pastoral counseling showing that counseling need not be long term or depend on psychological manipulation to produce dramatic results In most cases the solution lies with the counselees themselves Using the tested methods found in Solution Focused Pastoral Counseling pastors apart from counselors will be well equipped to help their counselees discover a solution and put it in motion speedily and productively SFPC is short term typically one to five sessions in which the counselor seeks to create solutions with not for the counselee The focus is on the possibility of life without the problem through an understanding of what is different when the problem does not occur or is less intrusive The goal is healthy change sooner rather than later by helping the counselee see and work on the solution with God's activity already present in his or her life The solution focused approach does not require the counselor to be a highly trained psychological expert It requires biblically based sensitivity and common sense Yet this approach also recognizes its limitations and understands that there are situations in which other professional and or medical help is required Grace-Based Counseling Richard A. Fowler, EdD, Natalie Ford, PhD, 2021-08-03 You speak God's truth when you counsel But do you also communicate His grace The Christian counselor or pastor plays an important role in helping people process the trauma they've experienced Too often a client leaves the counselor's office with feelings of guilt and shame They feel the heavy burden of what they did wrong But somehow they've missed the grace of God that makes things right again A counseling model that stays true to a biblical worldview will overflow with grace not cheap grace but real grace that acknowledges sin while offering a hopeful path to redemption and healing In Grace Based Counseling professional counselors Richard Fowler and Natalie Ford offer a model that blends the truths of Scripture the science of psychology and the everlasting hope of the gospel In this book you will find New grace based counseling model Detailed application of the model with case studies Practical toolbox with surveys assessments and counseling helps A Christian counseling model can t just be about admonishment That approach only leads to shame and human efforts that are doomed to fail But when the gospel is brought to bear in the counseling relationship real life change is possible Then the counselor becomes an instrument of divine grace in the hands of a faithful God Seeing with New Eyes David Powlison,2012-01-30 Have you ever had the experience of getting angry upset or worried about something only later to discover some crucial fact you hadn t known Or have you ever been delighted with something or someone and later found out you d been had Something you had not taken into account explained everything in a different way You had no reason at all Strategic Pastoral Counseling David G. Benner,2003-09-01 Therapeutic counseling in a Christian context can be highly effective when it maintains narrowly focused goals in a time limited setting The details of this proven model of pastoral counseling are described in this practical guide This second edition of Strategic Pastoral Counseling has been thoroughly revised and includes two new chapters Benner includes helpful case studies a new appendix on contemporary ethical issues and updated chapter bibliographies His study will continue to serve clergy and students well as a valued practical handbook on pastoral care and counseling The Pastor as Counselor Earl E. The End of Anxiety Josh Weidmann, 2020-07-21. If God is All powerful, Why Doesn't He Eliminate My Anxiety? Instead of asking this, perhaps we should ask why God is allowing it in the first place. Join pastor and biblical counselor Josh Weidmann on a journey through Scripture and his own vulnerable stories of discovering God's ultimate purpose in pain. The End of Anxiety is designed for individuals or small groups; each chapter begins with Scripture and finishes with practical steps you can apply for immediate relief. Your anxiety, fear, stress, and panic are not the end of you, but facing them could be the start of something great. Read this, apply it, and find freedom from fear forever. Ray Johnston, Senior pastor of Bayside Church in Granite Bay, California.

Making Christian Counseling More Christ Centered Rick W. Marrs, Ph.D., 2019-09-13. Many Christian counselors and pastors want to bring Christ's Gospel and forgiveness into their soul care, but don't know how. Luther's very Christ-centered theology, based in his desire for care of souls, can provide us with that foundation. Various techniques flowing from that foundation are shared. Martin Luther formulated his proclamation of the message of Scripture for his contemporaries between the poles of God's voice in the pages of the Bible and the needs and afflictions of his hearers and readers. Marrs brings twenty-first century readers into that exchange and demonstrates how Luther's insights into the gospel of Jesus Christ help bring healing and comfort to those struggling with guilt, shame, fear, loneliness, and other spiritual afflictions in our day. This volume provides those who are engaged in conversation with the troubled and distressed rich resources for fostering peace and joy in the midst of such trouble and distress. Robert Kolb, PhD, professor of systematic theology, emeritus, Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, USA. If all good theology is pastoral in its orientation, then this groundbreaking practical biblical study is well worth careful consideration by any pastor or Christian counsellor. In it, Marrs engages in a conversation with the teaching of Luther as a Christ-centered pastoral theologian and the practical insights of psychologists on the personal care of their clients, with a special emphasis on Luther's insistence on the need to distinguish between law and gospel in the proper application of God's gracious word with the delivery of soul care to God's people. John W. Kleinig, PhD, Professor Emeritus, Australian Lutheran College, University of Divinity, Adelaide, South Australia.
